Creative Communities Art Works In Economic Development:

Creative Communities Michael Rushton, 2013-04-12 Urban and regional planners elected officials and other decisionmakers are increasingly focused on what makes places livable Access to the arts inevitably appears high on that list but knowledge about how culture and the arts can act as a tool of economic development is sadly lacking This important sector must be considered not only as a source of amenities or pleasant diversions but also as a wholly integrated part of local economies Employing original data produced through both quantitative and qualitative research Creative Communities provides a greater understanding of how art works as an engine for transforming communities Without good data and analysis much of it grounded in economic theory we cannot hope to strengthen communities through the arts or to achieve any of the other goals we set for the National Endowment for the Arts the largest nationwide funder of the arts from the Foreword by Rocco Landesman Contributors Hasan Bakhshi Nesta UK Elisa Barbour University of California Berkeley Shiri M Breznitz Georgia Institute of Technology Roland J Kushner Muhlenberg College Rex LaMore Michigan State University James Lawton Michigan State Neil Lee Nesta UK Richard G Maloney Boston University Ann Markusen University of Minnesota Juan Mateos Garcia Nesta UK Anne Gadwa Nicodemus Metris Arts Consulting Douglas S Noonan Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis Peter Pedroni Williams College Amber Peruski Michigan State Michele Root Bernstein Michigan State Robert Root Bernstein Michigan State Eileen Roraback Michigan State Michael Rushton Indiana University Lauren Schmitz New School for Social Research Jenny Schuetz University of Southern California John Schweitzer Michigan State Stephen Sheppard Williams College Megan VanDyke Michigan State Gregory H Wassall Northeastern University

Entrepreneurship for the Creative and Cultural Industries Bonita M. Kolb, 2015-03-27 Artists musicians actors singers designers and other creative individuals need to understand basic business concepts if they are to successfully pursue their chosen artistic profession These skills have historically not been taught to creative students which leaves them unprepared to make a living from their artistic efforts Entrepreneurship for the Creative and Cultural Industries will teach the basics of business in a way that is relevant to the challenges of running a small business marketing a creative product Whether it is understanding the basics of business language appreciating the crucial importance of finance or using social media marketing this innovative textbook covers the entrepreneurial skills required to succeed in the creative sector Including advice from artists who have turned their idea in to a profitable business and worksheets that can be combined into a simple business plan Kolb helps non business minded creatives to understand everything they need to succeed in the increasingly competitive creative economy This textbook is essential reading for non business students who are looking to understand the business side of the creative sector whilst its practical style will also suit recent graduates in these industries

The Oxford Handbook of Creative Industries Candace Jones, Mark Lorenzen, Jonathan Sapsed, 2015 This book discusses creative industries from the perspectives of economics management psychology law geography and policy The book combines views on how creativity is turned into economic business and social value as well as contemporary trends digital technologies and creative industries in emerging economies such as China and India Strategic Cultural Center

Management Tomas Jarvinen, 2021-03-14 Strategic Cultural Center Management focuses on private cultural centers and their operational preconditions The aim is to illustrate how to strategically manage a cultural center in varied external environments Analysing processes of organizational change the author uses institutional and resource dependence theories alongside concepts such as business models profitability mission focus and quality management The book examines theoretical and managerial implications highlighting that cultural managers lean towards different strategies that diversify resource streams facilitating agile strategic responses to institutional pressures Offering valuable theoretical empirical and conceptual analysis this book serves as an incomparable reference for researchers postgraduate students civic leaders and arts managers involved in the creative and cultural industries Innovating Institutions and Inequities in the Arts

Joanna Woronkowicz, Douglas Noonan, 2024-07-11 This book includes evidence based accounts of inequities in the arts as well as a focus on systems that perpetuate and resolve inequities in this context a topic of wide interest to researchers and practitioners in arts and culture The chapters in this volume include both the empirical rigor and a diversity of disciplinary perspectives that makes it an essential piece of scholarship in the arts and culture The volume is ideal for students and scholars studying areas such as sociology of the arts cultural economics and arts management This collection is the result of a series the Arts Entrepreneurship and Innovation Lab at the Center for Cultural Affairs at Indiana University hosted in summer 2022 on the topic of Innovating Institutions and Inequities in the Arts co sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts and the Doris Duke Foundation Language Revitalisation and Social Transformation Huw Lewis, Wilson

McLeod, 2021-09-28 This book brings together an interdisciplinary group of academic researchers in order to examine how and to what extent the challenge of language revitalisation should be reassessed and reconceptualised to take account of our fast changing social context The period of four decades between 1980 and 2020 that straddled the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first is widely regarded as one that witnessed a series of fundamental social economic and political transformations Many societies have become increasingly individualistic mobile and diverse in terms of ethnicity and identity their economies have become increasingly interconnected and their governance structures have become increasingly complex incorporating a growing number of different levels and actors In addition rapid advancements with regard to automated digital and communication technology have had a far reaching impact on how people interact with each other and participate in society The chapters in this book aim to advance an agenda of key questions that should concern those working in the field of language revitalisation over the coming years and the volume will be of interest to students scholars and policy makers in related areas including sociolinguistics education sociology geography political science law economics Celtic studies and communication technology A New Economic Theory of Public Support for the Arts Arnaldo Barone, 2015-12-14 Should the arts receive public support Can the arts survive in a modern capitalist society Can economics shed light on the nature of public support and whether there is a rationale for public intervention This book undertakes to examine these questions as it explores the ways government and public resources are used to support the arts This book applies a Veblenian approach to understanding economic development to investigate public support for the arts in an effort to determine whether this approach can elucidate economic rationales for public support Divided into three parts the first provides basic information on public support for the arts by surveying support in the United States and Australia Part two includes a neoclassical overview of the topic while part three presents Veblen's ideas on economic development This book will be of interests to researchers concerned with cultural and institutional economics as well as political economy
