Contemporary Demographic Transformations in China, India and Indonesia Christophe Z. Guilmoto, Gavin W.

Jones, 2015-12-12 This book examines the profound demographic transformation affecting China India and Indonesia where 40% of the world's people live It offers a systematic comparative approach that will help readers to better understand the changing social and regional recomposition of the population in these regions The chapters present a detailed investigation and mapping of regional trends in mortality fertility migration and urbanization education and aging Throughout the analysis carefully considers how these trends affect economic and social development Coverage also raises global theoretical questions about the singular ways in which each of these three countries have achieved their demographic transition As the authors reveal demographic trends seem to be somewhat linear and anticipatable providing Asia's three demographic giants and their governments a formidable advantage in planning for the future But the evolution of human mobility in China India and Indonesia closely intertwined as it is with changing economic conditions appears less predictable and ranks high among the major challenges to demographic knowledge in the coming decades Offering an insightful look into the components implications and regional variations of a changing population this book will appeal to social scientists demographers anthropologists sociologists epidemiologists and specialists in Asian studies Handbook of Parenting Marc H.

Bornstein, 2019-02-01 This highly anticipated third edition of the Handbook of Parenting brings together an array of field leading experts who have worked in different ways toward understanding the many diverse aspects of parenting Contributors to the Handbook look to the most recent research and thinking to shed light on topics every parent professional and policymaker wonders about Parenting is a perennially hot topic After all everyone who has ever lived has been parented and the vast majority of people become parents themselves No wonder bookstores house shelves of how to parenting books and magazine racks in pharmacies and airports overflow with periodicals that feature parenting advice However almost none of these is evidence based The Handbook of Parenting is Period Each chapter has been written to be read and absorbed in a single sitting and includes historical considerations of the topic a discussion of central issues and theory a review of classical and modern research and forecasts of future directions of theory and research Together the five volumes in the Handbook cover Children and Parenting the Biology and Ecology of Parenting Being and Becoming a Parent Social Conditions and Applied Parenting and the Practice of Parenting Volume 4 Social Conditions and Applied Parenting describes socially defined groups of parents and social conditions that promote variation in parenting The chapters in Part I on Social and Cultural Conditions of Parenting start with a relational developmental systems perspective on parenting and move to considerations of ethnic and minority parenting among Latino and Latin Americans African Americans Asians and Asian Americans Indigenous parents and immigrant parents The section concludes with considerations of disabilities employment and poverty on parenting Parents are ordinarily the most consistent and caring people in children's lives However parenting does not always go right or well Information education and support programs can remedy potential ills The chapters in Part II on Applied Issues in Parenting begin with how parenting is measured and follow with examinations of maternal deprivation attachment and acceptance rejection in parenting Serious challenges to parenting some common such as stress and depression and some less common such as substance abuse psychopathology maltreatment and incarceration are addressed as are parenting interventions intended to redress these trials

Asian Parenting Xinyin Chen, 2025-03-21 Asian Parenting provides a comprehensive and scholarly discussion of the distinct features meanings and implications for human development of contemporary Asian parenting beyond Western theoretical frameworks It explores how cultural beliefs and values shape socialization goals and practices and guide parent child interactions Edited by Xinyin Chen contributions from leading scholars discuss key topics including conceptual and methodological issues in the study of Asian parenting the role of social circumstances and cultural values in shaping Asian parenting culturally prescribed socialization processes the influence of Asian parenting on children's socioemotional functioning learning and academic achievement and psychological wellbeing and the impact of social economic and cultural changes in Asian societies on parenting beliefs attitudes and behaviors Asian Parenting is an essential text for students and scholars of psychology sociology cultural anthropology education and family studies who are interested in culture and human development It will also guide interventions on the parts of governmental and nongovernmental organizations operating in Asian societies

The Oxford Handbook of the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón, 2021-10-15 Long on the margins of both scholarly and policy concerns the countries of the West African Sahel have recently attracted world attention primarily as a key battleground in the global war on terror This book moves beyond this narrow focus providing a multidimensional and interdisciplinary assessment of the region in all of its complexity The focus is on the six countries at the heart of the Sahelian geographic space Senegal Mauritania Mali Burkina Faso Niger and Chad Collectively the chapters explore the commonalities and interconnections that link these countries and their fates while also underscoring their diversity and the variations in their current realities The Sahel today is at an important crossroads under multiple pressures of diverse kinds environmental political demographic and economic as well as rapidly changing social and religious dynamics It is also marked by striking dynamism and experimentation drawing on a long history of innovation and cultural transfer In many ways the Sahel is today on the cutting edge of grand natural experiments exploring how humans will adapt to climate change to technological innovation to the global movement of populations and the restructuring of world politics to urbanization social change and rapid demographic growth and to inter religious contact The region is a weathervane on the front lines of the forces of global change In nine thematic sections the chapters in this book offer holistic analyses of the key forces shaping the region Including scholars based in Africa Europe and the United States the authors represent an exceptional breadth and depth of expertise on the Sahel

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
