Facilitating Collective Intelligence Chantal

Nève-Hanquet, Agathe Crespel, 2019-08-19. Chantal Nève-Hanquet and Agathe Crespel provide an accessible and groundbreaking guide to genuinely effective group work, sharing excellent hands-on assistance for coaches and facilitators. Offering a unique selection of guidelines and illustrations for group work, the authors demonstrate the benefits of using creative action methods in practice, helping leaders discover new ways to achieve dynamic group sessions and endowing their work with new vigour as well as pleasure. Facilitating Collective Intelligence brings together a wealth of knowledge and techniques from psychodrama, Jungian, and systemic analysis to inform group facilitation. Throughout the book's four parts, key inner attitudes, questions, and action techniques are explored to help facilitators nourish open and flexible forms of communication within groups, stimulate collective intelligence, and foster creative approaches to collective problem-solving. With the help of numerous sensitively related case studies, the book guides the reader through the process of achieving more dynamism in group work, fostering creativity, encouraging agility, and developing co-construction within groups. It contains more than thirty practical reference sheets which provide an instant aid for implementing the methods and models in the book. Nève-Hanquet and Crespel's approach advocates the use of action methods, specifically the ARC model, to encourage out-of-the-box thinking and develop new paths and strategies in working with teams and organizations. Facilitating Collective Intelligence is an invaluable and essential tool in cultivating effective group dynamics for all coaches, coach supervisors, and consultants, both experienced and in training. Due to its clear and practical structure, it will also be useful for counsellors, coaching
