Contemporary Views On The Holocaust Holocaust Studies Series:

Contemporary Views on the Holocaust R.L. Braham, 1983-07-31 This book is the second in a series of studies published under the auspices of the Institute for Holocaust Studies of the Graduate School and University Center of The City University of New York Like the first book it is an outgrowth of the lectures and special studies sponsored by the institute during the 1981-82 and 1982-83 academic years This volume is divided into five parts Part I Ethics and the Holocaust contains a pioneering investigation of one of the most neglected areas in Holocaust studies Francine Klagsbrun a well known writer and popular lecturer provides an erudite overview of the value of life in Jewish thought and tradition With full understanding of the talmudic scholars position on Jewish ethics and using concrete examples of the life and death dilemmas that confronted many Jews in their concentration camp experiences Klagsbrun provides dramatic evidence of the triumph of moral and ethical principles over the forces of evil during the Holocaust this darkest period in Jewish history The next two chapters grouped under the heading The Allies and the Holocaust deal with the failure of the Western Allies to respond to the desperate needs of the persecuted Jews of Europe during the Second World War The first is by Professor Bela Vago an authority on the Holocaust and East Central European history at the University of Haifa Studies on the Holocaust Randolph L. Braham, 2000 Few aspects of American military history have been as vigorously debated as Harry Truman's decision to use atomic bombs against Japan In this carefully crafted volume Michael Kort describes the wartime circumstances and thinking that form the context for the decision to use these weapons surveys the major debates related to that decision and provides a comprehensive collection of key primary source documents that illuminate the behavior of the United States and Japan during the closing days of World War II Kort opens with a summary of the debate over Hiroshima as it has evolved since 1945 He then provides a historical overview of the events in question beginning with the decision and program to build the atomic bomb Detailing the sequence of events leading to Japan's surrender he revisits the decisive battles of the Pacific War and the motivations of American and Japanese leaders Finally Kort examines ten key issues in the discussion of Hiroshima and guides readers to relevant primary source documents scholarly books and articles Genocide and Retribution R.L. Braham, 2012-12-06 During the dark years of the Holocaust many of the millions of labor and concentration camp victims were sustained in their struggle for survival by the hope that their tormentors would not escape retribution This expectation was reinforced by the warnings issued by the statesmen of the anti Axis coalition and the declarations of the United States Great Britain and the USSR Shortly after the cessation of hostilities war crimes trials were indeed initiated in all parts of liberated Europe Many of the accused were indicted among other things for crimes committed against Jews People's tribunals for the prosecution of war crimes and crimes against humanity were also established in Romania a country that extricated itself from the Axis Alliance on 23 August 1944 The Romanian people's tribunals were set up and operated under the provisions of Law No 312 issued by the Ministry of Justice on 21 April 1945 One of these tribunals

was established in Cluj Kolozsvár and entrusted primarily with the prosecution of those involved in the violation of the rights of people living in Northern Transylvania the part of the province that was transferred to Hungary under the terms of the Second Vienna Award August 1940 and which remained under Hungarian rule from early September 1940 until its liberation by Soviet Romanian forces in the fall of 1944 The crimes committed against the citizens of Northern Transylvania both within and outside the province were the subject of two major trials

As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross, E. Doyle Stevick, 2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical This book provides exactly that

Narratives about Jews among Muslims in Norway Vibeke Moe Bjørnbekk, 2024-06-17 What is the nature of Muslim Jewish relations in Europe today Based on qualitative interview data this book explores narratives about Jews among Muslims in Norway Drawing on culturally embedded narratives as well as personal experiences interviewees reflect on the relationship between Jews and Muslims The interreligious exchange between Islam and Judaism is as old as Islam Today the Arab Israeli conflict has become an important frame of reference in the public discourse on Muslim Jewish relations The narratives presented in this book delineate shifting community boundaries and identifications that transcend dichotomised notions of Muslims versus Jews The analysis shows how Jewish history in Europe and the history of modern antisemitism serve as interpretative keys in the narratives used for explaining the situation of the Muslim minority today Furthermore the book demonstrates how interviewees perceptions of society s attitudes toward Muslim and Jewish experiences also strongly influence their perceptions of Muslim Jewish relations

Evil: A History in Modern French Literature and Thought Damian Catani, 2013-02-14 In this original interdisciplinary approach to evil in French literature Damian Catani links literary depictions of evil with cultural events to chart a history of the concept in some of the most important texts in modern literature Beginning with Balzac and Baudelaire Catani covers the restoration and the Second Empire before interpreting how Catholic stereotypes of the evil feminine and new scientific theories impacted the work of Lautréamont and Zola. Moving into the twentieth century, evil is then explored in terms of the Self, power, knowledge, and politics through readings of Proust, Celine, Sartre, and Foucault. By seamlessly bringing together aesthetic, philosophical, historical, and ideological concerns to read key French writers from the 18th to the 21st century, this study argues why a broader treatment of literary evils is vital to understanding our contemporary moral and political climate.
