Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Green Christianity Mark I Wallace, 2010-09-10 The central message of this book is that religion has a special role to play in saving the planet Religion has the unique power to fire the imagination and empower the will to break the cycle of addiction to nonrenewable energy The environmental crisis is a crisis not of the head but of the heart The problem is not that we do not know how to stop climate change but rather that we lack the inner strength to redirect our culture and economy toward a sustainable future Only a bold and courageous faith can undergird a long term commitment to change This book is a call to hope not despair a survey of promising directions and a call for readers to discover meaning and purpose in their lives through a spiritually charged commitment to saving the Earth On Being Unfinished Patrick, Anne E., 2017-11-16 Gathered here for the first time are both published and unpublished writings of Anne E Patrick a leading feminist Catholic voice revered both as a teacher and as a critical scholar of theology ethics literature and the arts Her scholarly publications broke new ground in a number of Catholic theological subdisciplines including feminist ethics liturgy and contemporary expressions of religious life This is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand post Vatican II theological development in the Catholic Church in the US Keeping God's Earth Noah Toly, Noah J. Toly, Daniel I. Block, 2010-05-26 Diversity of life Water resources Global climate change Cities and global environmental issues We all know being a Christian involves ethical responsibility But what exactly are our environmental obligations This unique volume teams up scientists with biblical scholars to help us discern just not that question What does the Lord require of us

Christian Faith and Social Justice: Five Views Vic McCracken, 2014-06-19 The Judeo Christian tradition testifies to a God that cries out demanding that justice roll down like waters righteousness like an ever flowing stream Amos 5:24 Christians agree that being advocates for justice is critical to the Christian witness And yet one need not look widely to see that Christians disagree about what social justice entails What does justice have to do with healthcare reform illegal immigration and same sex marriage Should Christians support tax policies that effectively require wealthy individuals to fund programs that benefit the poor Does justice require that we acknowledge and address the inequalities borne out of histories of gender and ethnic exclusivity Is the Christian vision distinct from non Christian visions of social justice Christians disagree over the proper answer to these questions In short Christians agree that justice is important but disagree about what a commitment to justice means Christian Faith and Social Justice makes sense of the disagreements among Christians over the meaning of justice by bringing together five highly regarded Christian philosophers to introduce and defend rival perspectives on social justice in the Christian tradition While it aspires to offer a lucid introduction to these theories the purpose of this book is more than informative It is purposefully dialogical and is structured so that contributors are able to model for the reader reasoned exchange among philosophers who disagree about the meaning of social justice The hope is that the reader is left with a better understanding of range of perspectives in the Christian tradition about social justice
