J. Polak, 1997-04-01 A model reflecting the monetary approach to the balance of payments was developed in the International Monetary Fund IMF in the 1950s Its purpose was to integrate monetary income and balance of payments analysis and it became the basis of the conditionality applied to IMF credits Extremely simple with primary focus on the balance of payments effects of credit creation by the banking system the model has retained its usefulness for policy purposes over time as it was adapted to changes in member countries priorities and in the international monetary system in particular the disappearance of the par value system The IMF Approach to Economic Stabilization Mr. Michael Mussa, Mr. Miguel A. Savastano, 1999-07-01 This paper explains the IMF approach to economic stabilization It argues that a Fund supported program is a process comprising six broadly defined phases that evolves along a multiplicity of potential pathways The paper discusses the three pronged approach to stabilization at the core of all IMF supported programs stresses the iterative character of financial programming and explains the rationale for setting quantitative performance criteria for fiscal and monetary policy in IMF supported arrangements A main theme is that IMF supported programs contain a great deal of flexibility to respond both to differences in circumstances and to changes in conditions in individual cases Publications Catalog International Monetary Fund,2004
