Stops a Dream Dies provides truly innovative approaches to therapeutically help individuals work through and survive grief and loss. Leading experts explore creative interventions for common yet emotionally devastating problems faced by those weathering the storms of grief after their dream has been destroyed. Therapists and counselors get the effective tools to creatively help people through the difficulties of dealing with death, addiction, trauma, changes in life circumstances, divorce, heartbreak, miscarriage, co-occurring mental health and substance use disorder, COD, suicide, adoption and issues with children. The chapters in this innovative volume cite existing research on specific grief and loss issues and illustrate a clinical application for each situation using various creative mediums such as music, writing or ritual. Each approach can be expanded and modified with care by clinicians of all types to better help clients through the process. This resource is extensively referenced. Topics in Creative Interventions in Grief and Loss Therapy include how storytelling, journaling and correspondence can be used to process the experience of a counselor's loss following the death of their client; using psychodrama and the utilization of empty chair techniques to address addiction-related grief and loss; the use of rituals as an intervention to help clients with trauma and loss during times of natural disasters; the process of gatekeeping by counselor educators; Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT) as an approach to help student athletes deal with life after the sport; a literary exercise to help clients work toward forgiveness after divorce; using books, songs and projects to assist clients experiencing grief after the death of their adolescent child; creative strategies to aid clients through the grief and loss of love; effective interventions to assist clients through loss from miscarriage using music, videography, visual arts, literature, drama, play and altar making in the grief process; innovative interventions for individuals with co-occurring mental health and substance use disorder; suicide high risk factors and a Pre-suicide Preparation Plan that mental health practitioners can implement; creative intervention for the client who is adopted using superheroes and science fiction; therapeutic storytelling for children in grief. Creative Interventions in Grief and Loss Therapy: When the Music Stops a Dream Dies is a creative reaffirming resource perfect for mental health professionals, therapists, counselors, social workers, educators and students.

Creative Interventions with Traumatized Children, Second Edition Cathy A. Malchiodi, 2014-10-02. A trusted bestselling resource, this volume demonstrates a range of creative approaches for facilitating children's emotional reparation and recovery from trauma. Experts in play, art, music, movement and drama therapy, as well as bibliotherapy, describe step-by-step strategies for working with children, families and groups. Rich with case material and artwork, the book is both practical and user-friendly. Specific types of stressful experiences include parental loss, child abuse, family violence, bullying and mass trauma. Important developments in neurobiology, self-regulation and resilience and posttraumatic growth are highlighted in this substantial revision. New to This Edition: Chapters on art therapy and EMDR, body maps and dissociation, sandtray play, resiliency-based movement therapy, work with clay, mindfulness and stress reduction with music therapy. Updated and expanded discussions of trauma-informed therapy and the neurobiological basis for creative interventions. The chapter on mass violence has been extensively rewritten with new case material on the Sandy Hook school shooting
