Christian Martyrs For A Muslim People:

Christian Martyrs for a Muslim People Martin McGee, 2008 In the mid 1990s a fundamentalist Islamist organization gave an ultimatum to all foreigners in Algeria depart or die This book tells the story of nineteen priests and religious sisters including seven Trappist monks who courageously chose to stay in Algeria and who ultimately paid for their dedication with their lives Drawing on letters journals and his own interviews with people who knew the nineteen religious Fr Martin McGee shows how these men and women gave witness to Christ through their actions winning the love of the Algerian people a love that did not cease with their deaths without ever attempting to make converts This is not only a very timely story of hope for those seeking reconciliation between Christians and Muslims but also a testimony of courage and selflessness that will inspire all people who wish to transcend denominational differences and come together in a spirit of loving respect and understanding Book jacket

Christian Martyrs under Islam Christian C. Sahner, 2018-08-14 A look at the developing conflicts in Christian Muslim relations during late antiquity and the early Islamic era How did the medieval Middle East transform from a majority Christian world to a majority Muslim world and what role did violence play in this process Christian Martyrs under Islam explains how Christians across the early Islamic caliphate slowly converted to the faith of the Arab conquerors and how small groups of individuals rejected this faith through dramatic acts of resistance including apostasy and blasphemy Using previously untapped sources in a range of Middle Eastern languages Christian Sahner introduces an unknown group of martyrs who were executed at the hands of Muslim officials between the seventh and ninth centuries CE Found in places as diverse as Syria Spain Egypt and Armenia they include an alleged descendant of Muhammad who converted to Christianity high ranking Christian secretaries of the Muslim state who viciously insulted the Prophet and the children of mixed marriages between Muslims and Christians Sahner argues that Christians never experienced systematic persecution under the early caliphs and indeed they remained the largest portion of the population in the greater Middle East for centuries after the Arab conquest Still episodes of ferocious violence contributed to the spread of Islam within Christian societies and memories of this bloodshed played a key role in shaping Christian identity in the new Islamic empire Christian Martyrs under Islam examines how violence against Christians ended the age of porous religious boundaries and laid the foundations for more antagonistic Muslim Christian relations in the centuries to come

Christian Martyrs in Muslim Spain Kenneth Baxter Wolf, 1984 Conversion to Islam Ayman S. Ibrahim, 2021-02-02 Why did non Muslims convert to Islam during Muhammad s life and under his immediate successors How did Muslim historians portray these conversions Why did their portrayals differ significantly To what extent were their portrayals influenced by their time of writing religious inclinations and political affiliations These are the fundamental questions that drive this study Relying on numerous works including primary sources from over a hundred classical Muslim historians Conversion to Islam is the first scholarly study to detect trace and analyze conversion themes in early Muslim historiography emphasizing how classical Muslims remembered conversion and how they valued and evaluated aspects of it Ayman S Ibrahim examines numerous early Muslim sources and wrestles with critical observations regarding the sources reliability and unearths the hidden link between historical narratives and historians religious sympathies and political agendas This study leads readers through a complex body of literature provides insights regarding historical context and creates a vivid picture of conversion to Islam as early Muslim historians sought to depict it Christian-Muslim
