Sentencing in International Criminal Law Silvia D'Ascoli,2011-04-01 This book deals with sentencing in international criminal law focusing on the approach of the UN ad hoc Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia ICTY and Rwanda ICTR In contrast to sentencing in domestic jurisdictions and in spite of its growing importance sentencing law is a part of international criminal law that is still under construction and is unregulated in many aspects International sentencing law and practice is not yet defined by exact norms and principles and as yet there is no body of international principles concerning the determination of sentence notwithstanding the huge volume of sentencing research and the extensive modern debate about sentencing principles Moreover international judges receive very little guidance in sentencing matters this contributes to inconsistencies and may increase the risk that similar cases will be sentenced in different ways One purpose of this book is to investigate and evaluate the process of international sentencing especially as interpreted by the ICTY and the ICTR and to suggest a more comprehensive and coherent system of guiding principles which will foster the development of a law of sentencing for international criminal justice The book discusses the law and jurisprudence of the ad hoc Tribunals and also presents an empirical analysis of influential factors and other data from ICTY and ICTR sentencing practice thus offering quantitative support for the doctrinal analysis This publication is one of the first to be entirely devoted to the process of sentencing in international criminal justice The book will thus be of great interest to practitioners academics and students of the subject , Principles and Values in Criminal Law and Criminal Justice Lucia Zedner, Julian V. Roberts, 2012-08-16 Celebrating the scholarship of Andrew Ashworth Vinerian Professor of English Law at the University of Oxford this collection brings together leading international scholars to explore questions of principle and value in criminal law and criminal justice Internationally renowned for elaborating a body of principles and values that should underpin criminalization the criminal process and sentencing Ashworth s contribution to the field over forty years of scholarship has been immense Advancing his project of exploring normative issues at the heart of criminal law and criminal justice the contributors examine the important and fascinating debates in which Ashworth s influence has been greatest The essays fall into three distinct but related areas reflecting Ashworth s primary spheres of influence Those in Part 1 address the import and role of principles in the development of a just criminal law with contributions focusing upon core tenets such as the presumption of innocence fairness accountability the principles of criminal liability and the grounds for defences Part 2 addresses questions of human rights and due process protections in both domestic and international law In Part 3 the essays are addressed to core issues in sentencing and punishment they explore questions of equality proportionality adherence to the rule of law the totality principle in respect of multiple offences wrongful acquittals and unduly lenient sentences Together they demonstrate how important Ashworth s work has been in shaping how we think about criminal law and criminal justice and make their own invaluable contribution to contemporary discussions of criminalization and punishment

Criminal Litigation and Sentencing Andrew Ashworth, 1997 Criminal Litigation and Sentencing Robert McPeake, 2010 Written by experienced practitioners in this area Criminal Litigation and Sentencing offers an excellent introduction to the law rules and practices of criminal procedure and sentencing which govern the role of the criminal advocate across the full range of criminal proceedings including trial in the magistrates youth Crown and appellate courts The legal framework underpinning all aspects of a criminal case is clearly examined from the moment an individual is arrested and charged through to trial and appeals against conviction Full consideration is also given to the law and practice of sentencing ensuring that the junior practitioner has a full working knowledge of all aspects of the criminal justice system which may be encountered in the early years of practice Written by experienced practitioners in this area Criminal Litigation and Sentencing offers an excellent introduction to the law rules and practices of criminal procedure and sentencing which govern the role of the criminal advocate across the full range of criminal proceedings including trial in the magistrates youth Crown and appellate courts The legal framework underpinning all aspects of a criminal case is clearly examined from the moment an individual is arrested and charged through to trial and appeals against conviction Full consideration is also given to the law and practice of sentencing ensuring that the junior practitioner has a full working knowledge of all aspects of the criminal justice system
