Cunningham, 2016-10-16 Excerpt from The Secret of Progress Buckle¹ regarded it as clear that militarism and high intellectual development were not compatible till recently many people were prepared to believe that warfare was alien to the interest of civilised peoples and could only occur among half civilised or backward races But this war has shown that these hopes were vain and that the last result of civilisation was not to render war impossible but to give the means of carrying it out on a vastly extended scale The increase of knowledge and of power over nature and the sense of the benefits of intercourse and inter communication have not sufficed to give us any immunity from war About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Salvation From Sin, the End of Christian Faith (Classic Reprint) John Humphrey Noyes, 2018-03-23 Excerpt from Salvation From Sin the End of Christian Faith In denying that the Old Testament saints were born of God we must not be understood as denying that they had any religion It appears by the passage above quoted that there are two distinct stages in religious experience in the first of which men may properly be called servants of God while yet they are not sons It is important that this distinction should be clearly seen and constantly kept in view We admit and teach that the Old Testament saints were servants of God in the ages before Christ and that they became sons at his coming But what is the difference between servants and sons Did not the Old Testament saints love God Yes and so many servants love and honor their masters while yet there is no vital union no blood relationship between them So there was no vital union between God and man till Christ came in the flesh Abraham was called the friend of God and he doubtless loved God as a man loves his friend but it is not said in scripture and it is not true that Christ was in him that he dwelt in God and God in him This spiritual indwelling was hid from ages and from generations and was manifested only after the mission of Christ Col 1 26 27 It is this that brings men into blood relationship to God so that they are entitled to the name of sons of God About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work

The Christian Faith and the New Day (Classic Reprint) Cleland Boyd McAfee, 2016-06-15 Excerpt from The Christian Faith and the New Day This is not a reconstruction of theology but a plea for that work and some suggestion of a few typical points where it is needed and opportune A teacher of theology shrinks a bit when it is said that the day for theology is over he is apt to think instead that the day has just come for vital religion which will mean a vital theology But such a teacher knows well that theology can be devitalized by mistaking its own expressions for the truth it is trying to express Visitors to theological seminaries often tell young men they are not to preach their theology whereas in any sound way of speaking it is the only thing they are to preach Yet the most deadly thing that could be preached is a theology that does not carry the message of religion for its own day The appeal herein is not to technical theologians but to working ministers and thoughtful laymen who after all build and use the theology that is living and who sometimes fear to see it change The great days just passed have given many of us a renewed assurance that Christianity is more vital and forceful than it has been for many a long day Its vitality may well claim the right to phrase itself anew which means to reconstruct theology at any point where it may need reconstructing Dr About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Christian Faith and the Old Testament (Classic Reprint) John M. Thomas, 2017-11-03 Excerpt from The Christian Faith and the Old Testament So long as Christianity remains a vital religion the Old Testament will be a book of living interest and importance The Scriptures of the Hebrew people permeate too deeply the distinctively Christian writings and have affected too seriously the fortunes of Christianity and the standards of Christian conduct for the adherents of the religion of Jesus ever to put them aside as none of their concern The following pages are an endeavor to set forth some of the more important consequences both for good and evil of the inclusion of Hebrew writings in the Christian Bible and to illustrate a few of the practical consequences of the newer views concerning the Old Testament NO opinion could be more mistaken than that which regards the criticism of the older books of the Bible as an affair of antiquarians and pedants without influence upon practical life The truth is that the researches of

The Christian Faith: Personally Given in a System of Doctrine (Classic Reprint) Olin Alfred Curtis, 2018-03-15

Excerpt from The Christian Faith Personally Given in a System of Doctrine Neither in claim nor in spirit is this book dogmatic As indicated in several ways by the book itself there is no attempt to speak the final word no aim to be or to become the recognized authority of any church or of any school or of any man After years of preparatory waiting I have I believe caught an important vision of the Christian Faith as an organic Whole of doctrine and I am eager to help other men to catch the same Vision In reading the book many peculiarities of View and method will be discovered but the main clue to all can be found in one thing namely in the junction of the two ideas personal responsibility and racial solidarity Every man is a responsible moral person but no man is complete in himself he is made to be a fragment of an entire race Instead of being content with one of these ideas I use them both in junction and with equally serious emphasis In this peculiar junction there may be I sometimes hope a fair mediation between Arminianism and Calvinism About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Christianity and Evolution George Matheson, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from Christianity and Evolution Modern Problems of the Faith Christian Faith Although therefore a general agreement will be found to exist throughout the series one or two of the writers have made no secret of their holding a much more limited View of the scope and character of Evolution than that represented by the rest Should exception be taken to this circumstance we would respectfully submit that in the settlement of great vital questions it must tend in a much higher degree to healthy thorough and impartial discussion when debaters are left perfectly free in every thing save the essentials of the point at issue In the hope that the following pages may be found helpful by many whose spirits are shadowed by the scepticism of the age we now commit them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Prophets of the Christian Faith (Classic Reprint) Lyman Abbott, 2018-02-04 Excerpt from The Prophets of the Christian Faith Brooding his children awakening in them a life higher than their own leading them up into life and light as the sun leads up the plant from the darkness Of the soil into the light of day Some men are hardly conscious of this divine life others are conscious of it only on rare occasions some possess it as a vague uninterpreted feeling an enigmatical restless desire for they know not what a dream from which they seem to themselves to be continually awakening to the stern realities of life a half seen vision which disappears before it is really discerned while to some it is the dominant force of their lives the direct ing purpose the rudder holding hand the great reality Among these last those who have the power to phrase this divine life in words to interpret it so as to make its meaning clear to their fellows are the world s prophets They receive their message from God and give it to their fellow men About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Christian Faith in an Age of Science
(Classic Reprint) William North Rice, 2018-03-02 Excerpt from Christian Faith in an Age of Science IN my student days I became deeply interested in the relations of science and religion and in the tenta tive and provisional solution of the problems which the advance of science offers to religious thought The sympathy I have felt with the perplexities of successive classes of students in an experience of more than thirty years as a teacher of geology and the cognate sciences has kept the subject ever before my mind The thought of many years finds expression in the present volume About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
