Creative Dimensions Of Suffering Creative Dimensions Of Suffering:

Creative Dimensions of Suffering A. M. Ghadirian, 2009 Creative Dimensions of Suffering is an intriguing combination of psychiatry and spirituality that illustrates the power of creativity to treat suffering. An examination of the lives of many famous artists who suffered including Van Gogh, Tchaikovsky and Beethoven gives insight into how they dealt with their adversity through creativity. Dr. Ghadirian explores how various conditions such as alcoholism, depression, bipolar disorder and dementia can influence a person's creative impulse and how creativity and spirituality can help a person deal with trauma. He describes the courage of many other well-known figures such as Helen Keller and Christopher Reeve who were able to overcome their suffering and emerge victorious over daunting odds. Finally, drawing on principles found in the teachings of the Baha'i Faith, Ghadirian attempts to explain suffering, its place in human society and how it can lead us to a closer, happier relationship with God as well as a better relationship with ourselves and with others. Indeed, many of those who have suffered the most have found new meaning through adversity and have emerged victorious. Creative Dimensions of Suffering Abdu'l-Missagh Ghadirian, 2009 The Universe Within Us Jane E. Harper, 2009 A provocative look at the purpose of life through a mixture of religion, science and personal experience. Life at First Sight Phyllis Edgerly Ring, 2009 Phyllis Ring divulges in this collection of personal essays how to see the spiritual in everyday moments and everyday life. Like love at first sight, life at first sight focuses on instant recognition and irresistible attraction, a sense of something mysteriously familiar and a sense of spiritual connection. The essays show how to develop a new sense of being during daily activities and everyday interactions as well as through engagement with the natural world. As a jumping off point for spiritual conversation, these compositions offer food for thought on how to lead a more spiritual life. Book jacket Illumine My Family, 2009 Illumine My Family is a collection of prayers and meditative passages from the writings of the Baha'i Faith that will help any family wishing to incorporate spirituality into their daily lives. The passages included offer guidance and prayers on subjects relevant to any family regardless of their background or current circumstances. Subjects covered include marriage, parents, motherhood, children, love, healing, the loss of a loved one and more. The book has been put together with the hope that it will assist families to grow together and to foster strong relationships with each other and God. The Palgrave Encyclopedia of the Possible Vlad Petre Glăveanu, 2023-01-25 The Palgrave Encyclopedia of the Possible represents a comprehensive resource for researchers and practitioners interested in an emerging multidisciplinary area within psychology and the social sciences: the study of how we engage with and cultivate the possible within self, society and culture. Reverence for Life Ara Paul Barsam, 2008-01-29 Albert Schweitzer maintained that the idea of Reverence for Life came upon him on the Ogowe River as an unexpected discovery like a revelation in the midst of intense thought While Schweitzer made numerous significant contributions to an incredible diversity of fields medicine music biblical studies philosophy and theology he regarded Reverence for Life as his greatest contribution and the one by which he most wanted to be remembered Yet this concept has been the subject of a range of distortions and misunderstandings both academic and popular In this book Ara Barsam provides a new interpretation of Schweitzer s reverence and shows how it emerged from his studies of German philosophy Indian religions and his biblical scholarship on Jesus and Paul By throwing light on the origin and development of Schweitzer s thought Barsam leads his readers to a closer appreciation of the contribution that reverence makes to current ethical issues Whereas previous commentators have focused on reverence for life as a philosophical ethic located in that tradition this book demonstrates that it is in fact Schweitzer s theology that provides the hitherto undiscerned foundation for his ethic Even among those who herald Schweitzer as the one who brought reverence to Christianity there exists a tendency to underemphasize how his thinking also developed from his pivotal encounter with Indian religions As Barsam shows it is impossible to grasp the nature and the significance of Barsam s contribution without addressing that link Life centered ethics in the broadest sense have continued to flourish yet Schweitzer's pioneering contribution is often overlooked Not only did he help establish the issue on the moral agenda but most significant he also provided much sought after philosophical and theological foundations Schweitzer emerges from this critical study of his life and thought as a remarkable individual who should rightfully be regarded as a moral giant of the twentieth century

