Christ The Key Current Issues In Theology:

Christ the Key Kathryn Tanner, 2009-12-10 Through the intensely intimate relationship that arises between God and humans in the incarnation of the Word in Christ God gives us the gift of God's own life This simple claim provides the basis for Kathryn Tanner's powerful study of the centrality of Jesus Christ for all Christian thought and life if the divine and the human are united in Christ then Jesus can be seen as key to the pattern that organizes the whole even while God's ways remain beyond our grasp Drawing on the history of Christian thought to develop an innovative Christ centered theology this book sheds fresh light on major theological issues such as the imago dei the relationship between nature and grace the Trinity's implications for human community and the Spirit's manner of working in human lives Originally delivered as Warfield Lectures at Princeton Theological Seminary it offers a creative and compelling contribution to contemporary theology Themelios, Volume 49, Issue 2 Brian Tabb, 2024-09-19 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition <http://thegospelcoalition.org/themelios> and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Contributing Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary Themelios, Volume 36, Issue 1 D. The Gift of Theology Rosemary P. Carbine, Hilda P. Koster, 2015-12-01 Kathryn Tanner is undoubtedly one of the most important contemporary North American theologians From landmark studies in systematic and constructive theology to economics Tanner's work is a contribution of inestimable value hallmarked by its depth precision provocativeness and grace Unifying the immense scope of her work is the particular vision of God's self gift an internal dynamic communal reality that is expressed outward in acts of love and generosity that are creation incarnation and capacious life in the Spirit This vision as the grounding matrix of Tanner's theology has been extended beyond the disciplinary boundaries of theology in constructive explorations of economics social and political theory cultural studies and ethics This volume celebrates the vision and breadth of Tanner's unique contribution Essays by established scholars colleagues and former students trace out the key loci and themes from theological method the Trinity Christology creation to economics environmental and social ethics and politics to generate constructive and ecumenical conversation that presents Tanner as an important contemporary public theologian

A Politics of Grace Christiane Alpers, 2018-04-19 Christiane Alpers discusses the contribution and role Christian theology plays in developing of the democratic life in post Christendom societies She discusses the three major approaches to this debate public theology Radical Orthodoxy and post liberal Protestantism in order to illustrate the shared assumption that such an enhancement should be understood in terms of solving existing political problems The volume builds on and combines public theology's aspiration to craft a non triumphant political theology fit for a post Christendom context Radical Orthodoxy's hesitancy to embrace secularism as neutral centre for present democracies as well as post liberalism's Christocentric outlook Alpers engages with a wide variety of thinkers such as John Milbank Graham Ward John Howard Yoder Kathryn Tanner and Edward Schillebeeckx to suggest that a political theology in the post Christendom context could build on the faith that Christ alone has redeemed the whole world

Rethinking Trinitarian Theology Giulio Maspero, Robert J. Wozniak, 2012-03-01 The book aims at showing the most important topics and paradigms in modern Trinitarian theology It is supposed to be a comprehensive guide to the many traces of development of Trinitarian faith As such it is thought to systematize the variety of contemporary approaches to the field of Trinitarian theology in the present philosophical cultural context The main goal of the publication is not only a description of what happened to Trinitarian theology in the modern age It is rather to indicate the typically modern specificity of the Trinitarian debate and first of all to encourage development in the main areas and issues of this subject

Triadosis Eduard Borysov, 2021-01-01 The complex nature of Christian communion with a personal God requires a nuanced expression Since its inception the early church affirmed God's unknowable nature and also participation in God through Christ The church fathers employed the language of theosis in talking about union with God and human transformation in the likeness of God However the term theosis or deification is a broad category and requires precise explanation to avoid human dissolution into the divine in the mystical union it attempts to describe In Triadosis Eduard Borysov offers a new approach to the conundrum of the imparticipable divine nature and the prospect of personal union between human and the Trinity Most significantly he proposes that if God is Trinity then we are created and restored in the image of the same tri-personal God

