Closely Watched Trains A Film Modern Film Scripts:

Closely Watched Trains Bohumil Hrabal, 1995 Hrabal's postwar classic about a young man's coming of age in German occupied Czechoslovakia is among his most beloved and accessible works Closely Watched Trains is the subtle and poetic portrait of Milos Hirma a timid young railroad apprentice who insulates himself with fantasy against a reality filled with cruelty and grief Day after day as he watches trains fly by he torments himself with the suspicion that he himself is being watched and with fears of impotency Hirma finally affirms his manhood and with a sense of peace and purpose he has never known before heroically confronts a trainload of Nazis

Closely Watched Trains Bohumil Hrabal, 1965 Jiří Menzel and the History of the Closely Watched Trains Josef Škvorecký, 1982 A work on contemporary Czechoslovak cinematography focusing on the celebrated director Jiri Menzel's classic film Closely Watched Train in the context of communist Czechoslovak mores and restrictions

Closely Watched Films (Routledge Revivals) Antonín J. Liehm, 2016-04-06 First published in 1974 this book collects interviews with leading Czechslovak filmmakers conducted mostly between 1967 and 1969 This was a period of immense upheaval beginning with the attack of the Czechoslovak establishment on the Union of Writers in 1967 continuing through the liberalisation of the Prague Spring in January 1968 and ended with the Soviet invasion in August and subsequent Normalization process in April 1969 It records the testimony of several generations of filmmakers and their attempts to answer the questions about the purpose and meaning of film before and during this period This book will be of interest to students of film and cultural history

Modern Czech Literature: Writing in Times of Political Trauma Andrew M. Drozd, 2025-05-20 Modern Czech culture has experienced a series of political traumas starting in the 1930s Despite the difficult shifting conditions Czech writers have not only managed to contend with the situation but have produced many fine literary efforts This volume consists of seven articles by an international team of authors who are specialists in Czech literature The first four chapters treat very well known writers There is one chapter on Karel apek and his play The White Plague There are three chapters on Milan Kundera the internationally best known Czech writer with one of these chapters covering both Kundera and Bohumil Hrabal The last three chapters deal with more recent and or lesser known writers One chapter treats the Brothers Topol and the music underground one chapter treats Czech literary responses to the period of the Normalization and the final chapter treats Eda Kriseov This volume presents new perspectives on Czech literature and will be of interest to specialists in Czech literature and history Central European literature and history Nazism and Communism For example although much has been written about Kundera the three articles provide further treatments of three different aspects of his work his ties to Russian literature his misogyny and the philosophical content of his novels Specialists interested in the period of the Normalization and after will find the last three chapters particularly useful The chapters are suitable for classroom use in courses in both Czech literature and Czech or Central European history All material from Czech language sources presented in the chapters is given in English translation Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1972 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955
