You Can't Market Manure at Lunchtime Maisie Ganzler, 2024-04-02. Five invaluable lessons for doing sustainability right, doing it profitably, and getting the credit you deserve. Did the title of this book get your attention? Good. Because as silly as it is, the idea behind it is serious, earnest, and authentic: you can't become a sustainable operation if you're doing the right things in the wrong place or at the wrong time. Many businesses are in the dark about how to actually do better for the planet and the people in their company and their supply chain while also growing their margin. Some believe it can't be done. But it can. Maisie Ganzler has done it, and now she's going to show you how to build sustainability into your business too. Her five big lessons come from three decades of successes and failures leading a $1.7 billion corporation toward a more sustainable future. Join Ganzler as she takes you to pig farms and boardrooms, factories and farmers' markets, teaching you not only how to operate more sustainably but also how to get the credit you deserve for doing it. No matter what industry you're in, Ganzler's stories from the front lines in the food business will inspire and educate you on what it takes to get sustainability right.

The Performance Complex David Stark, 2020-07-10. What's valuable? Market competition provides one kind of answer. Competitions offer another. On one side, competition is an ongoing and seemingly endless process of pricings on the other; competitions are discrete and bounded in time and location with entry rules, judges, scores, and prizes. This book examines what happens when ever more activities in domains of everyday life are evaluated and experienced in terms of performance metrics. Unlike organized competitions, such systems are ceaseless and without formal entry. Instead of producing resolutions, their scorings create addictions. To understand these developments, this book explores discrete contests architectural competitions international music competitions and world press photo competitions shows how the continuous updating of rankings is both a device for navigating the social world and an engine of anxiety and examines the production of such anxiety in settings ranging from the pedagogy of performance in business schools to struggling musicians coping with new performance metrics in online platforms In the performance society networks of observation in which all are performing and keeping score are entangled with a system of emotionally charged preoccupations with one's positioning within the rankings From the bedroom to the boardroom pharmaceutical companies and management consultants promise enhanced performance This assemblage of metrics networks and their attendant emotional pathologies is herein regarded as the performance complex
