Learning Lenses Chris Quigley, 2014-06 Learning Lenses Chris Quigley, Chris Quigley Education, 2013 A Whole Person Approach to Wellbeing Johanna Lynch, 2020-12-30 This book builds on the person centred medicine movement to promote a shift in the philosophy of care of distress. It discusses the vital importance of whole person health, healing and growth. Developing a new transdisciplinary concept of sense of safety, this book argues that the whole person needs to be understood within their context and relationships and explores the appraisal and coping systems that are part of health. Using clinical vignettes to illustrate her argument, Lynch draws on an understanding of attachment and trauma informed approaches to life story and counsels against an over reliance on symptom based fragmentation of body and mind. Integrating literature from social determinants of health, psychology, psychotherapy, education and the social sciences with new research from the fields of immunology, endocrinology and neurology, this broad ranging book is relevant to all those with an interest in person centred healthcare including academics and practitioners from medicine, nursing, mental health and public health.

British Education Index, 2002 Australian Language & Literacy Matters, 2004 TCI, 1998 Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar. Applying a re-envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics, this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty-first century situations of ecological trauma, especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross-species relations. First, ecological feminism; second, ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition. By way of readings of selected biblical texts, this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature, principally poetry, is helpful in decolonizing ethics. Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism. American Doctoral Dissertations, 1979

Virginia Woolf and Her Female Contemporaries Julie Vandivere, Megan Hicks, 2016 Virginia Woolf and Her Female Contemporaries helps us comprehend the ways that women writers and artists contributed to and complicated modernism by contextualizing them alongside Woolf's work. Surgical Ophthalmology Frederick Christopher Blodi, Günter Mackensen, Hellmut Neubauer, 1989 Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb, 2020-07-10 Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas. These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon, a newsreel, possibly a serial and a short before launching into the feature film. Shorts could tackle any topic of interest: an unusual travelogue, a comedy, musical revues, sports, nature or popular vaudeville acts. With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s, makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films, using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies. After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television, short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s. This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short
