WRITING PROMPTS

9-13 YRS OLD

1. Write about a family member you admire.
2. If you can be a superhero, choose 2 superpowers you would like to have.
3. Write about a person you helped today
4. Write one new skill or knowledge you would like to gain this month and how you will achieve that
5. Finish this thought: In five years, I will be...
6. Ask each of your family members to reminisce and talk about the funniest family moments.
7. Ask a family member to share with you one world news that happened this week and write about it.
8. Leave a surprise note for someone you care about. What can you write to bring a smile to their face?
9. If you could spend this weekend building something, what would you create, make or build?
10. Traveling teaches you new things about the world. List down places you would like to go and why you would want to go there.
11. What would you do if you were locked inside your favorite store for a night?
12. Write 3 things you are grateful about in your life.
13. 3 things you would take with you if you will be stuck in an island for a week.
14. Write 3 things you like best about your family
15. What do you see yourself doing 5 years from now?
16. If you could be anyone in this world, who would you be and why?
17. I wish I could forget the time I because....
18. My favorite stuffed animal or toy is...
19. If I could buy one toy for the rest of the year, what would I buy?
20. What would you do if you found a magic wand?
21. What happens next? I was playing my favorite computer game when, all of a sudden, I was stuck inside my computer...
22. Who has the best job in the world?

Creative Writing Exercises For Middle School:

A Practical Guide to Creative Writing in Schools Fiona Clark, 2021-04-22 This book contains seven tried and tested creative writing projects for pupils aged 8-14. Each project is delivered through a series of workshops and enables pupils to explore a literary genre or writing style, discuss themes and topics, and receive constructive feedback about their writing. The projects cover topics such as identity, cultural heritage, tolerance, empathy, morality, dreams, and much more. Teachers wanting to run creative writing projects will find this book easy to follow, practical, and timesaving. Each project allows students to explore a certain literary genre or writing style in detail, be creative, and have fun while learning. Think about, talk about, and discuss themes and topics, receive constructive feedback about their writing, pursue their own ideas, see themselves as real writers with a real audience, understand that writing can be enjoyable, artistic, and relaxing, experience creativity to improve their wellbeing. These ready-made projects are invaluable for teachers who are looking for new and successful creative writing projects for a range of students. They will enable teachers to immediately start making a difference to their students' confidence and writing skills, allowing them to be as creative and imaginative as possible and use creativity as a springboard for their own writing.

Creative Writing Activities and Lessons Stella Tartsinis, 2024-10-06 These creative writing activities and lessons are designed for a range of grade levels. The lessons encourage creativity while helping students build essential writing skills.

Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty-First Century Alexandria Peary, Tom C Hunley, 2015-06-25 The creative writing workshop, beloved by some and dreaded by others and ubiquitous in writing programs across the nation, for decades has been entrenched as the primary pedagogy of creative writing. While the field of creative writing studies has sometimes myopically focused on this single method, the related discipline of composition studies has made use of numerous pedagogical models. In Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty-First Century, editors Alexandria Peary and Tom C Hunley gather experts from both creative writing and composition studies to offer innovative alternatives to the traditional creative writing workshop. Drawing primarily from the field of composition studies, a discipline rich with a wide range of established pedagogies, the contributors in this volume build on previous models to present fresh and inventive methods for the teaching of creative writing. Each chapter offers both a theoretical and a historical background for its respective pedagogical ideas, as well as practical applications for use in the classroom. This myriad of methods can be used either as a supplement to the customary workshop model or as stand-alone roadmaps to engage and reinvigorate the creative process for both students and teachers alike. A fresh and inspiring collection of teaching methods, Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty-First Century combines both conventional and cutting-edge techniques to expand the pedagogical possibilities in creative writing studies.
