Close Calls With Nonsense Reading New Poetry:

Close Calls with Nonsense Stephanie Burt, 2009-03-31 Essays and critical writings on contemporary poetry by Stephen Burt the finest critic of his generation Lucie Brock Broido Stephen Burt's Close Calls with Nonsense provokes readers into the elliptical worlds of Rae Armantrout Paul Muldoon C D Wright and other contemporary poets whose complexities make them challenging original and finally readable Burt's intelligence and enthusiasm introduce both tentative and longtime poetry readers to the rewards of reading new poetry As Burt writes in the title essay The poets I know don't want to be famous people half so much as they want their best poems read I want to help you find and read them I write here for people who want to read more new poetry but somehow never get around to it for people who enjoy Seamus Heaney or Elizabeth Bishop and want to know what next for people who enjoy John Ashbery or Anne Carson but aren't sure why and especially for people who read the half column poems in glossy magazines and ask Is that all there is A Poetics of Orthodoxy Benjamin P. Myers, 2020-12-17 What makes one poem better than another Do Christians have an obligation to strive for excellence in the arts While orthodox Christians are generally quick to affirm the existence of absolute truth and absolute goodness even many within the church fall prey to the postmodern delusion that beauty is in the eye of the beholder This book argues that Christian doctrine in fact gives us a solid basis on which to make aesthetic judgments about poetry in particular and about the arts more generally The faith once and for all delivered unto the saints is remarkable in its combined emphasis on embodied particularity and meaningful transcendence This unique combination makes it the perfect starting place for art that speaks to who we are as creatures made for eternity The Incredible Sestina Anthology Daniel Nester, 2014-08-22 More than 800 years after its invention in medieval France the sestina survives and thrives in English A fixed 39 line poetic form with of six stanzas of six lines each followed by a three line stanza known as an envoi tornada or tercet the sestina is the one form of poetry that poets from all camps agree can exist in a free verse world Formalists and avant gardes love sestinas for their ornate maddeningly complicated rules of word repetition For The Incredible Sestinas Anthology editor Daniel Nester has gathered more than 100 writers from John Ashbery to David Lehman to Matt Madden and Patricia Smith to show the sestina in its many incarnations prose and comic sestinas collaborative and double sestinas from masters of the form to brilliant one off attempts all to show its evolution and the possibilities of this dynamic form Literature and Race in the Democracy of Goods Christopher Chen, 2022-03-24 Examining three literary traditions post 1960 Asian American Asian Canadian and Black experimental poetry this book reframes contemporary scholarly accounts of post war North American comparative racial group formation demonstrating how such poetry investigates contemporary Black Asian relations and maps the complex co constitution of race and capitalism at different spatial scales Offering extended close readings of contemporary Black Asian American and Asian Canadian experimental poets such as Myung Mi Kim Erica Hunt Larissa Lai and Ed Roberson this book argues that these writers redefine race as a changing and politically contested form of constraint and possibility powerfully shaped by economic history and capitalist globalization This study retheorizes some basic terms of analysis of contemporary US poetry and poetics critical race and ethnic studies racial capitalism and contemporary theories of comparative and relational racialization Latinx Literature Unbound Ralph E. Rodriguez, 2018-05-08 Since the 1990s there has been unparalleled growth in the literary output from an ever more diverse group of Latinx writers Extant criticism however has yet to catch up with the diversity of writers we label Latinx and the range of themes about which they write Little sustained scholarly attention has been paid moreover to the very category under which we group this literature Latinx Literature Unbound thus begins with a fundamental question What does it mean to label a work of literature or an entire corpus of literature Latinx From this question others emerge What does Latinx allow or predispose us to see and what does it preclude us from seeing If the grouping which brings together a heterogeneous collection of people under a seemingly homogeneous label tells us something meaningful is there a poetics we can develop that would facilitate our analysis of this literature In answering these questions Latinx Literature Unbound frees Latinx literature from taken for granted critical assumptions about identity and theme It argues that there may be more salubrious taxonomies than Latinx for organizing and analyzing this literature Privileging the act of reading as a temporal meaning making event Ralph E Rodriguez argues that genre may be a more durable category for analyzing this literature and suggests new ways we might proceed with future studies of the writing we have come to identify as Latinx The Essay At the Limits Mario Aquilina, 2021-04-08 In the hands of such writers as Rebecca Solnit Claudia Rankine David Shields Zadie Smith and many others the essay has re emerged as a powerful literary form for tackling a fractious 21st century culture The Essay at the Limits brings together leading scholars to explore the theory the poetics and the future of the form The book links the formal