Horrell,2019-01-29 In this volume David Horrell focuses on themes of community ethics and ecology in Paul moving from the concrete social circumstances in which the earliest Christian communities gathered to the appropriation of Paul's writings in relation to modern ethical challenges Often questioning established consensus positions Horrell opens up new perspectives and engages with ongoing debates both in Pauline studies and in contemporary ethics After covering historical questions about the setting of the Pauline communities The Making of Christian Morality analyzes Pauline ethics through a detailed study of particular passages In the third and final section Horrell brings Pauline thought to bear on contemporary issues and challenges using the environmental crisis as a case study to demonstrate how Paul's ethics can be appropriated fruitfully in a world so different from Paul's own     The Cumulative Book Index,1907 A world list of books in the English language

Copyright Office,1979     Moral Passion and Christian Ethics Robin Gill,2017-03-06 In this book Robin Gill argues that moral passion and rational ethical deliberation are not enemies and that moral passion often lurks behind many apparently rational ethical commitments He also contends that though moral passion is a key component of truly selfless moral action without rational ethical deliberation it can also be extremely dangerous Gill maintains that a reanalysis of moral passion is overdue He inspects the gap between the purely rational accounts of ethics provided by some moral philosophers and the normative positions that they espouse and/or the moral actions that they pursue He also contends that Christian ethicists have not been adept at identifying their own implicit moral passion or at explaining why it is that doctrinal positions generate passionately held moral conclusions Using a range of disciplines including cognitive science and moral psychology alongside the more usual disciplines of moral philosophy and religious ethics Gill also makes links with moral passion in other world faith traditions     Church Quarterly Review ,1910     The Church Quarterly Review Arthur Cayley Headlam,1910     Iris Murdoch and the Western Theological Imagination Miles Leeson,Frances White,2025-07-26 Scholarly interest in theological aspects of Murdoch's fiction and philosophy took off slowly It was thirty years after her writing debut that the first work taking detailed notice of the theological language deployed by this overtly atheist author appeared and it was a further decade before theologians began to engage with Murdoch's work together But it was not until the twenty first century that this aspect of Murdoch's thought and imagination began to receive sustained attention This collection seeks to build on this foundation begun forty years ago and to expand the work in this area of Murdoch studies which has lately been gathering momentum This project consolidates earlier discussion of the vital part theology plays in Murdoch's thought and then takes the debate in new directions Contributors include a wide range of current Murdoch scholars from diverse disciplines who develop debate about this subject in a variety of innovative and fruitful ways to inspire future works in this area of Murdoch studies     ThirdWay ,1985-01 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture     The Crucible of Christian Morality J. Ian H. McDonald,2016-04-29 The Crucible of Christian Morality explores the notion of Christian ethics and discusses its roots in the teachings of Jesus and also Hellenistic philosophy Its significance in developing moral standards throughout the world and its stability in the modern world The Crucible of Christian Morality uses new critical perspectives including the sociology of knowledge and discourse analysis J Ian H McDonald challenges conventional approaches by focusing on the behaviour of early Christian communities rather than their texts to shed new light on the nature of Christian morality in its earliest and most formative years
