legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc

Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber,Alice Bell,2021-05-10 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies

Orbis Scott Mackay,2019-01-25 Award winning author Scott Mackay delivers an intriguing alternate history of conquest rebellion and the destiny of humanity Booklist Two thousand years ago as the Roman Empire beat back the rise of Christianity the saviors of mankind arrived And they weren t Jesus of Nazareth or his Disciples They were the Benefactors They appeared as heavenly beings on a mission of hope convincing the people of Earth to accept their kindly dominion by hijacking the insurgent Christian Movement and turning it into an instrument of control When the mighty Roman Empire refused to bow down it was destroyed Ever since the Benefactors have guided and led and humankind has followed and prospered but at a price In an alternate 1947 the truth behind the Benefactors origins and motives are about to be discovered And unless three ordinary people can find the courage to fight against everything they ve been taught to believe and obey the end of humanity may already be inevitable With this riveting drama Scott Mackay once again proves himself a writer of rare talent and captivating imagination in the realm of science fiction Locus

Phytosphere Scott Mackay,2019-01-25 All life on Earth is held hostage by a desperate and ruthless alien race in this hard hitting apocalyptic thriller from award winning author Scott Mackay Booklist The Tarsalans came to Earth hoping to settle on the planet alongside a sympathetic human race But after years of delicate negotiations their patience reaches the breaking point and they decide to make their case for immigration terrifyingly clear by enveloping the planet in a green sphere which blocks out all sunlight Without energy from the sun the Earth and every living thing on it is doomed Soon civilization breaks down as the instinct for individual survival shreds humanity s common bonds It appears mankind may destroy itself even before the Phytosphere does The only hope against catastrophe lies in the troubled connection between two brothers one stranded at a lunar base on the moon the other trapped on the dying Earth Deftly juggling hard sci fi and a bleak tale of post apocalyptic survival Scott Mackay once again offers an electrifying sci fi tale of high tech intrigue and old fashioned suspense Publishers Weekly

The Meek Scott Mackay,2018-06-29 The provocative science fiction novel from an award winning author about the future of humankind and the future of non human kind New York Times Book Review The asteroid Ceres was a place where children born in space could grow in a more Earth like atmosphere Then a group of genetically enhanced humans began a violent insurrection All unaltered persons were evacuated and the entire facility destroyed Decades later a corps of engineers and technicians arrives on the seemingly dead asteroid with the job of rebuilding on the site But the unwitting crew soon realizes that Ceres is not devoid of life Now they are about to confront the results of humanity s scientific tampering and the consequences could lead to the end of them all In this John W Campbell Memorial Award finalist hailed as absolutely classic Scott Mackay draws readers into a universe in which the ambitions of mankind have given birth to a new lifeform that shares one powerful instinct with its creators Survival Mackay avoids the grandiosity that is an occupational hazard of science fiction writers who dabble in cosmic themes Provocative The New York Times Book Review A fast paced action adventure The Washington Post

Absolutely classic stunning ingenuity The Globe and Mail Toronto Omega Sol Scott Mackay,2019-01-25 A hard hitting apocalyptic thriller from award winning author Scott Mackay in which mankind discovers that it is not alone in the universe and that it is far from the highest form of life Booklist At a lunar research station on Earth's moon scientists are stunned to witness the sudden appearance of a massive silver sphere that leaves destruction in its wake Seemingly indifferent to the human beings it has devastated with its arrival the sphere takes up residence in a crater From there it unleashes dozens of strange tower like structures that surround the moon Little can be uncovered about the object except that it has travelled millions of light years and is in communication with a distant galaxy But its ominous purpose soon becomes clear when it manipulates the sun into an accelerated life cycle hurtling it toward its Earth destroying red dwarf end stage Only scientist Dr Cameron Conrad divines the intelligent design operating behind this solar manipulation He knows that to those controlling the sphere humans seem like little more than insects He is the only one who at last understands their truly alien nature enough to tell them through the startling hyper dimensionality in which they exist that their science experiment with the sun may annihilate all humankind Mackay's clearly working with some ideas and concepts that are way outside the norm and it makes for a gripping story His aliens are well properly alien existing on levels far beyond our normal range of understanding SF SITE
