Representations of Youth Christine Griffin, 2013-04-25 Representations of Youth examines the various constructions of youth and adolescence in recent British and North American research Mainstream and radical approaches have presented a series of crises about young people in relation to among other things unemployment teenage pregnancy and delinquency This book considers research in psychology sociology education criminology and cultural studies in order to assess these accounts The author offers a critical review of a wide range of findings about young people in areas as diverse as education and training leisure family life and sexuality She shows that whilst youth research texts do not reflect young people's experiences in any straightforward manner they do indicate the various complex and contradictory ways in which youth adolescence and specific groups of young people are represented in contemporary western societies In so arguing she presents new terms for thinking about the position of young people today This is an important new text accessibly written for students of sociology social psychology and contemporary culture in both Britain and the USA It will also be of great interest to social science researchers in a range of other disciplines

Visual Culture John A. Walker, Sarah Chaplin, 1997-12-15 This book is about the expanding realm of visual culture in architecture art design advertising photography film television video theatre performance computer imagery and virtual reality It is also about Visual Culture Studies a relatively new academic discipline or rather range of disciplines that scholars employ to analyse visual artefacts Unlike many other texts on the same subject it foregrounds the visual and is systematic and accessible Visual culture provides an overview of the subject that pays heed to the achievements of both traditional and new theory whilst directing the reader to a large body of literature via references and an extensive bibliography Walker and Chaplin discuss the concepts of the visual and of culture as well as the field and origins of Visual Culture Studies coping with theory models of production and consumption institutions pleasure the canon and concepts of value visual literacy and poetics modes of analysis culture and commerce and new technologies This book is designed for those studying the history and theory of fine arts design and the mass media Promotional Cultures Aeron Davis,2013-07-10 The Rise and Spread of Advertising Public Relations Marketing and Branding Brazilian Popular Music Lorraine Leu,2017-07-05 Brazilian Popular Music or M sica Popular Brasileira MPB developed in the mid 1960s as a response to the re thinking of Brazilian national identity following the establishment of the post 1964 military regime A leading figure in MPB at this time was Caetano Veloso and it is his music and its reception that form the focus of this book A leader of the Tropicalist movement Veloso sought to initiate a critical debate on Brazilian Popular Music and the political and ideological foundations which underpinned its aesthetic Lorraine Leu examines Veloso s musical and vocal styles revealing the ways in which they play with traditional expectations between the performer and listener and argues that they represent an important response to the severe censorship and repression of the military regime Understanding Sport John Horne,Alan Tomlinson,Garry Whannel,2005-10-10 Bringing a cultural and social dimension to the study of sport this introductory guide will help students understand the context of sport and the place it has in the lives of individuals as well as in modern British society as a whole Theoretically rigorous yet accessible Understanding Sport includes up to date coverage of key socio cultural issues suggested further reading to expand students understanding of the topics introduced end of chapter essay topics and questions to help students consolidate their knowledge extensive reference lists and a thematic index to direct students and lecturers toward further research materials The Public Sphere Alan McKee,2005-02-21 What is happening to public debate in Western cultures Is our public sphere disintegrating In the face of popular tabloid newspapers new forms of reality television and an increasing lack of respect for traditional authorities many critics are concerned that our society no longer has a rational informed and unified space where everyone can communicate about the issues that affect us all In this book Alan McKee answers these questions by providing an introduction to the concept of the public sphere the history of the term and the philosophical arguments about its function By drawing on many examples from contemporary mediated culture McKee looks at how we communicate with each other in public and how we decide whether changing forms of communication are a good thing for the public sphere The Cumulative Book Index ,1991 A world list of books in the English language Home and Community Sandra Costa Santos,Nadia Bertolino,Stephen Hicks,Camilla Lewis,Vanessa May,2018-04-19 Examining the relationships between architecture home and community in the Claremont Court housing scheme in Edinburgh Home and Community provides a novel perspective on the enabling potential of architecture that encompasses physical spatial relational and temporal phenomena Based on the AHRC funded project Place and Belonging the chapters draw on innovative spatial layouts amid Scottish policymakers concerns of social change in the 1960s to develop theoretical understandings between architecture home and community By approaching the discourse on home and by positioning the home at the confluence of a network of sociocultural identities bound by spatial awareness and design the writers draw on sociological interpretations of cultural negotiation as well as theoretical underpinnings in architectural design In so doing they suggest a reinterpretation of the facilitating role of architecture as sensitive to physical and socio cultural reconstruction Drawn from interviews with residents architectural surveys contextual mapping and other visual methods Home and Community explores home as a construct that is enmeshed with the architectural affordances that the housing scheme represents that is useful to both architecture and sociology students as well as practitioners and urban planners Media Studies Sue

Thornham, Caroline Bassett, Paul Marris, 2009 Why are some people more capable than others What are the reasons for someone gaining unusual abilities or special expertise or being especially creative What has to happen in order for a young person to become a child prodigy or genius How can we help today s children to reach high levels of ability and to shine in the arts or the sciences in sports or games or to excel in other fields of expertise The Psychology of High Abilities explains how when and why people acquire such special expertise and illuminates ways to make it possible for larger numbers of young people to extend their capabilities Examining how and why people differ in their capabilities it investigates the actual causes underlying impressive accomplishments and achievements The volume reveals the kinds of influences that contribute to high abilities and provides practical insights into the most effective ways for extending the abilities of young people and creating higher levels of expertise Media Studies Paul Marris, Sue Thornham, 2000-03 Media Studies A Reader provides a thorough introduction to the full range of theoretical perspectives on the mass media from the past thirty years Ranging from the arguments between the American mass communication tradition and the Europe centered Frankfurt School of the 1940s to the analyses of communication technologies by Marshall McLuhan and Raymond Williams in the 1960s Media Studies A Reader maps the mass media field its varied and often conflicting histories and its current debates Sixty five articles provide comprehensive coverage of all the main theorists and approaches The first half Studying the Media explores in detail three core elements of media studies production and regulation of mass media media texts and reception and consumption of media The second half brings together concrete examples of how theoretical debates can be realized in a series of case studies on soap operas the news and advertising A general introduction and introductions to each section summarize and contextualize the debates Contributors include Theodor W Adorno Marshal McLuhan Raymond Williams Stuart Hall Annette Kuhn Jürgen Habermas John Fiske Richard Dyer Niki Strange Danae Clark Angela McRobbie Bill Nichols Lynne Joyrich David Morley Ien Ang Janice Radway Henry Jenkins Tania Modleski Anne McClintock Sadie Plant Queer Youth and Media Cultures Christopher Pullen, 2014-10-05 This collection explores the representation and performance of queer youth in media
