The Christian Life in the Modern World (Classic Reprint) Francis Greenwood Peabody, 2017-10-23 Excerpt from The Christian Life in the Modern World These questions have created in many thoughtful minds a profound sense of perplexity and even of alarm The world which confronts a modern man is very different from the provincial and primitive environment of the New Testament teaching but even though this new world is less likely than that of Crete to produce liars beasts and glut tons it seems quite as hard to adjust to the maxims of the Christian Gospel A modern man for example finds himself compelled by circumstances to devote two thirds of his waking hours to the making of his living and the securing of a margin of income but when he turns in some hastily snatched interval to the New Testament 4 the christian life IN the modern world About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Christian Service and the Modern World (Classic Reprint) Charles S. Macfarland, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Christian Service and the Modern World These messages have been given to the School of Theology of Southwestern University the Biblical Institute of Vanderbilt University the School of Theology at Fayette Mo and on other similar occasions They have been prepared in such time as could be taken from those administrative duties which necessarily limit both adequacy of thought and literary preparedness These utterances are not set forth as comprehensive of the Gospel message They are limited to only one or two aspects of that message or to one or two expressions The author had once preached a sort of trial sermon before the students in the chapel of the Theological Seminary and was rebuked by one of his fellow students who stated that the sermon had not discussed the Atonement and several other cardinal doctrines which he proceeded to name The answer of the embryo preacher was that he expected to preach several more sermons The author has however in this instance in previous volumes considered certain primary and constitutional features of Christian faith and experience About the Publisher Forgotten Books

Davis,2019-08-09 The experiential impulse of Protestant Christianity often identified as Pietism is one of the key driving forces in shaping the western world as well as promoting the ethos of individualism and antipathy toward the larger society As such understanding the foundations of Pietism is an essential and overlooked aspect of Western Christianity This work helps to address this gap in scholarship by addressing the first two centuries of Pietism First this work shows where the experiential impulse is found within medieval Christianity specifically in mysticism Following the Protestant Reformation this experiential impulse is unmoored from church tradition but still finds confessional variants including Lutheran Reform and Anglican The work then focuses on six key figures in the development of Pietism specifically William Perkins Johann Arndt Philip Spener August Francke Count Zinzendorf and John Wesley demonstrating that Pietism begins as a protest against institutional forms but then grows into institutional and denominational forms itself These institutional forms include Moravians Methodists and Prussianism which directly shaped Germany England and America though the latter not until the nineteenth century This work reveals the diverse impact Pietism had while remaining a cohesive yet contradictory movement Events That Formed the Modern World Frank W.

Christianity and Classical Culture Jaroslav Pelikan, 1993-01-01 The momentous encounter between Christian thought and Greek philosophy reached a high point in fourth century Byzantium and the principal actors were four Greek speaking Christian thinkers whose collective influence on the Eastern Church was comparable to that of Augustine on Western Latin Christendom In this erudite and informative book a distinguished scholar provides the first coherent account of the lives and writings of these so called Cappadocians named for a region in what is now eastern Turkey showing how they managed to be Greek and Christian at the same time Jaroslav Pelikan describes the four Cappadocians Gregory of Nazianzus Basil of Caesarea Gregory of Nyssa and Macrina sister and teacher of the last two who were trained in Classical culture philosophy and rhetoric but who were also defenders and expositors of Christian orthodoxy On one issue of faith and life after another the nature of religious language the ways of knowing the existence of God the universe as cosmos time and space free will and immortality the nature of the good life the purpose of the universe they challenged and debated the validity of the Greek philosophical tradition in interpreting Scripture Because the way they resolved these issues became the very definition of normative Christian belief says Pelikan their system is still a key to our understanding not only of Christianity's diverse religious traditions but also of its intellectual and philosophical traditions This book is based on the prestigious Gifford Lectures presented by Jaroslav Pelikan at the University of Aberdeen in 1992 and 1993 Christian Doctrine from the Bible to the Present John H. Leith, 2017-07-12 Christianity has always been a creedal religion in that it has always been theological It was rooted in the theological tradition of ancient Israel which was unified by its historical credos and declaratory affirmations of faith No pre theological era has been discovered in the New Testament or in the history of the Christian community From the beginning Christianity has been theological involving men in theological reflection and calling them to declarations of faith A non theological Christianity has simply never endured although such has been attempted for instance by individual seers in the sixteenth century and also by collaborators with totalitarian ideologies in the twentieth century The creeds presented here range from the ancient faith of the Hebrews and the creed like formulas of the New Testament to the Barmen declaration of 1934 framed by the Christians in Germany who faced the threat of Nazism and the Batak Creed of 1951 in which Indonesian Christians gave authentic expression to their religious belief in the idiom of their own culture All the creeds are in some sense official and every major division of Christendom is represented including the Younger Churches The volume ends with the messages of the most important assemblies dealing with the Ecumenical Movement This single volume containing all the major theological affirmations of the Christian community is a source book for the study of Christian theology It comprises a record of the Church's interpretation of the Bible in the past and an authoritative guide to its interpretation on the present Indeed it is a guide to an understanding of the Christian interpretation of life Does the Soul Survive? Elie Kaplan Spitz, 2012-12-14 Near death experiences Past life regression Reincarnation Are these sorts of things Jewish With a blend of candor personal questioning and sharp eyed scholarship Rabbi Elie Kaplan Spitz relates his own observations and the firsthand accounts shared with him by others experiences that helped propel his journey from skeptic to believer that there is life after life From near death experiences to reincarnation past life memory to the work of mediums Rabbi Spitz explores what we are really able to know about the afterlife and draws on Jewish texts to share that belief in these concepts so often approached with reluctance is in fact true to Jewish tradition The increasing interest and faith in survival of the soul may grow into a cultural wave that is as potentially transformative for society as the civil rights movement and feminism A renewed faith in the soul s journeys will call for a reassessment of our priorities and will enable traditional religions to renew and transform their adherents from the Introduction

The Suicide of Christian Theology

John Warwick Montgomery,2018-01-26 A forceful scholarly call to return to the solid ground of the ancient creeds of Christianity Dr Montgomery s incisive observations on Barth Bultmann Tillich de Chardin Pike and others may rankle some readers on occasion But there can never be any question about the mental acumen he brings to bear upon his subject or the skill with which he pens his views Montgomery is so obviously at home in the area of the theological and so conversant with the convictions of his fellow theologians that he certainly must be reckoned with Not content with only analyzing the suicide of theology the author also gives a proposal for its resurrection Philosophical Dialogues on the Christian Faith Steven D.
