Final Para Rachel Earl Dying:

Dealing with Death Kathlyn Gay, 2017-10-06 Death is a sensitive subject for most people. Whether due to fear or superstition, many individuals avoid the topic of mortality. For teens, the subject is taboo as well. Most young adults believe that death won't affect them, so they'd rather not talk about it. But death is a natural course of life, and everyone, including teens, will encounter it at some time in their lives, some sooner than later and some unexpectedly. In Dealing with Death: The Ultimate Teen Guide, Kathlyn Gay addresses this difficult subject, providing matter-of-fact discussions on a number of issues that help teens better understand the nature of mortality. This book looks at the personal, legal, and moral questions related to death, including: How do you deal with the death of a loved one? What's it like to live with a terminal illness? What happens after you die? Featuring real stories and quotes from teens about their experiences, this book shows young adults a variety of views on dying and grieving. This book will help readers deal with death, not only the reality that death is inevitable for all of us, but also the many ways people face death and bereavement. Dealing with Death serves as a valuable resource for all teens, whether they are dealing with tragedy or just looking for more information on a tough subject.

The Woman Who Decided to Die Ronald Munson, 2009-03-27 Advances in medical technology force us to struggle with new and often gut-wrenching decisions. How do we know when someone is dead and not just in a coma? Should a convicted felon qualify for a new heart? In The Woman Who Decided to Die, novelist and medical ethicist Ronald Munson takes readers to the very edges of medicine, where treatments fail and where people must cope with helplessness, mortality, and doubt. Using personal narratives that place us right next to doctors, patients, and care givers as they make decisions, Munson explores ten riveting case-based stories told with a writer's eye for illuminating detail. These include a young woman with terminal leukemia more worried about her family than herself; a stepfather asked to donate a liver segment to his stepson, a student who believes she is being controlled by invisible Agents; and a psychiatrist patient who prizes his autonomy until the end. Raising fundamental questions about human relationships, this is an essential book about the very nature of life and death.

Focus On: 100 Most Popular 2010s Comedy-drama Films Wikipedia contributors, Cancer and Young Adult Literature Stephen M. Zimmerly, 2024-12-20 This collection specifically and solely focuses on Young Adult literature texts where cancer plays a prominent role, including widely read texts like John Green's The Fault in Our Stars, Nicholas Sparks' A Walk to Remember, and Jesse Andrews' Me and Earl and the Dying Girl. The chapters present a variety of arguments, each developing a novel investigation into how these stories explore the effects cancer has on a person, a family, or on a relationship. As scientific studies continue to develop new understandings of the biology behind cancer and new sociological studies continue to uncover how a cancer diagnosis impacts the fabric of our culture, these collected essays continue to investigate how authors have woven cancer into the stories we write for young people. A number of distinct avenues are taken here, arguing for new approaches in crafting narrative, deeper appreciation for family support networks or their absence, and what literary criticism