The Power of Unearned Suffering Mika Edmondson, 2016-12-09 This book explores the roots and relevance of Martin Luther King Jr's approach to black suffering King's conviction that unearned suffering is redemptive reflects a nearly 250 year old tradition in the black church going back to the earliest Negro spirituals From the bellies of slave ships the foot of the lynching tree and the back of segregated buses black Christians have always maintained the hope that God could make a way out of no way and somehow bring good from the evils inflicted on them As a product of the black church tradition King inherited this widespread belief developed it using Protestant liberal concepts and deployed it throughout the Civil Rights Movement of the 50's and 60's as a central pillar of the whole non violent movement Recently critics have maintained that King's doctrine of redemptive suffering creates a martyr mentality which makes victims passive in the face of their suffering this book argues against that critique King's concept offers real answers to important challenges and it offers practical hope and guidance for how beleaguered black citizens can faithfully engage their suffering today

Peacebuilding, Memory and Reconciliation

Bruno Charbonneau, Genevieve Parent, 2013-06-17 This book aims to bridge the gap between what are generally referred to as top down and bottom up approaches to peacebuilding After the experience of a physical and psychological trauma the period of individual healing and recovery is intertwined with political and social reconciliation The prospects for social and political reconciliation are undermined when a top down approach is favoured over the bottom up strategy the prioritization of structural stability over societal well being Peacebuilding Memory and Reconciliation explores the inextricable link between psychological recovery and socio political reconciliation and the political issues that dominate this relationship Through an examination of the construction of social narratives about or for peace the text offers a new perspective on peacebuilding which challenges and questions the very nature of the dichotomy between top down and bottom up approaches This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies social psychology political science and IR in general

African American Mental Health Reginald Lanier Jones, 1998 Creative Morality Don MacNiven, 2023-04-21 Creative Morality is a philosophical study of moral dilemmas Western moral thought has relied on two basic ethical perspectives Utilitarianism and Kantianism to resolve dilemmas MacNiven argues that no real progress can be made with modern moral problems unless these traditions are coherently synthesised The book deals with diverse topics such as academic honesty medical confidentiality terrorism and euthanasia and the hypothetical dilemmas used are based on real life situations so that theory might be tested against reality Yet the solutions are not definitive because as MacNiven demonstrates creativity is an intrinsic characteristic of moral thought

Julian of Norwich and the Problem of Evil Richard Norton, 2023-01-01 Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love grapples with the same fundamental question that has vexed philosophers and theologians since the advent of monotheistic religion and continues as a barrier to belief for many today Namely if God is so good how can natural disaster genocide trauma and my present suffering occur Historically there have been two apparently very different approaches to the problem the pastoral or practical on the one hand and the systematic on the other Richard Norton however suggests that these two lines of thought may not be as separate as they seem and may indeed be dependent on one another for their cohesion Drawing on Julian's medieval experience of personal and population wide suffering alongside that of more recent theologians such as Dorothy Solle and Jürgen Moltmann Norton constructs a compassionate model of theodicy that can be of use to both pastoral and systematic theologians Throughout he remains sensitive to the raw atrocity of evil while preserving a vision of God as the one who ensures that all shall be well Zygmunt Bauman and the West Jack Palmer, 2023-07-15 Zygmunt Bauman was both an outsider of Western modernity and one of its foremost interpreters He was an exemplary figure in twentieth century intellectual work on exile who experienced both Nazi and Soviet forms of totalitarianism The first work to draw extensively on Bauman's personal archive Zygmunt Bauman and the West argues that the distinctive social thought that sprang from Bauman's lived experiences of exile amounts to a sustained sophisticated and hitherto unappreciated problematization of Eurocentrism and the West Through an overview of the intellectual's thought and his contribution to sociology Jack Palmer explores Bauman's experience and interpretation of the West and seeks to understand his work in a broader context outside of the Eurocentric environment from which it was born Intervening in a resurgent sociology of intellectuals Zygmunt Bauman and the West re-evaluates the place of the West in social and political thought
