Weld-Blundell, 1927 Contemplative Prayer B. Weld-blundel, Brother Hermenegild, 2013-10 IT would almost seem an impertinence to commend in these pages Sancta Sophia the famous compendium of Father Baker s treatises on prayer and an interior life The writings of this venerable servant of God have been in the hands of the public for nearly three hundred years and have proved an invaluable aid to those who would seriously aspire to the practice of contemplation The fruits of his labour are to be seen in the lives of the many souls his teaching has led through the difficult paths by which the heights of contemplation are reached But though Sancta Sophia is useful and of interest to all aspiring to an interior life it may be said to make its strongest appeal to the members of the English Benedictine Congregation and to all who draw from the fountain of its spirit For not only is Sancta Sophia the spiritual product of one of its most saintly sons but it would seem to express the very spirit of the Congregation As the constitutions drawn up in 1617 and repeatedly confirmed and amplified in succeeding chapters built up and established the outward form and observance of the Congregation so the writings of Father Baker appear to have largely influenced and fully expressed its spirit For no otherwise can be understood the thorough examination to which his writings were subjected and the subsequent official and almost solemn ratification they obtained from successive chapters in which were gathered the leading spirits and restorers of the Congregation This view is amply borne out by the history of the examination and approbation by Father Leander Jones and Father Rudesind Barlow of the original treatises and the history of the compilation of Sancta Sophia No one among the restorers of the English Congregation exercised more influence than Father Leander Jones or as he was usually called Father Leander of St Martin and Father Rudesind Barlow They were professed in Spain pursued their studies at Salamanca and obtained the degree of Doctor of Divinity In 1607 and 1611 respectively they went to Down and before long Father Leander became Vicar of the Spanish Mission and Father Rudesind Prior of St Gregory's They were men of considerable learning and theological attainments The one held a theological chair and was Regius Professor of Hebrew for many years in Down University the other for a long period was Professor of Theology at the College of St Vaast and was largely consulted from all parts of Europe They were held in high esteem in the Congregation and were chosen to fill every post of responsibility and trust in its early years Father Leander was its first President General and Father Rudesind its second and they were the leading spirits on the Commission deputed by the Chapter of 1633 to frame resolutions on the nature and substance of the Congregation To these men was entrusted the task of examining and reporting on the writings of Father Baker The opinion formed by Father Leander is best given in his own words They do all contain very sound and wholesome doctrine for the direction of devout souls and fit and agreeable to our calling and Rule and especially for the use of our nuns the spirit of our holy Rule consisting principally in a spiritual union of our soul with God in affective prayer and exercise of the will immediately on God rather than in intellectual and discursive prayer busying the understanding as appeareth by our Rule and the daily use of our choir office which for the most part consisteth of aspirations and affections and hath very few discourses The Downside Review ,1907 Contemplative Prayer Weld-Blundell Benedict,2015-02-19 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Spirit, Faith and Church Laurence Lux-Sterritt, Claire Sorin, 2011-10-18 Contradictions are legion when it comes to women and spirituality In Christian cultures the worth of the female sex is highly ambivalent since virginity and motherhood are construed respectively as badges of purity and fruitfulness whilst the biological processes which underlie them are considered taboo or impure Throughout history women are in turn represented as inferior defective creatures or as privileged empty vessels in their relationship with the divine This polarized conception of woman has influenced the way in which religious institutions learned writers or indeed women themselves consider the female personal and collective relationship with the supernatural with the divine and with the institutions which represent it Through eleven original essays this volume questions how women from the English speaking world have negotiated their roles in the spiritual and religious spheres From early modern Catholics and Puritan groups to twenty first century nuns Anglican ministers and Mormons how did women define their roles in male dominated institutions How did they react to the public perceptions of their bodies as either incompatible with or facilitating access to the divine The questions at the core of this book hinge upon the articulation between the female self body and soul and its experience of the preternatural of faith and of institutionalized groups Are there specific forms of female spirituality and do they lead to a feminized feminist conception of God

English Convents in Exile, 1600-1800, Part I, vol 2 Caroline Bowden, Laurence Lux-Sterritt, Nicky Hallett, Elizabeth Perry, Victoria Van Hyning, 2024-08-01 Between 1600 and 1800 around 4 000 Catholic women left England for a life of exile in the convents of France Flanders Portugal and America These closed communities offered religious contemplation and safety but also provided an environment of concentrated female intellectualism The nuns writings from this time form a unique resource

Contemplative Prayer Ven. Father Augustine Baker's Teaching Thereon: from "Sancta Sophia" Augustine Baker (o.s.b.), 1906 Lives of Spirit Nicky Hallett, 2016-05-06 Nicky Hallett has uncovered a major new source of material by and about English nuns living in exile in the Low Countries during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries This volume presents the women s voices in unmediated form direct in all their vibrancy with an extensive introduction that provides historical and cultural contexts for an understanding of the Lives their sources and their authors Lives of Spirit draws upon several remarkable sets of papers compiled in enclosed convents between 1619 and 1794 These documents show that religious women developed an astute system of auto biographical practice within a protean political situation and that even in exile and from within enclosure they sought to shape a distinctive contribution to devotional change within a reforming church This volume reveals how the women's Lives challenge as well as affirm notions of gendered spirituality refiguring traditions of female life writing that extend from Catherine of Siena 1347-80 through the work of the Carmelite reformer Teresa of Avila 1515-82 into the later modern period The newness of the material in this book allows a radical reappraisal of the self-representation of religious women and of paradigms of life writing in and beyond the early modern period This book is of significant interest to scholars interested in early modern women's writing female spirituality and auto biography more widely as a genre The Irish Monthly, 1907 Augustine Baker Anthony Low, 1970 Contemplative Prayer Benedict Weld-Blundell, 2013-10 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book The Devil's Parables John Hannon, 1910 Challenging the Cult of Self-Esteem in Education Kenzo Bergeron, 2017-08-24 In this book Bergeron demonstrates the negative emotional and pedagogical repercussions that result from American educators' embrace of self-esteem and the dogma surrounding its acceptance Critically interpreting the meaning of self-esteem in education he challenges common sense assumptions surrounding this notion and questions the historical political philosophical and pedagogical forces that have shaped this psychological construct in education Interrogating the pedagogical practices linked to student empowerment self-determination and social agency in the classroom Bergeron discusses the ways in which the promise of self-esteem has backfired particularly for marginalized and impoverished students Witchcraft, Exorcism and the Politics of Possession in a Seventeenth-Century Convent Nicky Hallett, 2017-11-22 Presenting a remarkable set of previously unpublished papers this book concerns the bewitchment possession and exorcism of two seventeenth-century nuns living in exile in an English convent in the Spanish Netherlands The two women left behind an extensive set of personal writing that reveals unprecedented detail about their devotional lives and spiritual states before during and after exorcism Unlike other similar cases here the women write for themselves for the first time in 350 years this book allows their voices and their silences to resound in all their vibrancy An extensive introduction discusses the politics of piety and possession at a time when exorcism had become increasingly contentious amidst conflicting claims for rival church reform The book includes both autobiographical and biographical material written by the nuns and about them and casting new light on processes of female self-writing at just the time when the modern subject is often said to have emerged
