Contemporary Chinese Political Thought Fred Dallmayr, Zhao Tingyang, 2012-07-27 Westerners seem united in the belief that China has emerged as a major economic power and that this success will most likely continue indefinitely But they are less certain about the future of China's political system China's steps toward free market capitalism have led many outsiders to expect increased democratization and a more Western political system The Chinese however have developed their own version of capitalism Westerners view Chinese politics through the lens of their own ideologies preventing them from understanding Chinese goals and policies In Contemporary Chinese Political Thought Debates and Perspectives Fred Dallmayr and Zhao Tingyang bring together leading Chinese intellectuals to debate the main political ideas shaping the rapidly changing nation Investigating such topics as the popular China Model the resurgence of Chinese Confucianism and its applications to the modern world and liberal socialism the contributors move beyond usual analytical frameworks toward what Dallmayr and Zhao call a dismantling of ideological straitjackets Comprising a broad range of opinions and perspectives Contemporary Chinese Political Thought is the most up to date examination in English of modern Chinese political attitudes and discourse Features contributions from Ji Wenshun Zhou Lian Zhao Tingyang Zhang Feng Liu Shuxian Chen Ming He Baogang Ni Peimin Ci Jiwei Cui Zhiyuan Frank Fang Wang Shaoguang and Cheng Guangyun Contemporary Chinese Political Thought Fred Reinhard Dallmayr, Tingyang Zhao, 2012-06-21 Westerners seem united in the belief that China has emerged as a major economic power and that this success will most likely continue indefinitely But they are less certain about the future of China's political system China's steps toward free market capitalism have led many outsiders to expect increased democratization and a more Western political system The Chinese however have developed their own version of capitalism Westerners view Chinese politics through the lens of their own ideologies preventing them from understanding Chinese goals and policies In Contemporary Chinese Political Thought Debates and Perspectives Fred Dallmayr and Zhao Tingyang bring together leading Chinese intellectuals to debate the main political ideas shaping the rapidly changing nation Investigating such topics as the popular China Model the resurgence of Chinese Confucianism and its applications to the modern world and liberal socialism the contributors move beyond usual analytical frameworks toward what Dallmayr and Zhao call a dismantling of ideological straitjackets Comprising a broad range of opinions and perspectives Contemporary Chinese Political Thought is the most up to date examination in English of modern Chinese political attitudes and discourse Features contributions from Ji Wenshun Zhou Lian Zhao Tingyang Zhang Feng Liu Shuxian Chen Ming He Baogang Ni Peimin Ci Jiwei Cui Zhiyuan Frank Fang Wang Shaoguang and Cheng Guangyun Study On International Politics In Contemporary China Yuyan Zhang, 2020-07-14 China's guiding principle for foreign relations and its focus on states and regions has shifted a lot from the first 30 years of the founding of the People's Republic of China PRC in 1949 to 1978 and beyond after reform and opening up However PRC s diplomatic practice has been continuous whether it was participation in the Korean War breaking up with the former Soviet Union after a honeymoon period China's self defense war over Sino Indian border participation in the Vietnam War breakthrough in the Sino US relation or PRC s self defense war over the Sino Vietnamese border These historical events brought the need for theoretical study in International Politics IP The development of China's IP research was slow and filled with complications but it signified a breakthrough from scratch This book has filled gap by depicting a complete scroll of China's IP research in over 60 years since 1949 This book has followed two principles one is according to the classification of the IP discipline and the other is to recommend adaptations according to China's actual conditions Studies on Contemporary Chinese Philosophy (1949-2009) Qiyong GUO,2018-01-29 Guo Oiyong's edited volume on contemporary Chinese philosophy offers a detailed look at research on Chinese philosophy published from 1949 2009 in Mainland China and Taiwan The chapters in this volume are broken down into either major themes or time periods in the history of Chinese philosophy In each chapter after summarizing significant aspects of a particular theme or time period lists are drawn up of the most important works along with comments on their individual contributions This volume allows readers to both familiarize themselves with specific texts and become immersed in the more general philosophical discourse surrounding the history of Chinese philosophy It provides an in depth look into serious debates and major discoveries in Chinese language philosophical scholarship from 1949 2009 Ancient Chinese Thought, Modern Chinese Power Yan Xuetong, 2013-08-25 From China's most influential foreign policy thinker a vision for a Beijing Consensus for international relations The rise of China could be the most important political development of the twenty first century What will China look like in the future What should it look like And what will China s rise mean for the rest of world This book written by China's most influential foreign policy thinker sets out a vision for the coming decades from China's point of view In the West Yan Xuetong is often regarded as a hawkish policy advisor and enemy of liberal internationalists But a very different picture emerges from this book as Yan examines the lessons of ancient Chinese political thought for the future of China and the development of a Beijing consensus in international relations Yan it becomes clear is neither a communist who believes that economic might is the key to national power nor a neoconservative who believes that China should rely on military might to get its way Rather Yan argues political leadership is the key to national power and morality is an essential part of political leadership Economic and military might are important components of national power but they are secondary to political leaders who act in accordance with moral norms and the same holds true in determining the hierarchy of the global order Providing new insights into the thinking of one of China's leading foreign policy figures this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in China's rise or in international relations Great Dragon Fantasy, The: A Lacanian Analysis Of Contemporary Chinese Thought Guanjun Wu,2014-05-21 China has undergone a unique path of development in the post Maoist era Especially the last decade witnessed China's rapid rise to economic wealth and superpower status vis vis the severe developmental predicaments of the West financial crises socio political turbulences etc