innovations and new voices that have emerged in the 21st century essay to the history and theory of the essay In so doing it surveys the essay from its origins to its relation to contemporary cultural forms from the novel to poetry film to music and from political articles to intimate lyrical expressions The book examines work by writers such as Theodor W Adorno Kwame Anthony Appiah Francis Bacon James Baldwin Roland Barthes Maurice Blanchot Ta Nehisi Coates Annie Dillard Brian Dillon Jean Genet William Hazlitt Samuel Johnson Karl Ove Knaussgaard Ben Lerner Audre Lorde Oscar Wilde Michel de Montaigne Zadie Smith Rebecca Solnit Wallace Stevens Eliot Weinberger and Virginia Woolf Questions of Poetics Barrett Watten, 2016-07-01 Questions of Poetics is Barrett Watten s major reassessment of the political history social formation and literary genealogy of Language writing A key participant in the emergent bicoastal poetic avant garde as poet editor and publisher Watten has developed over three decades of writing in poetics a sustained account of its theory and practice The present volume represents the core of Watten s critical writing and public lecturing since the millennium taking up the historical origins and continuity of Language writing from its beginnings to the present Each chapter is a theoretical inquiry into an aspect of poetics in an expanded sense from the relation of experimental poetry to cultural logics of liberation and political economy to questions of community and the politics of the avant garde to the cultural contexts where it is produced and intervenes Each serves as a kind of thought experiment that theorizes and assesses the consequences of Language writing in expanded fields of meaning that include history political theory art history and narrative theory While all are grounded in a series of baseline questions of poetics they also polemically address the currently turbulent debates on the politics of the avant garde especially Language writing among emerging communities of poets In manifold ways Watten masterfully demonstrates the aesthetic and political aims of Language writing its influence on emerging literary schools and its present aesthetic critical and political horizons Questions of Poetics will be a major point of reference in continuing debates on poetry and literary history a critical reexamination for already familiar readers and a clearly presented introduction for new ones The Critical Pulse Jeffrey J. Williams, Heather Steffen, 2012-09-18 This unprecedented anthology asks thirty six leading literary and cultural critics to elaborate on the nature of their profession With the humanities feeling the pinch of financial and political pressures and its disciplines resting on increasingly uncertain conceptual ground there couldn't be a better time for critics to reassert their widespread relevance and purpose These credos boldly defend the function of criticism in contemporary society and showcase its vitality in the era after theory Essays address literature and politics with some focusing on the sorry state of higher education and others concentrating on teaching and the fate of the humanities All reflect the critics personal particular experiences Deeply personal and engaging these stories move amuse and inspire ultimately encouraging the reader to develop his or her own critical credo with which to approach the world Reflecting on the past looking forward to the future and committed to the power of productive critical thought this volume proves the value of criticism for today's skeptical audiences Contributors Andrew Ross Amitava Kumar Lisa Lowe Vincent B Leitch Craig Womack Jeffrey J Williams Marc Bousquet Katie Hogan Michelle A Mass John Conley Heather Steffen Paul Lauter Cary Nelson David B Downing Barbara Foley Michael B rub Victor Cohen Gerald Graff William Germano Ann Pellegrini Bruce Robbins Kenneth Warren Diana Fuss Lauren Berlant Toril Moi Morris Dickstein Rita Felski David R Shumway Mark Bauerlein Devoney Looser Stephen Burt Mark Greif Kathleen Fitzpatrick Mark McGurl Frances Negr n Muntaner Judith Jack Halberstam Living in History Luke Roberts, 2024-05-31 Challenging received ideas about the British Poetry Revival Luke Roberts presents a new account of experimental poetry and literary activism Drawing on a wide range of contexts and traditions Living in History begins by examining the legacies of empire and exile in the work of Kamau Brathwaite J H Prynne and poets associated with the Communist Party and the African National Congress It then focuses on the work of Linton Kwesi Johnson Denise Riley Anna Mendelssohn and others in the development of liberation struggles around gender race and sexuality across the 1970s Tracking the ambivalence between poetic ambition and political commitment and how one sometimes interferes with the other Luke Roberts troubles the exclusions of British Poetry as a category and tests the claims made on behalf avant garde and experimental poetics against the historical record Bringing together both major and neglected authorships and offering extended close readings fresh archival research and new contextual evidence Living in History is an ambitious and exciting intervention in the field Hearing Things Angela Leighton, 2018-05-07 Drawing on the writings of critics and philosophers and on the comments of poets and novelists who have pointed to the role of the ear in writing and reading Angela Leighton offers a reconsideration of literature as an exercise in hearing things and renews a call for criticism that is creatively attentive to sound's work in every literary text The Routledge Companion to Queer Literary Studies Melissa E.

