Subsequently Jill and her team are hired to look into the skier's death. The skier was the CEO of a Biotech company. Had the CEO discovered some problems with the company's products. Can Jill and her team avoid becoming victims of winter hazards when the killer sights a new target of Jill and her team. Set in the high elevation of a Colorado ski resort enjoy finding out just how deadly the winter can be.

A Taxing Death Alec Peche, 2015-06-04 Around noon on an average summer day in Sacramento an ambulance rolls up to the State Capitol intent on responding to an emergency call from inside the building. Rushing in they arrive at the Department of Revenue Supervisor's Office to find the man denying the need for emergency care. Paramedics convince him to allow them to check out his pacemaker. They are soon reading his tracing and declare that they need to convert his heart to a normal rhythm. They pull out the defibrillator paddles to try and aid his heart with a single jolt of electric current but it doesn't work and minutes later he lies dead in his office. Just another heart attack on the job or is it. Book 5 in the Jill Quint MD Forensic Pathologist series finds Dr. Quint called in by the family to perform an autopsy on Manuel Valencia, the recently dead man. He was loved by his large extended family, admired by co-workers, and he had just purchased new hiking boots for an upcoming vigorous hike in Yosemite. Both the local coroner and Jill agree it's a homicide and they begin to look at the large list of people who hate to pay taxes. They have the fake paramedics on camera; how hard could it be to find the killers.

Poisonous Death Alec Peche, 2024-11-25 Dr. Jill Quint MD receives a call from the friend of a woman who has just passed away. While the woman was elderly and in excellent health up to a month ago, now her friend was questioning her death. As the victim is within a two-hour drive, Jill decides to take the case, though she initially thinks the woman dies from natural causes. Like many of her cases, there are layers to the circumstances surrounding the victim. In the high-priced real estate area of San Jose, her victim was one of the last holdouts fighting the sale of their mobile home park. Surely such an obvious and superficial antidote was not the motive for murder. This is book 15 in the Jill Quint MD forensic pathologist series.

Vials Alec Peche, 2013-09-23 Jill Quint MD is a forensic pathologist who, along with a group of friends, solve murder mysteries. She has been providing second opinions about the cause of death of a loved one for nearly five years. Both she and her friends have full-time day jobs. Jill has a vineyard she has been nurturing to this year's first vintage of Muscato wine. They take on about a case a month. This is the story of the death of Graeme St. Louis, a young attorney living in a wealthy suburb near San Francisco who has died from necrotizing fasciitis, better known as gangrene. His death appeared to be from natural causes due to the infection caused by a small wound resulting from a brush with sharp coral while scuba diving. Jill soon becomes the next target after she proves that Graeme was murdered and the medical examiner changes his cause of death. Will she stay alive long enough to find the killer? What was the problem that the victim had to die for? From the underwater world of San Juan, Puerto Rico to the sun-drenched hills of central and northern California, why are so many people trying to kill Jill? Vials is a riveting story that will keep you guessing until the end.
