including Pentecostal theology continues to burn brightest wherever it is fueled most directly

The Dialectics of Mission Elmer A. Guzman, 2023-09-15 Drawing on the resources of contemporary systematic theologians Kevin Vanhoozer and Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Elmer A Guzman explores the generative dimension of mission for the formation of doctrine for a church that needs to witness in a pluralistic world Guzman argues that understanding doctrinal formation and development depends on the missional dimension of doctrinal hermeneutics In other words these theological concepts and practices are justified based on the negotiation between theological sources identity markers and the context's diversity markers This book shows how perspectives arising from the structural elements in theological methodology shed fresh light on missional theology and the interconnections between the doctrinal loci in theology

Transforming Renewal Andy Lord, 2015-01-12 Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewalist theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a study relevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world

Liston, 2015-09-01 Over recent decades Spirit Christology has utilized a pneumatological perspective to gain significant insight into the person and life of Christ The Anointed Church extends this work providing the first constructive and systematic ecclesiology developed through the approach of a Third Article Theology Arguing that the Spirit's immanent identity is reprised on a series of expanding stages Christologically soteriologically and most pertinently here ecclesiologically Liston concludes the Church can be characterized as existing in any and all relationships where by the Spirit the love of Christ is offered and returned

The One Story John W. Simpson, 2025-01-23 Our creation and redemption by God and our discipleship to Jesus are all one story and it is an odd story It is odd because the method God follows in all his actions toward us and which we imitate in discipleship to Jesus is characterized not by triumph even paradoxical triumph or by assertion of a hero's individuality and strength but by weakness submission self enslavement and loss God has followed this method in creating a universe to stand alongside and even challenge God's existence God has also acted in this way in continuing to nurture the existence of the human rebels against God So God has also acted in the incarnation in that is the kenosis of Christ his self emptying Philippians 2:7 which provides us the sharpest delineation of the divine method And so God has acted for our redemption and our creation as a people conformed to Jesus and giving testimony to the defeat by his kenosis of the powers that have enslaved humanity The One Story fills out the progress of this one story of creation and redemption and speaks a challenge to how the church understands and lives out the victory by kenosis of Jesus