Sanchez, 2025-02-28 Bringing together twenty seven established and emerging scholars The Routledge Companion to Queer Literary Studies discusses the historical development current state future directions and political stakes of queer literary studies as a field of research and pedagogy This innovative collection offers new frameworks for studying and teaching literature art film music theory and philosophy from the medieval period to the twenty first century The contributors consider the structural implication of gender and sexuality with race class gender ability colonialism capital empire ability and relationships between human and non human life and matter The Routledge Companion to Queer Literary Studies is a vital resource for scholars students and teachers working across a range of historical periods critical methods and objects of study It offers a multitude of approaches to queer literary studies revealing the field to be as vital and as contested as ever

Advice from the Lights Stephanie Burt, 2017-10-03 The brightest and most inviting of Burt's collections for readers of any all and no genders Boston Review Advice from the Lights is a brilliant and candid exploration of gender and identity and a series of looks at a formative past It's part nostalgia part confusion and part an ongoing wondering How do any of us achieve adulthood And why would we want to if we had the choice This collection is woven from and interrupted by extraordinary sequences including Stephanie's poems about Stephen's female self poems on particular years of the poet's early life each with its own memories desires insecurities and pop songs and versions of poems by the Greek poet Callimachus whose present day incarnation worries who doesn't about mortality the favor of the gods and the career of Taylor Swift The collection also includes poems on politics location and parenthood Taken all together this is Stephen Burt's most personal and most accomplished collection an essential work that asks who we are how we become ourselves and why we make art

A Companion to American Literature and Culture Paul Lauter, 2020-09-21 This expansive Companion offers a set of fresh perspectives on the wealth of texts produced in and around what is now the United States Highlights the diverse voices that constitute American literature embracing oral traditions slave narratives regional writing literature of the environment and more Demonstrates that American literature was multicultural before Europeans arrived on the continent and even more so thereafter Offers three distinct paradigms for thinking about American literature focusing on genealogies of American literary study writers and issues and contemporary theories and practices Enables students and researchers to generate richer more varied and more comprehensive readings of American literature Eleven More American Women Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine, Lisa Sewell, 2012-01-01 A fine and selective anthology that's also a critical introduction to some of the most provocative and some of the most original poetry out there Stephanie Burt author of Don't Read Poetry A Book About How to Read Poems The American Poets in the 21st Century series continues with another anthology focused on female poets Like the earlier books this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work This unique organization makes these books invaluable teaching tools Broadening the lens through which we look at contemporary poetry this new volume extends its geographical net by including Caribbean and Canadian poets Representing three generations of women writers among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Karla Kelsey on Mary Jo Bang's modes of artifice Christine Hume on Carla Harryman's kinds of listening Dawn Lundy Martin on M. NourbeSe Phillip for whom English is a foreign anguish and Sina Queyras on Lisa Robertson's confoundingly beautiful surfaces In addition a companion website presents audio of each poet's work

