Taking a Closer Look
Structuring a Paragraph

An article like this is often written to persuade you to do something. It is often written to make you think about something in a particular way. It is often written to make you feel a particular way about something.

Here are some paragraphs from an article about the environment. Each paragraph has a topic sentence, which is the first sentence. The rest of the paragraph develops the topic sentence.

- In paragraph 1, the topic sentence is 'The environment is being destroyed by human activities'. The rest of the paragraph explains how this is happening.

- In paragraph 2, the topic sentence is 'The environment is being destroyed by human activities'. The rest of the paragraph explains how this is happening.

- In paragraph 3, the topic sentence is 'The environment is being destroyed by human activities'. The rest of the paragraph explains how this is happening.

- Linking words and phrases are used to link the paragraphs together. For example, 'In addition' is used to link paragraph 2 to paragraph 3.

Since the book was first published, it has been translated into many languages. It is now available in Chinese, Hindi, and Urdu. The book is a valuable resource for teachers and students alike.
