The Christian Movement in Japan, 1908, Vol. 6 (Classic Reprint) Ernest W. Clement, 2016-12-27 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in Japan 1908 Vol 6 The editors of the present issue of the Christian movement in Japan accepted their position with no little reluctance and anxiety In the first place they were already well laden with other duties In the second place they fully realized that it would be a very difficult task to follow the veteran missionary statesman Rev D C Greene D D who has from the very first issue of the Christian movement been its editor The present editors lack his varied experience in Japan his profound knowledge of Japanese civilization and his sagacious grasp of the situation And yet while they could scarcely be expected to fight in Saul's armor they have attempted to adhere as closely as possible to Dr Greene's general plans for this volume In some of the details however they have presumed to vary slightly from the previous issue They have not maintained in form the distinction between The Environment and The Christian Movement proper which were separated into Part I and Part II of the Fifth Issue They abolished this distinction chiefly because it was almost impossible to draw an exact line of demarcation But they have really continued the distinction in fact because the first few chapters are devoted principally to environment but gradually advance into subjects which treat of the strictly Christian movements About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Christian Movement in Japan Daniel Crosby Greene,2016-12-27 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in Japan Ninth Annual Issue 1910 It is a matter of regret that again this annual contains no account of the earnest work of the Roman Catholic Fathers and Sisters The editor sought for such an account and was recommended to turn to the newly appointed Archbishop but after his arrival in Japan that course did not appear feasible About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Christian Movement in the Japanese Empire, Including Korea and Formosa John Lincoln Dearing,2017-01-26 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in the Japanese Empire Including Korea and Formosa A Year Book for 1916 Fourteenth Annual Issue A thoughtful reviewer of a recent volume of the christian movement thought it significant that a book of this size is required to deal adequately with the spread of Christianity in Japan Year by year the editors find it increasingly difficult to so

condense the interesting material at hand as to confine the volume within its present limits It is an occasion of deep regret that the limitations of space and the added cost of production has compelled us reluctantly to carry over to another year material for which we would have gladly found space within the present volume It was the intention to include this year a section dealing with the history of medical work in Japan as well as its present development But we are compelled to defer its publication until another year About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Christian Movement in the Japanese Empire (Classic Reprint) Conference of Federated Missions, 2018-02-16 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in the Japanese Empire If the saying is true that as the nineteenth century made the world a neighborhood the twentieth century is to make the world a brotherhood this newest record of the movement of Christian forces in the Island and Peninsular Empire pregnant as that movement is with greater things to come cannot but mightily concern every member of the great brotherhood whose center is Christ About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Christian Movement in Its Relation to the New Life in Japan (Classic Reprint) Co-Operating Christian Missions, 2017-05-19 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in Its Relation to the New Life in Japan As in the war with China years ago the Japanese authorities have sought to impress upon all classes the principle that the contest in which the army and navy are engaged is not between two peoples but between two governments representing conflicting policies and that it should not involve hostility against individuals excepting so far as such individuals are active instruments of one policy or the other Hence the Japanese people have been instructed that women and children and even unarmed men are to be treated with all possible consideration The people in their turn have accepted this principle and with few if any exceptions are entirely loyal to it Accordingly the Russian prisoners of war of whom over sixty four thousand are actually in Japan have received the kindest treatment possible under the circumstances The sick and wounded among them have been the objects of the same care bestowed upon the Japanese similarly Situated About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more

The Christian Movement in Japan and Formosa Paul S. Mayer, 2016-12-27 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in Japan and Formosa: A Year Book of Christian Work Survey of Buddhism, which was to have been written by Dr K. Watanabe, was not forthcoming in time to be published in this volume. Perhaps the most unsatisfactory section of the book is the statistical record. The manner of tabulating statistics differs so greatly in the various churches that it is exceedingly difficult to make this part of the book absolutely reliable. The missionary directory has been corrected up through May and is therefore as accurate as it can be made under the circumstances. Unstinted thanks are due to all who have gladly contributed of their time and energy towards the compilation of this volume. The Christian Movement in Japan, 1912, Vol. 10 \(Classic Reprint\) John Lincoln Dearing, 2016-12-27 Excerpt from The Christian Movement in Japan 1912 Vol 10. With this issue, the Christian Movement enters upon a new period of its history. Up to the present time, it has been very largely the work of Dr D. C. Greene, who, when in Japan, has carried for the most part the burden of editorship. The earlier volumes were almost exclusively the work of his gifted pen, and while later assisted by Prof. E. W. Clement and Mr. G. M. Fisher, as well as by an increasing number of contributors, it is mainly due to his ability and pains-taking labor that the Annual has gained the place that it holds to-day. The loss occasioned by the necessary change of editors is in some measure compensated for by Dr

Greene's kind consent to prepare for the present issue the opening Chapter on General Survey in which as in former years he gives a clear and comprehensive review of the events of the past year. The other Associate Editors have also prepared important chapters which required such wide research and careful study as no one man could find time for in addition to his regular work. The editor in chief has confined himself for the most part to the work of compilation believing that the best results could only thus be secured. The Christian Movement in Japan, Korea and Formosa, 1921, Vol. 19 Federation Of Christian Missions, 2018-02-04. Excerpt from The Christian Movement in Japan, Korea and Formosa 1921 Vol 19 A Year Book of Christian Work. The statistics have been prepared in much the same form as in previous years. The editor wishes to draw attention to the comparative totals for the Protestant churches including Formosa for 1905, 1910, 1915 and 1920 respectively. The total Christian constituency has increased from in 1905 118 150 in 1915 to in 1920 not including the Salvation Army force of Christians. Soldiers. The total givings for all purposes in the Japanese churches have increased from in 1905 in 1910 in 1915 to in 1920. Other comparisons show equally gratifying progress.