Postmodern/Postwar and After Jason Gladstone, Andrew Hoberek, Daniel Worden, 2016-07-01 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty-first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the postmodern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty-first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies that is currently underway

Affect and American Literature in the Age of Neoliberalism Rachel Greenwald Smith, 2015-04-20 Rachel Greenwald Smith's Affect and American Literature in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the relationship between American literature and politics in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries Smith contends that the representation of emotions in contemporary fiction emphasizes the personal lives of characters at a time when there is an unprecedented and often damaging focus on the individual in American life Through readings of works by Paul Auster Karen Tei Yamashita Ben Marcus Lydia Millet and others who stage experiments in the relationship between feeling and form Smith argues for the centrality of a counter tradition in contemporary literature concerned with impersonal feelings feelings that challenge the neoliberal notion that emotions are the property of the self

Word of Mouth Chad Bennett, 2018-05-15 Word of Mouth brings together the insights of queer and lyric theory to tell the story of how gossip modeled forms of sociality and voice that poets experimented with over the course of the twentieth century Through a set of case studies of culturally diverse American poets Gertrude Stein Langston Hughes Frank O Hara James Merrill and others who absorbed and contended with the loose talk that swirled about them and their work the book argues that gossip became a vehicle for the performance of alternative sexualities and concomitant meditations on alternative modes of poetic practice At the heart of this argument is a queer revaluation of modern lyric poetry Attending to gossip s key role in modern and contemporary poetry enables a recognition of the unpredictable ways that conventional understandings of the modern lyric poem as for example an utterance smudging the lines between private and public knowing and unknowing intimacy and strangeness have been shaped by and afforded a uniquely suitable space for the expression of queer sensibilities More than simply mapping a curious poetic mode then Word of Mouth contributes a crucial and largely neglected queer perspective to current lyric studies and its renewed scholarly debate over the practices and forms of lyric poetry The book presents new and instructive queer contexts for understanding the influential formal achievements of Stein Hughes O Hara and Merrill and uncovers the unexpected ways that the history of the modern lyric intertwines with histories of sexuality

Old-Fashioned Modernism Andy Oler, 2019-06-12 The Midwest holds two conflicting positions in the American cultural imagination both of which rob the region of its distinctiveness Often it is seen as the heartland a pastoral ideal standing in for all of American culture Alternatively the Midwest can represent flyover country part of an expansive undifferentiated mass between the coasts In Old Fashioned Modernism Rural Masculinity and Midwestern Literature Andy Oler challenges both views by pairing fiction and poetry from the region with cultural and material texts that illustrate the processes by which regional modernism both opposes and absorbs prevailing models of twentieth century manhood Although it acknowledges a tradition of Midwestern urban literature Old Fashioned Modernism focuses on representations of life on farms and in small towns that generate specific forms of rural modernity Oler considers a series of male protagonists who both fulfill and resist conventional American narratives of economic advancement spatial experience and gender roles The writers he studies portray the onset of socioeconomic and mechanical modernity by merging realist and naturalist narratives with upwellings of modernist form and style His analysis charts a trajectory in which Midwestern literature depicts experiences that appear dependent on nostalgic pastoralism but actually foreground the ongoing fragmentation and emerging anxieties of the countryside In detailed readings of novels by Sherwood Anderson William Cunningham Langston Hughes Wright Morris and Dawn Powell as well as the poetry of Lorine Niedecker Oler highlights images of men from the rural Midwest who face the tensions between agricultural production and mass industrialization These works of literature which Oler examines alongside pieces of material culture like advertisements for farm implements and record labels feature communities that support self made as well as corporate identities As portraits of the Midwest that resist the totalizing trajectory of industrialization these texts generate spaces that meld rural and urban economics land use and affective experiences Old Fashioned Modernism reveals how Midwestern regionalism negotiates the anxieties and dominant narratives of early and midcentury rural masculinities as regional literature and culture alter the forms and spaces of literary modernism
