Digging Deep Boyd Lemon,2011-04 Eleven years after my last divorce I moved to Boston at age 66 after a lifetime in California to live platonically with a 23 year old female college student I still thought my marriages failed because I had married the wrong women crazy women Finally I realized that I must have had some role in destroying these marriages Encouraged by my roommate I embark on a journey to uncover my role My attitudes about marriage had been profoundly influenced by my place on the cusp between the moralistic generation of the 1940 s and 1950 s and the next generation that embraced sex drugs and rock n roll as well as greater independence and equality for women I was also deeply troubled by my choice of a career that seemed only to help the rich get richer These issues propelled me to avoid dealing with my marriages My memoir is a story of these marriages and divorces and uncovering my role through intense introspection and the writing process I believe it will help others deal with issues in their own relationships as couples and individuals face the new order in relationships and their own pasts Christie's shipping register, maritime compendium and commercial
