Double Delights Part Three:

The End of the Psalter Alma Brodersen, 2017-06-26 Psalms 146 150 sometimes called Final Hallel or Minor Hallel are often argued to have been written as a literary end of the Psalter However if sources other than the Hebrew Masoretic Text are taken into account such an original unit of Psalms 146 150 has to be questioned The End of the Psalter presents new interpretations of Psalms 146 150 based on the oldest extant evidence the Hebrew Masoretic Text the Hebrew Dead Sea Scrolls and the Greek Septuagint Each Psalm is analysed separately in all three sources complete with a translation and detailed comments on form intertextuality content genre and date Comparisons of the individual Psalms and their intertextual references in the ancient sources highlight substantial differences between the transmitted texts The book concludes that Psalms 146 150 were at first separate texts which only in the Masoretic Text form the end of the Psalter It thus stresses the importance of Psalms Exegesis before Psalter Exegesis and argues for the inclusion of ancient sources beyond to the Masoretic Text to further our understanding of the Psalms

Little Shot Carol Partner Holmes, 2012-06-05 George runs eagerly to the schoolyard to celebrate the Fourth of July He is wearing new shoes and can hardly wait to show them to his classmates George has never before had new shoes and is surprised that his father bought them for him Shortly after arriving at the school grounds a few boys invite him to join them George is pleased to be invited The boys talk about George s new shoes and say they are sure his is going to win the foot race Two of the boys Calvin and Tom are the town bullies and George is surprised that they are being so nice to him One of the bullies suggests they all have a practice race George agrees but as soon as he begins to run something hard hits his legs and he falls When he falls the nickels he is holding fly from his hand The boys laugh and call him a dumb immigrant Though he begs for his nickels they laugh and toss the coins back and forth to each other George runs from the schoolyard and follows a dry wash gully bed back to the family ranch He climbs a small hill where he can look down at the valley below As he sobs and prays his sobs are interrupted by the whinny of a horse George looks up and sees a herd of wild horses grazing in the valley He notices a little black horse that seems to be looking right at George Are you lonely like me Do you need a friend George whispers to himself Instantly the horses begin to gallop away and soon disappear in a nearby canyon From that day forward George often thinks about the little black horse One morning when he hides behind a big rock to watch the wild horses drink at the creek he does not see the little black horse A terrible empty feeling fills his heart Suddenly he hears a snorting sound and turning carefully around he see the beautiful black horse standing behind him George and the horse stare quietly at one another until the leader of the herd calls and the little horse races off to join his companions A few weeks later George and his brothers are asked help their father s friends the Johansens catch some wild horses You re too young to be catching a wild horse his dad warns You can only go along to keep the horses from running west After the roundup George looks for the little black horse and sees him walking very slowly and alone toward Coal Canyon George runs to the canyon and finds the horse standing quietly on a side hill The horse is exhausted and allows George to herd him down the canyon and into the family corral With Dad s help George trains the little horse and on his eleventh birthday he rides the horse triumphantly out of the corral The following year George rides his horse in the Fourth of July horse race Before the race begins he sits nervously on his horse Calvin and Tom Meens point at George and laugh The race starts and George s horse runs so fast that George feels like he is flying When the race ends George hears a lot of cheering However until the mayor runs toward him shouting You won George doesn t realize his horse is the winner That day George decides to name his horse Little Shot because the mayor says the horse runs like a bullet out of a 30 30 rifle Winning the horse race was the start of many exciting experiences challenges and adventures George has with his wonderful horse The third year of riding Little Shot in the Fourth of July horse race the running horses are startled when a motor car honks its horn Frightened the horses rear and bumped into each other Angry people shout at the driver Trying to get away from the commotion Little Shot runs off the road Sadly he bangs his shoulder against a tree The tree has a limb that has been cut but is sticking out like a knife The sharp point of the limb stabs Little Shot Blood immediately oozes out of the horse s shoulder and down his front leg In the meantime another horse has calmed and is running down the
