Christian Lives Given To The Study Of Islam:

Christian Lives Given to the Study of Islam Christian W. Troll, C.T.R. Hewer, 2012-09-12 A collection of 28 articles by Christian students of Islam each with several decades of experience They address motivation methodologies spiritual and intellectual nourishment achievements and personal reflections They come from many Christian churches and nationalities and bring a worldwide perspective to the subject A unique record of a unique generation Christian Lives Given to the Study of Islam C. T. R. Hewer, Christian W. Troll, 2022 This book captures the autobiographical reflections of twenty eight Christian men and women who in the wake of the Second Vatican Council committed their lives to the study of Islam and to practical Christian Muslim relations in new and irenic ways Their contributions come from across the spectrum of the Western church and record what drew them into the study of Islam Their accounts take us to twenty five countries and into all the branches of Islamic studies Qur'an Hadith Shari'a Sufism philology theology and philosophy They give fascinating insights into personal encounters with Islam and Muslims speak of the ways in which their Christian traditions of spiritual training formed and nourished them and deal with some of the misunderstandings and opposition they have faced along the way Literary and Non-literary Responses Towards 9/11 Nukhbah Taj Langah, 2019-03-01 This book presents a range of analytical responses towards 9/11 through a critical review of literary non literary and cultural representations The contributors examine the ways in which this event has shaped and complicated the relationship between various national and religious identities in contemporary world history Unlike earlier studies on the topic this work reconciles both eclectic and pragmatic approaches by analyzing the stereotypes of nationhood and identities while also questioning theoretical concepts in the context of the latest political developments The chapters focus on discourses themes imagery and symbolism from across fiction and non fiction films art music and political literary and artistic movements The volume addresses complexities arising within different local contexts e.g. Hunza and state development surveys broader frameworks in South Asia representations of Muslims in Bollywood films and gauges international impact U.S. drone attacks in Islamic countries treatment meted out to Muslims in Europe It also connects these with relevant theories e.g. Orientalism and policy perspectives e.g. Patriotic Act The authors further discuss the consequences for minorities and marginalization cultural relativism vs ethnocentrism the clash of civilizations fundamentalism Islamization and post 9/11 Islamophobia This book will be useful to scholars and researchers of South Asian literature Islamic studies literary criticism political sociology anthropology and cultural studies those in the media and the general reader Qur'an and the Just Society Ramon Harvey, 2017-10-23 Utilising a pioneering theological and hermeneutic framework adapted from both classical Muslim literature and contemporary academic studies of the Qur'an Ramon Harvey explores the underlying principles of its system of social justice The Reception of Vatican II Matthew L. Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2017-02-09 From 1962 to 1965 in perhaps the most important religious event of the twentieth century the Second Vatican Council met to plot a course for the future of the Roman Catholic Church After thousands of speeches resolutions and votes the Council issued sixteen official documents on topics ranging from divine revelation to relations with non Christians But the meaning of the Second Vatican Council has been fiercely contested since before it was even over and the years since its completion have seen a battle for the soul of the Church waged through the interpretation of Council documents The Reception of Vatican II looks at the sixteen conciliar documents through the lens of those battles Paying close attention to reforms and new developments the essays in this volume show how the Council has been received and interpreted over the course of the more than fifty years since it concluded The contributors to this volume represent various schools of thought but are united by a commitment to restoring the view that Vatican II should be interpreted and implemented in line with Church Tradition The central problem facing Catholic theology today these essays argue is a misreading of the Council that posits a sharp break with previous Church teaching In order to combat this reductive way of interpreting the Council these essays provide a thorough instructive overview of the debates it inspired

Walāyah in the Fāṭimid Ismāʿīlī Tradition Elizabeth R. Alexandrin, 2017-07-19 Explores the relationship between revelation and reason in medieval Islamic intellectual history In this original study Elizabeth R. Alexandrin examines the complex relationships that can be inscribed between medieval Ism l thought as an intellectual tradition with a devotional practice of reliance on the im m and as a politico esoteric system that redefined governance during the F imid caliphate in the eleventh century Alexandrin s work is a departure from recent Western scholarship that focuses on similarities among early Islamic traditions She argues instead that under the guidance of the F imid Ism l chief missionary al Mu ayyad f al D n al Sh r z d 1078 CE the concept of wal yah divine guidance became closely associated with religio political authority on the one hand and the perfection of the individual human being on the other By signaling and affirming how the F imid caliph im m s were the heirs of wal yah and by proposing new definitions of the seal of God s friends kh tim al awliy All h al Mu ayyad broadened the contexts of making esoteric knowledge public and shifted the apocalyptic frameworks of Islamic messianism

