Contemporary Art And Multicultural Education:

Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education Susan Cahan, Zoya Kocur, 1996 Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education is the first book of its kind to address the role of art within today's multicultural education. Co-published with The New Museum of Contemporary Art, this beautifully illustrated book is a practical resource for art educators and students. Co-published with the New Museum of Contemporary Art, Rethinking Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education New Museum, 2011-02-25. For over a decade, Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education has served as the guide to multicultural art education, connecting everyday experience, social critique, and creative expression with classroom learning. The much anticipated Rethinking Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education continues to provide an accessible and practical tool for teachers while offering new art essays and content to account for transitions and changes in both the fields of art and education. A beautifully illustrated collaboration of over one hundred artists, writers, curators, and educators from in and around the contemporary art world, this volume offers thoughtful and innovative materials that challenge the normative practices of arts education and traditional art history. Rethinking Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education builds upon the pedagogy of the original to present new possibilities and modes of understanding art, culture, and their relationships to students and ourselves. The fully revised second edition provides new theoretical and practical resources for educators and students everywhere, including Educators' perspectives on contemporary art, multicultural education, and teaching in today's classroom. Full color reproductions and writings on over 50 contemporary artists and their works, plus an additional 150 black and white images throughout. Lesson plans for using art to explore topical issues such as activism and democracy, conflict, local and global, and history and historicism. island Case studies show what is at stake politically historically and socially in artists endeavours to give shape to a sense of Taiwanese identity Despite the prevalence of artists engaged in social issues in today s world and the undeniable contributions of artistic residency to contemporary art practice little literature or scholarly research has been conducted on the practical conceptual and ideological aspects of artist residency Very often it is perceived in very narrow terms overlooking explicit or hidden issues of localism nationalism and globalization If artistic residence did indeed emerge from the radical movements of the 1960s and 70s in the Western world and especially Britain then this book argues that the contemporary sociocultural context of Taiwan calls for redefined culturally specific models of residency The precarious geo political situation of Taiwan has made issues of cultural identity tackled by artists and successive governments alike very sensitive A new genre of artistic residence in Taiwan would mean that artists involved from whatever cultural background operate as engaging interpreters their roles would not be confined to mirroring culture and society These artists in residence would contribute to cultural awakening by offering ways of negotiating creatively with otherness and this for the sake of a better social life and shared identity