The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015 This Handbook introduces the theology of the sacraments from a variety of perspectives It contains historical overviews biblical discussion philosophical and theological reflection as well as ecumenical discussion It is one of the most comprehensive overviews of the sacraments throughout the tradition of the Christian church

An Introduction to Theological Anthropology Joshua R. Farris, 2020-04-21 In this thorough introduction to theological anthropology Joshua Farris offers an evangelical perspective on the topic Farris walks the reader through some of the most important issues in traditional approaches to anthropology such as sexuality posthumanism and the image of God He addresses fundamental questions like Who am I and Why do I exist He also considers the creaturely and divine nature of humans the body-soul relationship and the beatific vision

The Oxford Handbook of Christology Francesca Aran Murphy, Troy A. Stefano, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Christology brings together 40 authoritative essays considering the theological study of the nature and role of Jesus Christ This collection offers dynamic perspectives within the study of Christology and provides rigorous discussion of inter-confessional theology which would not have been possible even 60 years ago The first of the seven parts considers Jesus Christ in the Bible Rather than focusing solely on the New Testament this section begins with discussion of the modes of God's self-communication to us and suggests that Christ's most original incarnation is in the language of the Hebrew Bible The second section considers Patristic Christology These essays explore the formation of the doctrines of the person of Christ and the atonement between the First Council of Nicaea in 325 and the eve of the Second Council of Nicaea The next section looks at Mediaeval theology and tackles the development of the understanding of who Christ was and of his atoning work The section on Reformation and Christology traces the path of the Reformation from Luther to Bultmann The fifth section tackles the new developments in thinking about Christ which have emerged in the modern and the postmodern eras and the sixth section explains how beliefs about Jesus have affected music poetry and the arts The final part concludes by locating Christology within systematic theology asking how it relates to Christian belief as a whole This comprehensive volume provides an invaluable resource and reference for scholars students and general readers interested in the study of Christology Women and the Gender of God Amy Peeler, 2022-10-04 A robust theological argument against the assumption that God is male God values women While many Christians would readily affirm this truth the widely held assumption that the Bible depicts a male God persists as it has for centuries This misperception of Christianity not only perniciously implies that men deserve an elevated place over women but also compromises the glory of God by making God appear to be part of creation subject to it and its categories rather than in transcendence of it Through a deep reading of the incarnation narratives of the New Testament and other relevant scriptural texts Amy Peeler shows how the Bible depicts a God beyond gender and a savior who while embodied as a man is the unification in one person of the image of God that resides in both male and female Peeler begins with a study of Mary and her response to the annunciation through which it becomes clear that God empowers women and honors their agency Then Peeler describes from a theological standpoint how the virgin birth of Jesus the second Adam reverses the gendered division enacted in the garden of Eden While acknowledging the significance of the Bible's frequent use of Father language to represent God as a caring parent Peeler goes beneath the surface of this metaphor to show how God is never sexualized by biblical writers or described as being physically involved in procreation making the concept of a masculine God dubious at best From these doctrinal centers of Christianity Peeler leads the way in reasserting the value of women in the church and prophetically speaking out against the destructive idolatry of masculinity The Michael Ramsey Prize Longlist 2023 Rethinking the Trinity and Religious Pluralism Keith E. Johnson, 2011-09-02 Founding his argument on a close reading of St Augustine's De Trinitate Keith Johnson critiques four recent attempts to construct a pluralistic theology of religions out of the orthodox doctrine of the Trinity The Humility of the Eternal Son Bruce Lindley McCormack, 2021-09-16 The Chalcedonian Definition of 451 never completely resolved one of the critical issues at the heart of Christianity the unity of the person of Christ In this eagerly awaited volume the result of deep and sustained reflection distinguished theologian Bruce Lindley McCormack examines the reasons for this philosophical and theological failure His book serves as a critical history that traces modern attempts at resolution of this problem from the nineteenth century Lutheran emphasis on Kenoticism or the self emptying of the Son in order to be receptive to the will of the Father to post Barthian efforts that evade the issue by collapsing the second person of the Trinity into the human Jesus thereby rejecting altogether the logic of the classical two natures Christology McCormack shows how New Testament Christologies both limit and authorize ontological reflection and in so doing offers a distinctively Reformed version of Kenoticism Proposing a new and bold divine ontology with a convincing basis in Christology he persuasively argues that the unity of the person is in fact guaranteed by the Son's act of taking into his being the lived existence of Jesus God's Presence Frances Young, 2013-10-10 In 2011 Frances Young delivered the Bampton Lectures in Oxford to great acclaim She offered a systematic theology with contemporary coherence by engaging in conversation with the fathers of the church those who laid down the parameters of Christian theology and enshrined key concepts in the creeds and exploring how their teachings can be applied today despite the differences in our intellectual and ecclesial environments This book results from a thorough rewriting of those lectures in which Young explores the key topics of Christian doctrine in a way that is neither simply dogmatic nor simply historical She addresses the congruence of head and heart through academic and spiritual engagement with God's gracious accommodation to human limitations Christianity and biblical interpretation are discussed in depth and the book covers key topics including Creation anthropology Christology soteriology spirituality ecclesiology and Mariology making it invaluable to those studying historical and constructive theology Human Anguish and God's Power David H. Kelsey, 2020-12-17 The intrinsically glorious God is sovereign in three different ways each of which has a different sense of power Reading the Bible Theologically Darren Sarisky, 2019-01-17 Examines what theological reading is and how it shapes the interpretation of Biblical text through explicit focus on the reader

