Christians The Care Of Creation And Global Climate Change:

Christians, the Care of Creation, and Global Climate Change Lindy Scott, 2008-03-01 Christians the Care of Creation and Global Climate Change is a wake up call for Christians and others It is a cogent and persuasive call to love God and our neighbors by caring for creation especially in light of the dramatic climate changes occurring before our eyes This book is not the final word on the subject but it is a sincere invitation to examine the scientific evidence for global warming and to respond with individual and collective faithful actions CONTRIBUTORS Douglas Allen Jeffrey K Greenberg P J Hill Sir John T Houghton A Duane Litfin Ben Lowe Vincent E Morris L Kristen Page Lindy Scott Noah J Toly Caring for Creation Paul Douglas, Mitch Hescox, 2016-10-04 Faith Based Solutions to Caring for the Earth Climate change is a confusing and polarizing issue It may also prove to be the most daunting challenge of this century because children the elderly and the poor will be the first to feel its effects The issue is all over the news but what is seldom heard is a conservative evangelical perspective Connecting the dots between science and faith this book explores the climate debate and how Christians can take the lead in caring for God s creation The authors answer top questions such as What s really happening and Who can we trust and discuss stewarding the earth in light of evangelical values Acting on climate change is not about political agendas they say It s about our kids It s about being a disciple of Jesus Christ Capping off this empowering book are practical simple ideas for improving our environment and helping our families and those around us Hope in the Age of Climate Change Chris Doran, 2017-04-27 It is difficult to be hopeful in the midst of daily news about the effects of climate change on people and our planet While the Christian basis for hope is the resurrection of Jesus unfortunately far too many American Protestant Christians do not connect this belief with the daily witness of their faith This book argues that the resurrection proclaims a notion of hope that should be the foundation of a theology of creation care that manifests itself explicitly in the daily lives of believers Christian hope not only inspires us to do great and courageous things but also serves as a critique of current systems and powers that degrade humans nonhumans and the rest of creation and thus cause us to be hopeless Belief in the resurrection hope should cause us to be a different sort of people Christians should think purchase eat and act in novel and courageous ways because they are motivated daily by the resurrection of Jesus This is the only way to be hopeful in the age of climate change A Faith Encompassing All Creation Tripp York, Andy Alexis-Baker, 2014-09-12 The Peaceable Kingdom Series is a multivolume series that seeks to challenge the pervasive violence assumed necessary in relation to humans nonhumans and the larger environment By calling on the work of ministers activists and scholars we hope to provide an accessible resource that will help Christians reflect on becoming a more faithful and peaceable people The series editors are Andy Alexis Baker and Tripp York For study guides and further resources see <http://www.peaceablekingdomseries.com> Diversity and Dominion Kyle S. Van Houtan, Michael S. Northcott, 2010-02-15 This book records a set of dialogues between scientists theologians and philosophers on what can be done to prevent a global slide into ecological collapse It is a uniquely multidisciplinary book that exemplifies the kinds of cultural and scholarly dialogue urgently needed to address the threat to the earth represented by our super industrial civilization The authors debate the conventional account of nature conservation as protection from human activity In contrast to standard accounts they argue what is needed is a new relationship between human beings and the earth that recovers a primal respect for all things This approach seeks to recover forgotten resources in ancient cultures and in the foundational narratives of Western civilization contained in the Bible and in the culture of classical Greece T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P.

Koster, Ernst M. Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God s work and 5 God s identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change The Global Warming Reader Bill McKibben, 2012-03-27 Van Jones Al Gore Elizabeth Kolbert Naomi Klein and other essential voices on global warming from its 19th century discovery to the present in a volume edited by Bill McKibben our most widely respected environmental writer With the rise of extreme weather events worldwide witness the devastation wrought by Hurricanes Sandy Irene and Katrina and the sustained drought across the American West global warming has become increasingly difficult to deny What is happening to our planet And what can we do about it The Global Warming Reader provides more than thirty five answers to these burning questions from more than one hundred years of engagement with the topic Here is Elizabeth Kolbert s groundbreaking essay The Darkening Sea Michael Crichton s skeptical view of climate change George Monbiot s biting indictment of those who are really using up the planet s resources NASA scientist James Hansen s testimony before the U S Congress and clarion calls for action by Al Gore Arundhati Roy Naomi Klein Van Jones and many others The Global Warming Reader is a comprehensive resource expertly edited by someone who lives and breathes this defining issue of our time Challenges in Higher Education for Sustainability J. Climate Change Politics and Policies in America Jerald C. Mast,2018-11-09 This collection of primary sources illuminated by extensive contextual analysis provides a comprehensive and balanced survey of the evolution of global climate change policies and politics in the United States This extensive collection of primary documents examines the history of climate science various policy prescriptions for addressing the effects of climate change political fault lines with respect to international efforts to address global warming claims regarding the influence of industry groups and environmental radicals on climate policy and science and the impact of climate change on other policy areas such as public health energy economic development and wilderness conservation The set includes excerpts from important scientific papers and government reports political speeches from presidents and other influential lawmakers perspectives from environmental activists and conservative think tanks editorial essays from leading media figures provisions of major laws and more Together these documents provide a broad range of perspectives from scientific fields as well as from political and ideological standpoints that have emerged in response to the debate surrounding climate change They offer readers a greater understanding of the arguments not only of lawmakers activists and scientists leading efforts to fight mitigate and adapt to climate change but also of those skeptical of climate change

