and make sense of modern video game worlds The move to 3D graphics represents a dramatic artistic and technical development in the history of video games that suggests an overall transformation of games as media The experience of space has become a key element of how we understand games and how we play them In Video Game Spaces Michael Nitsche investigates what this shift means for video game design and analysis Navigable 3D spaces allow us to crawl jump fly or even teleport through fictional worlds that come to life in our imagination We encounter these spaces through a combination of perception and interaction Drawing on concepts from literary studies architecture and cinema Nitsche argues that game spaces can evoke narratives because the player is interpreting them in order to engage with them Consequently Nitsche approaches game spaces not as pure visual spectacles but as meaningful virtual locations His argument investigates what structures are at work in these locations proceeds to an in depth analysis of the audiovisual presentation of gameworlds and ultimately explores how we use and comprehend their functionality Nitsche introduces five analytical layers rule based space mediated space fictional space play space and social space and uses them in the analyses of games that range from early classics to recent titles He revisits current topics in game research including narrative rules and play from this new perspective Video Game Spaces provides a range of necessary arguments and tools for media scholars designers and game researchers with an interest in 3D game worlds and the new challenges they pose

Bridging the Gap Between AI, Cognitive Science, and Narratology With Narrative Generation Ogata, Takashi, Ono, Jumpei, 2020-09-25 The use of cognitive science in creating stories languages visuals and characters is known as narrative generation and it has become a trending area of study Applying artificial intelligence AI techniques to story development has caught the attention of professionals and researchers however few studies have inherited techniques used in previous literary methods and related research in social sciences Implementing previous narratology theories to current narrative generation systems is a research area that remains unexplored Bridging the Gap Between AI Cognitive Science and Narratology With Narrative Generation is a collection of innovative research on the analysis of current practices in narrative generation systems by combining previous theories in narratology and literature with current methods of AI The book bridges the gap between AI cognitive science and narratology with narrative generation in a broad sense including other content generation such as a novels poems movies computer games and advertisements The book emphasizes that an important method for bridging the gap is based on designing and implementing computer programs using knowledge and methods of narratology and literary theories In order to present an organic systematic and integrated combination of both the fields to develop a new research area namely post narratology this book has an important place in the creation of a new research area and has an impact on both narrative generation studies including AI and cognitive science and narrative studies including narratology and literary theories It is ideally designed for academicians researchers and students as well as enterprise practitioners engineers and creators of diverse content generation fields such as advertising production computer game creation comic and manga writing and movie production The Films of Bong Joon Ho Nam Lee, 2020-09-29 Bong Joon Ho won the Oscar for Best Director for Parasite 2019 which also won Best Picture the first foreign film to do so and two other Academy Awards Parasite was the first Korean film to win the Palme d'Or at Cannes These achievements mark a new career peak for the director who first achieved wide international acclaim with 2006's monster movie The Host and whose forays into English language film with Snowpiercer 2013 and Okja 2017 brought him further recognition As this timely book reveals even as Bong Joon Ho has emerged as an internationally known director his films still engage with distinctly Korean social and political contexts that may elude many Western viewers The Films of Bong Joon Ho demonstrates how he hybridizes Hollywood conventions with local realities in order to create a cinema that foregrounds the absurd cultural anomie Koreans have experienced in tandem with their rapid economic development Film critic and scholar Nam Lee explores how Bong subverts the structures of the genres he works within from the crime thriller to the sci-fi film in order to be truthful to Korean realities that often deny the reassurances of the happy Hollywood ending With detailed readings of Bong's films from Barking Dogs Never Bite 2000 through Parasite 2019 the book will give readers a new appreciation of this world class cinematic talent Martin

Scorsese Vincent LoBrutto, 2007-11-30 Martin Scorsese's current position in the international film community is unrivaled and his name has become synonymous with the highest standards of filmmaking excellence He is widely considered America's best living film director and his Taxi Driver and Raging Bull appear frequently on worldwide surveys of the best films of all time Here in the first biographical account of this artist's life Vincent LoBrutto traces Scorsese's Italian American heritage his strict Catholic upbringing the continuing role of religion in his life and art his obsessive love of cinema history and the powerful impact that the streets of New York City had on his personal life and his professional career Meanwhile the filmmaker's humble soft-spoken public persona tells only part of the story and LoBrutto will delve into the other side of a complex and often tortured personality Scorsese's intense passion his private relationships his stormy marriages and his battles with drugs and depression are all chronicled here and in many cases for the first time In addition the book includes an interview with the director as well as filmographies cataloging his work as a director producer actor and presenter As his Best Director award at the 2007 Oscars clearly demonstrated Scorsese has become something like Hollywood royalty in recent years finally enjoying the insider status and favor that eluded him for most of his career But these recent developments aside Scorsese is also notable as a distinctly American type of artist one whose work created in a medium largely controlled by commercialism and marketing has always been unmistakably his own and who thus remains a touchstone of artistic integrity in American cinema In Martin Scorsese A Biography readers can examine not only the work of one of the form's genuine artists but also the forces that have propelled the man behind it Blade Runner Amy Coplan, David Davies, 2015-05-08 Ridley Scott's Blade Runner is widely regarded as a masterpiece of modern cinema and is regularly ranked as one of the great films of all time Set in a dystopian future where the line between human beings and replicants is blurred the film raises a host of philosophical questions about what it is to be human the possibility of moral agency and freedom in created life forms and the capacity of cinema to make a genuine contribution to our engagement with these kinds of questions This volume of specially commissioned chapters systematically explores and addresses these issues from a philosophical point of view Beginning with a helpful introduction the seven chapters examine the following questions How is the theme of death explored in Blade Runner and with what implications for our understanding of the human condition What can we learn about the relationship between emotion and reason from the depiction of the replicants in Blade Runner How are memory empathy and moral agency related in Blade Runner How does the style and mood of Blade Runner bear upon its thematic and philosophical significance Is Blade Runner a meditation on the nature of film itself Including a brief biography of the director and a detailed list of references to other writings on the film Blade Runner is essential reading for students indeed anyone interested in philosophy and film studies Contributors Colin Allen Peter Atterton Amy Coplan David Davies Berys Gaut Stephen Mulhall C D C Reeve Logic and structure of the computer game Stephan Günzel, Michael Liebe, Dieter Mersch, 2010 The fourth volume of the DIGAREC Series holds the proceedings to the conference Logic and Structure of the Computer Game held at the House of Brandenburg Prussian History in Potsdam on November 6 and 7 2009 The conference was the first to explicitly address the medial logic and structure of the computer game The contributions focus on the specific potential for mediation and on the unique form of mediation inherent in digital games This includes existent yet scattered approaches to develop a unique curriculum of game studies In line with the concept of mediality the notions of aesthetics interactivity software architecture interface design iconicity spatiality and rules are of special interest Presentations were given by invited German scholars and were commented on by international respondents in a dialogical structure