The Sufi and the Friar Minlib Dallh, 2017-07-19 An investigation of the spiritual encounter between a twentieth century Dominican friar and an eleventh century Afghani Sufi master This book explores the profound spiritual encounter between Serge de Beaurecueil 1917 2005 a twentieth century French Dominican friar and Christian mystic and the eleventh century anbal Sufi master Khw ja Abdull h An r of Her t 1006 1089 De Beaurecueil lived much of his Christian discipleship in Cairo and Afghanistan where he became the foremost expert on the life and thought of An r His mystical conversation and scholarly engagement with An r his experience of Islamic hospitality and the transformation of his own practical spirituality or praxis mystica through his experience of dwelling in the abode of Islam provide us with not only a magnificent and luminous meditation on the hidden and abiding presence of God among Muslims but also a contemplation on the quandary of genuine engagement with and openness to the religious other To place a French Dominican friar who died in 2005 and a Sufi who died in 1089 in juxtaposition in the same book is not the most obvious path in comparative religious scholarship Yet Dallh has not only done precisely that but he has also produced a brilliant monograph in the process which makes for a fascinating read Dallh s work exhibits painstaking scholarship which illuminates two notable figures in Christianity and Islam respectively and makes an original contribution to the study of these two great faith traditions Ian Richard Netton author of Islam Christianity and Tradition A Comparative Exploration

The Christian Theological Tradition Mark McInroy,Michael J. Hollerich,2019-07-26 The fourth edition of The Christian Theological Tradition provides students with essential theological knowledge of key persons and events of the Bible and the Christian faith and of Christianity s multifaceted encounter with Western culture Historically arranged the textbook addresses major theological themes such as revelation God Jesus Christ Creation salvation and the church The textbook deals with the entire Christian tradition from an orientation that is both Catholic and ecumenical with the fourth edition including expanded coverage of modern Protestant Christianity The Christian Theological Tradition has been thoroughly revised and updated with nine new or rewritten chapters including A new section on the reception of the Second Vatican Council including the pontificate of Pope Francis A new treatment of contemporary developments in liberation and environmental theology A new examination of the relationship between science and Christianity An entirely rewritten treatment of Islam that focuses on the ways in which the Christian tradition has historically understood and responded to Islam A new discussion of the New Atheism with theological responses to this influential movement New textboxes on aspects of religious life such as liturgy prayer art moral teaching and social institutions appropriate to given chapters With the assistance of images and maps key words and recommended reading this textbook outlines the methods for Christian theology and demonstrates the relevance of the Christian theological tradition for our contemporary world This is an ideal resource for students of theology biblical studies or religious studies and anyone wanting an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the Christian theological tradition The Study of Islamic Origins Mette Bjerregaard Mortensen,Guillaume Dye,Isaac W. Oliver,Tommaso Tesei,2021-11-08 The study of Islam s origins from a rigorous historical and social science perspective is still wanting At the same time a renewed attention is being paid to the very plausible pre canonical redactional and editorial stages of the Qur an a book whose core many contemporary scholars agree to be formed by various independent writings in which encrypted passages from the OT Pseudepigrapha the NT Apocrypha and other ancient writings of Jewish Christian and Manichaeian provenance may be found Likewise the earliest Islamic community is presently regarded by many scholars as a somewhat undetermined monotheistic group that evolved from an original Jewish Christian milieu into a distinct Muslim group perhaps much later than commonly assumed and in a rather unclear way The following volume gathers select studies that were originally shared at the Early Islamic Studies Seminar These studies aim at exploring afresh the dawn and early history of Islam with the tools of biblical criticism as well as the approaches set forth in the study of Second Temple Judaism Christian and Rabbinic origins thereby contributing to the renewed interdisciplinary study of formative Islam as part and parcel of the complex processes of religious identity formation during Late Antiquity