The Oxford Handbook of Climate Change and Society John S. Dryzek, Richard B. Norgaard, David Schlosberg, 2011-08-18 Climate change presents perhaps the most profound challenge ever confronted by human society This volume is a definitive analysis drawing on the best thinking on questions of how climate change affects human systems and how societies can do and should respond Key topics covered include the history of the issues social and political reception of climate science the denial of that science by individuals and organized interests the nature of the social disruptions caused by climate change the economics of those disruptions and possible responses to them questions of human security and social justice obligations to future generations policy instruments for reducing greenhouse gas emissions and governance at local regional national international and global levels

Systemic Crises of Global Climate Change Phoebe Godfrey, Denise Torres, 2016-04-14 Sociological literature tends to view the social categories of race class and gender as distinct and has avoided discussing how multiple intersections inform and contribute to experiences of injustice and inequity This limited focus is clearly inadequate Systemic Crises of Global Climate Change is an edited volume of 49 international interdisciplinary contributions addressing global climate change GCC by intentionally engaging with the issues of race gender and class through an intersectional lens The volume challenges and inspires readers to foster new theoretical and practical linkages and think beyond the traditional and oftentimes reductionist environmental science frame by examining issues within their turbulent political cultural and personal landscapes Varied media and writing styles invite students and educators to reflexively engage different yet complementary approaches to GCC analysis and interpretation mirroring the disparate voices and viewpoints within the field The second volume Emergent Possibilities for Sustainability will take a similar approach but will examine the possibilities for solutions as in the quest for global sustainability This book is a valuable resource for academics researchers and both undergraduate and post graduate students in the areas of Environmental Studies Climate Change Gender Studies and International studies as well as those seeking a more intersectional analysis of GCC

Ecotheology and the Practice of Hope Anne Marie Dalton, Henry C. Simmons, 2010-09-29 Is there any hope for a more sustainable world Can we reimagine a way of living in which the nonhuman world matters Anne Marie Dalton and Henry C Simmons claim that the ecotheology that arose during the mid twentieth century gives us reason for hope While ecotheologians acknowledge that Christianity played a significant role in creating societies in which the nonhuman world counted for very little these thinkers have refocused religion to include the natural world To borrow philosopher Charles Taylor s concept they have created a new social imaginary reimagining a better world and a different sense of what is and what should be A new mindset is emerging inspired by ecotheological texts and evident in the many diverse movements and activities that operate as if the hope imparted by ecotheology has already been realized While making this powerful argument Dalton and Simmons also provide an essential overview of key ecotheological thinkers and texts      Global Capitalism and Climate Change Hans A. Baer,2021-10-01 Now in its second edition Global Capitalism and Climate Change The Need for an Alternative World System examines anthropogenic climate change in the context of global capitalism a political economy that emphasizes profit making is committed to on going economic growth results in massive social inequality fosters a treadmill of production and consumption and is heavily reliant on fossil fuels Looking ahead Hans A Baer explores the systemic changes necessary to create a more socially just democratic and environmentally sustainable world system capable of moving humanity toward a safer climate This book is recommended for readers interested in anti systemic efforts including eco anarchism eco feminism the de growth perspective Indigenous voices and the climate justice movement      A Climate for Change Katharine Hayhoe,Andrew Farley,2009-10-29 Most Christian lifestyle or environmental books focus on how to live in a sustainable and conservational manner A CLIMATE FOR CHANGE shows why Christians should be living that way and the consequences of doing so Drawing on the two authors experiences one as an internationally recognized climate scientist and the other as an evangelical leader of a growing church this book explains the science underlying global warming the impact that human activities have on it and how our Christian faith should play a significant role in guiding our opinions and actions on this important issue      Creation and Christian Ethics Dennis P. Hollinger,2023-11-07 Creation is a foundational pillar of the biblical storyline yet it plays little role in contemporary evangelical ethics Seeking to correct this oversight Dennis Hollinger employs the creation story and creation themes throughout Scripture as a foundation for Christian ethics After demonstrating why creation is theologically significant and important for Christian ethics Hollinger develops major creation paradigms that provide ethical guidance on a wide range of issues including money sex power racism creation care social institutions and artificial intelligence among many others Creation and Christian Ethics shows throughout that the triune God creates from love and in that creation are moral designs for humanity s journey in God s world Professors and students of Christian ethics will find this a valuable resource for the classroom while pastors and church leaders will benefit from personal and small group study      Test of Faith, Leader's Guide Ruth Bancewicz,2010-09 This visually stunning award winning three part documentary uses interviews with ten top scientists and theologians to introduce some big questions and address the many challenging issues raised by the sciences It shows that science is compatible with genuine faith in God The Test of faith course comes with accompanying resources developed by the Faraday Institute for Science and Religion ideally tailored to unpack the issues raised in the documentary The book tells the stories of the scientists featured in the video materials as they share their life stories and reflections on science and faith The study guide allows small groups to explore science faith issues by choosing topics and discussing them at a level and pace that suits the group The Leader s guide supplements the study guide with suggested responses to questions critical background information and opportunities to go deeper while encouraging an open discussion of a range of views      The Art of New Creation Jeremy Begbie,Daniel Train,W. David O. Taylor,2022-03-29 Creation and the new creation are inextricably bound for the God who created the world is the same God who promises a new heaven and a new earth Bringing together theologians biblical scholars and artists this volume based on the DITA10 conference at Duke Divinity School explores how the relation between creation and the new creation is informed by and reflected in the arts
