Cultural Renewal in Cambodia Philippe Peycam, 2020-09-07 This book is about cultural work in torn up societies It narrates the establishment of an academic project in contemporary post war Cambodia when the country became the largest recipient of international aid It depicts a Southeast Asian country at the crossroads of conflicting imaginaries of development through the lens of an independent organization that emerged out of the turmoil It shows how the relations of domination of institutions from the north effectively constrain alternative visions of action in the south that fall outside the neo liberal framework The account is a reflection on past ambitions and failures of the international good will order and a charge to change our approach in the future It offers a cautionary tale whose significance transcends the Cambodian case

What's Become of Australian Cultural Studies? Gerard Goggin, Anna Pertierra, Mark Andrejevic, Melissa Gregg, 2018-04-19 Cultural studies face a complicated yet rich future proving both flexible and resilient in many countries Against this backdrop this book offers a fresh perspective on the state of the field of cultural studies via an evaluation of the work of one of its key thinkers Graeme Turner and the traditions of Australian cultural studies which have been influential on the formation of the field Thinking with Turner and being informed by his practice can help orient us in the face of new challenges and contexts across culture media and everyday life teaching and pedagogy the relation of research to the new politics of public engagement policy management and universities the internationalization of cultural studies and the reconfiguration of nationalism the changing concepts and relations of culture the development of important new areas in cultural studies such as celebrity studies and the emergence of digital media studies This lively and provocative volume is essential reading for anyone interested in where cultural studies has come from where it s heading to and what kinds of ideas not least from Graeme Turner will help scholars and students alike make sense of and reconfigure the discipline This book was originally published as a special issue of Cultural Studies

The Pedagogies of Cultural Studies Andrew Hickey, 2016-03-31 This volume provides an exploration of the manifold ways pedagogy is enacted in cultural studies practice Pedagogy in the book comes to stand as far more than simply the art of teaching contributors explore how pedagogy defines and shapes their practice as cultural studies scholars Chapters variously highlight the role of pedagogy in cultural studies practice including formal classroom situations where cultural studies is deployed to teach as part of degree or coursework programs but importantly also as something removed from the formal classroom as situated within the research act via public engagement or through social activism as a public pedagogy In so doing the book chart a course for understanding cultural studies as an active and engaged discipline interested in understanding cultural flows and production as sites of learning and exchange

The Martial Arts Studies Reader Paul Bowman, 2018-09-20 A decade ago the question was could martial arts ever be studied academically Today we are witnessing the global emergence and rapid proliferation of Martial Arts Studies an exciting and dynamic new field that studies all aspects of martial arts in culture history and society In recent years there have been a proliferation of studies of martial arts and race gender class nation ethnicity identity culture politics history economics film media art philosophy gaming education embodiment performance technology and many other matters Given the diversity of topics and approaches the question for new students and researchers is one of how to orientate oneself and gain awareness of the richness and diversity of the field make sense of different styles of academic approach and organise one's own study research and writing The Martial Arts Studies Reader answers this need by bringing together pioneers of the field and scholars at its cutting edges to offer authoritative and accessible insights into its key concerns and areas Each chapter introduces and sets out an approach to and a route through a key issue in a specific area of martial arts studies Taken together or in isolation the chapters offer stimulating and exciting insights into this fascinating research area In this way The Martial Arts Studies Reader offers the first authoritative field defining overview of the global and multidisciplinary phenomena of martial arts and martial arts studies

Gender, Media and Modernity in the Asia-Pacific Catherine Driscoll, Meaghan Morris, 2015-10-14 This collection offers a range of cultural studies perspectives on the ways gender and modernity intersect in media produced in the Asia Pacific region It spans different ideas about modernity in the region different approaches to cultural analysis and different media forms from Taiwanese lifestyle television to avant garde Indian cinema from the emergence of a Chinese youth culture in online social networks to the alienation of country girls as imagined by Australian soap opera and from the fantastic politics of migrating bodies in Korean cinema to the masculine mimicry of fighting women in South East Asian action movies Together these essays explore the ways that media both records and helps produce images and experiences of modernity and the integral role gender plays in those processes This book was originally published as a special issue of Cultural Studies

Routledge Handbook of New Media in Asia Larissa Hjorth, Olivia Khoo, 2015-11-06 While a decade ago much of the discussion of new media in Asia was couched in Occidental notions of Asia as a default setting for technology in the future today we are seeing a much more complex picture of contesting new media practices and production As new media becomes increasingly an everyday reality for young and old across Asia through smartphones and associated devices boundaries between art new media and the everyday are transformed This Handbook addresses the historical social cultural political philosophical artistic and economic dimensions of the region s new media Through an interdisciplinary revision of both new media and Asia the contributors provide new insights into the complex and contesting terrains of both notions The Routledge Handbook of New Media in Asia will be the definitive publication for readers interested in comprehending all the various aspects of new media in Asia It provides an authoritative up to date intellectually broad conceptually cutting edge guide to the important aspects of new media in the region as the first point of consultation for researchers advanced level undergraduate and postgraduate students in fields of new media and Asian studies

Martial Arts Studies Paul Bowman,2015-04-09 The phrase martial arts studies is increasingly circulating as a term to describe a new field of interest But many academic fields including history philosophy anthropology and Area studies already engage with martial arts in their own particular way Therefore is there really such a thing as a unique field of martial arts studies Martial Arts Studies is the first book to engage directly with these questions It assesses the multiplicity and heterogeneity of possible approaches to martial arts studies exploring orientations and limitations of existing approaches It makes a case for constructing the field of martial arts studies in terms of key coordinates from post structuralism cultural studies media studies and post colonialism By using these anti disciplinary approaches to disrupt the approaches of other disciplines Martial Arts Studies proposes a field that both emerges out of and differs from its many disciplinary locations

Media, Mobilization and the Umbrella Movement Francis L. F. Lee,2018-05-16 The Umbrella Movement in Hong Kong caught the world s attention and imagination at the end of 2014 The 79 day occupation campaign took on some of the characteristics of the recent wave of large scale protest movements around the world including the prominent roles played by the media both conventional and digital in the mobilization and communication processes of the movement This edited volume Media Mobilization and the Umbrella Movement brings together nine contributions which examine various aspects of the media movement nexus including the power of televised images to mobilize people the role of social media in the insurgent public sphere young activists social media strategies media influence on citizens understanding of civil disobedience the government s response to digital media tactics public discourses about the rule of law and local and foreign media coverage of the movement We believe that this high quality collection can not only enhance our understanding of the Umbrella Movement but also facilitate and trigger more research and dialogue comparing the Umbrella Movement with other similar protest movements around the world This book was originally published as a special issue of the Chinese Journal of Communication

African Cinema and Human Rights Mette Hjort,Eva Jørholt,2019-03-01 Essays and case studies exploring how filmmaking can play a role in promoting social and economic justice Bringing theory and practice together African Cinema and Human Rights argues that moving images have a significant role to play in advancing the causes of justice and fairness The contributors to this volume identify three key ways in which film can achieve these goals
