

The Ear Muffs

Read the realistic fiction.

Then follow the directions in the Text Marking box.

The mall parking lot was so congested that Carolyn had to park far from the entrance. She didn't object; it was a beautiful day, and she enjoyed walking. But when she got out of her car, some old earmuffs changed her entire day.

The earmuffs were lying on the ground, near a discarded towel, not two feet away. They seemed to jiggle, though it was a calm day. As Carolyn approached for a closer look, the earmuffs moved. Then they rolled over and squeaked the tiniest squeak.

Of course, these weren't earmuffs—they were two tiny kittens! As Carolyn bent to inspect them, the towel moved and two more teeny kittens wiggled out. Each was about the size of an orange. "Oh, you sweet babies!" she cooed. "Good thing I'm a curious person!"

As an animal lover, Carolyn sprang into action. She carefully placed the kittens on the back seat of her car, atop her cloth shopping bag, and drove straight home. There, she put the kittens in a clean basket and fed them sugar water with an eyedropper.

"Look at these tiny orphans, Jake," she told her son. "Please, go online to learn about caring for newborn kittens while I call the vet."