This book analyzes how the leading Chinese thinkers understand China's prosperity and rapid development today and whether there is any hidden mechanism that has been playing a crucial role of forming contemporary Chinese thinkers shared passionate endeavor of resuscitating classical Chinese ideas and thus shows how the fervor for discovering essential characteristics of Chinese thought reveals a hidden psychological mechanism Contender States and Modern Chinese International Thought Ferran Perez Mena, 2024-05-17 This book contends that the development of modern Chinese international thought has been profoundly shaped by the distinctive nature of the Chinese state as a contender state and its global positioning since 1912 The argument posited demonstrates that notwithstanding the varied perspectives on the international held by Chinese intellectuals throughout the 20th century there exist commonalities across the periods analyzed in this book In essence the book emphasizes that the shared elements influencing the production of modern Chinese international thought do not derive from a unified cultural Chinese identity but rather stem from China's evolving geopolitical position in the modern world Marriage, Gender and Sex in a Contemporary Chinese Village Sun-Pong Yuen, Pui-Lam Law, Yuk-Ying Ho, Fong-Ying Yu, 2015-07-17 This book explores changing concepts of marriage and gender relationships and attitudes toward sex in a rural Chinese community over the past five decades The book is based on a study of an industrialized peasant village in Guangdong Province from 1994 to 1996 and subsequent visits from 2000 to 2002 According to the authors the rural economic reforms of the 1980s in southern China have challenged and reinforced the deep structure of Chinese familism and this has lead to tensions between tradition and modernity The first section of the book explores how attitudes toward marriage and courtship have changed over the past fifty years through personal accounts of three different marriages from different generations In Part II the transition from a traditional to a modern society is discussed from the perspective of several women from different generations. The third section focuses on sexual relationships and the growing sex trade in the village Part IV includes updates to the original survey and takes a look at village politics Chinese Political Discourse in Translation Lijuan Du, 2025-06-03 Building on Fairclough's critical discourse analysis CDA framework Du examines the official translators agency in reconstructing the image of China Comparing the source text and target text her book focuses on ideologically striking translation shifts that occur at different levels Drawing on the Seven Reports to the National Congresses of the Communist Party of China CPC 1992 2022 as a corpus Du explores the official translators agency in representing the image of China as well as the recontextualization of the translated discourse of the Report to the National Congress of the CPC in the international media She delves into the balance between discourse ideology and political and social function and argues that at their essence discourse changes by the translator represent a change of ideology and the acquisition of discourse power is the manifestation of ideological power Striking the balance between theoretical and empirical studies this book reveals the role of discourse in building the media view of China corroborating the interrelationship between discourse and ideology The book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students of

Y. Chan, Michael O'Sullivan, 2016-10-22 This book brings together the perspectives of eminent and emerging scholars on contemporary issues relevant to the practice pedagogy and institutionalization of the humanities in the three Chinese contexts of Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China It addresses the need to investigate how humanities discussions often exclusively drawn from and grounded in western contexts are today being played out in these three places The humanities in contemporary Chinese contexts may have different social and pedagogical roles and a consideration of them will enable people to moderate and perhaps even refute claims made in the recent re readings of the humanities As Asian universities rise in the global rankings and as east west university collaborations and partnerships become more common it is important that the nature practice and institutionalization of the humanities in Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China are explored and described for English readers Exploring new perspectives arising from an examination of the humanities in these places this volume aims neither to establish a position of polarity which would pit western sites against Chinese ones nor to argue for universal sameness Rather the goal is to find nuanced correspondences and differences between these various backgrounds so that there is a greater understanding of the specificities of Chinese contexts This will help shed light not only on the contexts in question but also potentially on how to rearticulate the importance of the humanities in general creating an intercultural dialogue focused on the humanities As the global university strives to move the different traditions of learning closer together through international rankings rubrics and shared research agendas it is important that we explore these locations of potential cultural exchange The Making and Unmaking of the Chinese