Pneumatology and Union Peter Ross, 2019-07-11 Peter Ross examines how John Calvin might assist Pentecostals in the development of a global Pentecostal theology by examining the views of each on pneumatology and the Christian's union with Christ He conducts a conversation between the two within the contexts of the assurance of faith providence and guidance and justification each an area in which the Spirit and the union are substantially involved for both parties He also looks closely at Spirit release showing that this Pentecostal distinctive can sit well as an extension from Calvin's thought Ross shows that affinities exist between Pentecostals and Calvin in these contexts These affinities clearly identify Calvin's thought as a rich resource for Pentecostals one they should not hesitate to mine as they develop their own global theology Law and the Rule of God Joshua Ralston, 2020-11-05 Shar'a is one of the most hotly contested and misunderstood concepts and practices in the world today Debates about Islamic law and its relationship to secularism and Christianity have dominated political and theological discourse for centuries Unfortunately Western Christian theologians have failed to engage sufficiently with the challenges and questions raised by Islamic political theology preferring instead to essentialize or dismiss it In Law and the Rule of God Joshua Ralston presents an innovative approach to Christian Muslim dialogue Eschewing both polemics and apologetics he proposes a comparative framework for Christian engagement with Islamic debates on shar'a Ralston draws on a diverse range of thinkers from both traditions including Karl Barth Ibn Taymiyya Thomas Aquinas and Mohammad al-Jabri He offers an account of public law as a provisional and indirect witness to the divine rule of justice He also demonstrates how this theology of public law deeply resonates with the Christian tradition and is also open to learning from and dialoguing with Islamic and secular conceptions of law sovereignty and justice Divine Action and the Human Mind Sarah Lane Ritchie, 2019-07-25 Challenges theological models of divine action that locate God's activity in human mind Emphasizes God's relationship with all of nature An Incarnational Model of the Eucharist James M. Arcadi, 2018-05-31 The Eucharist is at the heart of Christian worship and at the heart of the Eucharist are the curious phrases This is my body and This is my blood James M. Arcadi offers a constructive proposal for understanding Christ's presence in the Eucharist that draws on contemporary conceptual resources and is faithful to the history of interpretation. He locates his proposal along a spectrum of Eucharistic theories. Arcadi explores the motif of God's presence related to divine omnipresence and special presence in holy places which undergirds a biblical theological proposal concerning Christ's presence. Utilizing recent work in speech act theory, Arcadi probes the acts of consecration and renaming in their biblical and liturgical contexts. A thorough examination of recent work in Christology leads to an action model of the Incarnation that borrows the notion of enabling externalism from philosophy of mind. These threads undergird a model of Christ's presence in the Eucharist.
