This book begins with the belief that if a moral principle cannot be identified in the language of the law if law is not underpinned by a moral understanding of the norm if the moral accusation is not attached to the violations of certain indispensable norms of the law then we are violating the peremptory character of the universality of the moral law The book vicariously objects to any dispute for the advantage of the impunity of those who have cruelly contravened the corpus juris of international peremptory criminal law What justifies the law in recognizing certain principles as peremptory derives from the highest genetic merit for the international human community as a whole Here the term peremptory for classical morality is seen to encompass love for the spirit of truth for the strength of equality of arms and for the reaffirmation of the value of the essence of man where its infringements violate the indispensable universal rights of nature This is regardless of whether its perpetrators are Western or non Western A Treatise on Criminal Law Francis Wharton,1912 Court of Appeals Reports, Annotated Philippines.
