New Culture Movement's iconoclastic attack on Confucius Liang Shuming fatefully predicted that in fact the future world culture would be Confucian Over the nine decades that followed Liang's reputation and the fortunes of Confucianism in China rose and fell together So readers may be interested in the question whether it is possible that a reconstituted Confucianism might yet become China's spiritual mainstream and a major constituent of world culture     The Making Of The Curriculum Ivor F Goodson,2002-11-01 The first edition of The Making of Curriculum was published in 1988 and reviewers hailed it as a seminal work in the field In that work Goodson explored a number of aspects of the so called traditional subjects and described the way they develop over time to a point where they can be promoted as academic disciplines He showed that the claim to be academic was in fact the result of a substantial political contest covering a century or more The traditional subject was in short invented The first edition of this book provided a series of challenging insights for those desiring to make sense of the current debate over schooling In this new and extended second edition Bill Pinar adds an illuminating introduction and Goodson brings his argument up to date with a discussion of the National Curriculum a contemporary initiative in the making of curriculum     IJER Vol 18-N3 International Journal of Educational Reform,2010-02-16 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world     The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Thinkers Brett A. Geier,2024-08-21 This handbook presents a durable comprehensive and up to date resource covering the seminal thinkers in education of past and present Each entry will capture the professional background of a legendary thinker and presents their key insights new thinking and major legacies to the field of education Carefully brought together to present a balance of gender and geographical contexts as well as areas of thought and work in the broad field of education this handbook provides a unique history and overview of figures who have shaped education and educational thinking throughout the world     Research Anthology on Preparing School

Administrators to Lead Quality Education Programs Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-07-24 The delivery of quality education to students relies heavily on the actions of an institution's administrative staff Effective leadership strategies allow for the continued progress of modern educational initiatives It is crucial to investigate how effective administrators lead their organizations in challenging and difficult times and promote the accomplishments of their organization Research Anthology on Preparing School Administrators to Lead Quality Education Programs is a vital reference source that offers theoretical and pedagogical research concerning the management of educational systems on both the national and international scale It also explores academic administration as well as administrative effectiveness in achieving organizational goals Highlighting a range of topics such as strategic planning human resources and school culture this multi volume book is ideally designed for educators administrators principals superintendents board members researchers academicians policymakers and students

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education Wayne D. Bowman, Ana Lucía Frega, 2012-05-25 In The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education editors Wayne D Bowman and Ana Lucia Frega have drawn together a variety of philosophical perspectives from the profession's most exciting scholars from all over the world Rather than relegating philosophical inquiry to moot questions and abstract situations the contributors to this volume address everyday concerns faced by music educators everywhere Emphasizing clarity fairness rigour and utility above all The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education will challenge music educators all over the world to make their own decisions and ultimately contribute to the conversation themselves

Rethinking the Curriculum Orlando Nang Kwok Ho, 2018-12-13 This book is an interdisciplinary endeavour Encompassing education and basic research it discusses the modular curriculum embodied in The Epistle from educational historical sociolinguistic anthropological phenomenological and non sectarian perspectives It shows the cross boundary philosophical reasoning and pedagogic dimensions of St Paul as a great teacher and thinker from the Jewish and Christian faith In doing so this book refocuses academia's attention on the inevitable antimononic nature inherent in humans efforts to create systemic knowledge Knowledge about the inner aesthetic and volitional interpretative self the immanent psychic I and other philosophical aspects of the realm of the transcendental should be rescued from the deepening trends of secularity Being strong powerful productive and performative should not be taken as the indisputable and exclusive aim of education Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM do not constitute a sufficient basis for building a better humanity Education via public curriculums ought to serve both the belly and the mind Deliberative curricular recalibrations with rationales for grace are thus needed for a better future for humanity This book is relevant for anyone with a core fascination about truths values epistemologies life spirituality and holistic human development It can also be used as a textbook or a reference in a number of fields including counselling psychology translation cultural studies and theology

Critical Reflections On Dist. Terry Evans, Daryl Nation, 2020-11-25 This book suggests that apparently unrelated vignettes of Mikhail Gorbachev Robert Mugabe and Harold Wilson are closely connected and illustrates that the concept of distance education may be seen as one of those innovations which was forged on the frontier of European expansion overseas Asia's High Performing Education

Systems Colin Marsh, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2014-07-17 Education officials specialist leaders and teachers have all been involved in different ways to bring about school reform in Hong Kong This book is a very current and relevant analysis of this reform highlighting the way in which agencies have cooperated in bringing about change over the last several decades Through a process of wide ranging decision making collaboration and consensus among key bodies and agencies of change some important developments have occurred The reforms collectively have had and are continuing to have a major impact upon schooling in Hong Kong This volume represents a range of authors and specialists involved in a number of different reforms covering themes such as historical policy contexts new curriculum approaches changing pedagogies school leadership implementation and change and assessment and evaluation This is a very topical book which provides a probing analysis of how an Asian education system has been able to reach and maintain a very high performing level Distance Education

V.k.rao, Issues in Materials Development Maryam Azarnoosh, Mitra Zeraatpishe, Akram Faravani, Hamid Reza Kargozari, 2016-03-22 Issues in Materials Development provides readers with theoretical foundations and practical aspects of designing materials for EFL ESL contexts It starts with discussing some basic and preliminary principles of materials design followed by scrutinizing critical issues in materials development in an objective and systematic way This ranges from considering learners needs adopting adapting selection and gradation of materials to the specific focus of the book on developing various types of materials for the four language skills pronunciation ESP vocabulary and computer assisted language learning materials Authenticity of materials to be designed and the inclusion of affective factors to develop motivating materials to engage language learners in addition to features of materials design at a universal level are other areas to read about This book finally tries to open new horizons and possible futuristic approaches to improve today s ELT materials Columbia University Quarterly ,1902 vol 6 includes 150th anniversary number Creating Excellence

Smith, 2018-02-16 Creating Excellence Becoming an A School is intended to be used by first year principals who have inherited a school that is failing or not achieving to a desired level as well as by seasoned principals who are struggling to improve their school s academic performance It can also be used effectively as a textbook for graduate students preparing for a career in educational leadership The book is straightforward in its presentation of practices and strategies supported by research and theory It has been written to share the knowledge base impart the technical skills and highlight the interpersonal skills recommended to enable educational leaders to create excellence and enable their school to become an A school Within the chapters tools techniques and concrete examples are offered Educational leaders are encouraged to select revise and adjust proposed actions based on their own judgement and according to their local conditions faculty staff and other stakeholders Regardless improving instruction in order to increase student learning must be the focus

Understanding Education Stephen Kemmis, Christine Edwards-Groves, 2017-10-24 This short book provides an introduction to the study of education outlining the dual purpose of education to help people live well and to help develop a world worth living in. It argues that education initiates people into forms of understanding modes of activity and ways of relating to each other and the world that not only help individuals to live good lives but also help secure a culture based on reason, productive and sustainable economies and environments and just and democratic societies. Subsequent chapters address the history of education in the West, explore how education reproduces the practices and forms of life in societies and groups and also how it transforms them, and introduce the theory of practice architectures to explain what practices are composed of and how they are enabled and constrained by local and more general conditions and circumstances. The book closes by showing how the theory of practice architectures unfolds to offer a theory of education, a theory that underpins the definition of education offered at the start of the book. Understanding Education is essential reading for anyone interested in the theory and practice of education.
