Christianity's Family Tree Participant's Guide Adam Hamilton, 2010-09-01 This book is excellent for individual reading or can be used as the small group study book for the Christianity's Family Tree DVD based study Adam Hamilton is in my opinion a national treasure He embodies the kind of generous orthodoxy so many of us have been dreaming of and praying for This book provides something truly unique a kind of orientation to Christianity in its wide array of forms that not only educates but inspires It's one of the few books I wish every single Christian would read and share with their friends Brian McLaren author of A New Kind of Christian In this wise and practical book Adam Hamilton serves as a trusted guide to some of the rich diversity of Christian belief and practice It is a rare feat to acknowledge differences and distinctiveness appreciatively and Hamilton does it with exceptional grace and insight L Gregory Jones Dean and Professor of Theology Duke Divinity School I love this book Adam Hamilton teaches us that we are far richer than we know because the beauty and the fullness of the whole church is ours Read learn and be happy John Ortberg author of God Is Closer Than You Think In this book Adam Hamilton presents a welcoming inspiring vision of eight Christian denominations and faith traditions Comparing the Christian family to our own extended families he contends that each denomination has a unique valuable perspective to offer on the Christian faith The traditions he examines are Orthodoxy Catholicism Lutheranism Presbyterianism Anglicanism Baptists Pentecostalism and Methodism For each group Hamilton gives a brief history outlines major beliefs and describes some things we can learn from that tradition to strengthen our own Christian faith Also available is the planning kit for this video based small group study Christianity's Family Tree What Other Christians Believe and Why Adam Hamilton is pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection one of the fastest growing most highly visible churches in the country Named by PBS's Religion and Ethics Newsweekly as one of the top Ten People to Watch Hamilton is the author of numerous video based small group studies and books from Abingdon Press The Church's Peace Witness Marlin E. Miller,1994 Should Christians be involved in making war This ever present issue gets new attention here within the context of ecumenical discussion Seven chapters of this volume were originally prepared for the 1991 Faith and Order Consultation on the Apostolic Faith and the Church's Peace Witness Includes a selected bibliography of works on the church's diverse answers to questions of war and peace Buddhist-Christian Dialogue Paul O. Ingram, Frederick J. Streng, 2007-04-01 The essays in this volume focus on philosophical theological and structural aspects of contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue in an effort to assess its potential as a source for the renewal and transformation of both traditions Writing from differing assumptions academic disciplines and religious world views the nine Christian and two Buddhist contributors are nevertheless agreed that interreligious dialogue can contribute meaningfully to our understanding of some of the profound issues arising out of modern self consciousness Believing that the human community and its survival are threatened everywhere by secularism they seek to show that the dialogue between Buddhists and Christians can provide not only insights but a conceptual framework for authentic living in the present age of religious pluralism Each writer shares the conclusion that Buddhist Christian encounter is vitally important for a larger understanding of contemporary issues of self identity evil communication and fulfillment They Like Jesus But Not the Church Dan Kimball, 2008-03-09 Kimball provides an overview of the six most common objections emerging generations have with church and Christianity along with the biblical answers to these objections and examples of how churches are facing this challenge The World's Religions After September 11 Arvind Sharma, 2009 Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World's Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion's intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world's religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect The volumes are 1 Religion War and Peace 2 Religion and Human Rights 3 The Interfaith Dimension 4 Spirituality

Gender, Ethnicity, and Religion Rosemary Radford Ruether, New methodologies from social theory cultural anthropology and gender studies have emerged which take religion and cultural values into perspective Particular light shed on social transformations religious practices and theological perspectives

To Be As God R. J. Rushdoony, 2003 This monumental work is a series of essays on the influential thinkers and ideas in modern times The author begins with De Sade who self consciously broke with any Christian basis for morality and law Enlightenment thinking began with nature as the only reality and Christianity was reduced to one option among many It was then in turn attacked as anti democratic and anti freedom for its dogmatic assertion of the supernatural Literary figures such as Shelly Byron Whitman and more are also examined for the Enlightenment presented both the intellectual and the artist as replacement for the theologian and his church Ideas such as the spirit of the age truth reason Romanticism persona and Gnosticism are related to the desire to negate God and Christian ethics Reading this book will help you understand the need to avoid the syncretistic blending of humanistic philosophy with the Christian faith

Human Rights in Turmoil Stéphanie Lagoutte, Hans-Otto Sano, Peter Scharff Smith, 2006-11-01 Are human rights gaining or losing ground This question has become relevant after two decades of unprecedented progress in developing human rights standards and institutions The political climate during the Cold War created many obstacles but the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 and its aftermath during the following decade created a sense of promise and progress among human rights scholars and actors Yet today actions statements and initiatives questioning the legitimacy and validity of human rights or even threatening their very existence have become a regular part of current political realities even in states traditionally dedicated to the rule of law This would have been inconceivable ten or twenty years ago At the political level human rights are gaining as well as losing ground The question of the adequacy legitimacy and scope of human rights is still a live one And weaknesses in supra national human rights protection systems have emerged over the last twenty years It is now clear that human rights mechanisms are not well adapted to the handling of the ever increasing number of complaints or to the effective implementation of human rights This thought provoking collection of essays by leading scholars and practitioners in the field of human rights explores the ways in which human rights are currently being challenged and weakened but also strengthened in important and groundbreaking ways in different areas and settings They explore the many current debates which centre on human rights concerns debates about secularism and religious norms about minimum social standards and social security about the future regulation of citizenship about prison reform and the use of less inhumane methods of detention as well as the reform of the UN system and the challenges facing the now overburdened European Court of Human Rights
