Contemporary Images Of Christian Ministry:

Contemporary Images of Christian Ministry Donald E. Messer, 1989 Explains five contemporary images of ministry as a first step toward developing a personal vision wounded healer servant leader political mystic practical theologian enslaved liberator Ministry Between Miracles Thomson K. Mathew, 2002-12 Ministry by the Book Derek Tidball, 2009-05-29

Focusing on pastoral leadership within local churches or groups of churches Derek Tidball provides a comprehensive survey of the variety of ministry models and patterns found in the New Testament with applications for today's ministry

Metaphors of Ministry David W. Bennett, 2004-01-28 Down through the centuries church leaders have studied the Gospels to discover patterns of leadership development that can be applied to their own context Yet the word leader does not appear in the Gospels Could it be that leadership has more to do with learning to follow than learning to command supervise or manage On right attitudes than on mastery of certain skills Many of the insights we need are embedded in the images which Jesus used to describe his followers So David W Bennett introduces his stimulating and scholarly study previously published under the title Biblical Images for Leaders and Followers He examines the many images and metaphors in the Gospels relating to how disciples follow Jesus and in turn influence others Then he moves on to survey much of the evidence to be found in the images of the rest of the New Testament Finally he draws some judicious conclusions for an understanding of Christian leadership in our own day The author has considerable cross cultural experience having taught church leaders in Japan India the Philippines Papua New Guinea Malaysia India Nepal Tanzania and Kenya in addition to pastoring churches in California Oregon and Massachusetts He has also traveled and done research among church leaders in Malawi South Africa Brazil Argentina Cambodia Vietnam China Korea Thailand Russia and the Czech Republic His aim is to stimulate thought on these questions in churches all over the world not just in the west Multi-Congregation Ministry Grundy

Malcolm, 2015-07-02 Local church life is changing radically and clergy deployment with it Multi congregational groupings are increasingly the norm with fewer stipendiary clergy As ministry increasingly becomes the responsibility of local congregations and priesthood more about supervision this guide explores the theology of this model and how it works in practice Unfettered Spirit Robert D Cornwall, 2021-07-19 2nd Expanded Edition All too frequently studies of the gifts of the Spirit consist largely of answering two questions What are the gifts and Which ones do I have In many cases studies go on to a third question How can I get more In response institutional churches and theologically and intellectually respectable Christians often tend to avoid the work of the Holy Spirit in the church entirely It's much easier to simply close the doors and windows than it is to deal with the wind John 3:8 After all they've seen the wind blow out the candles disarrange the altar vestments and send a chill through the congregants Author pastor and church historian Bob Cornwall has experienced all of this for himself He has seen traditional churches and worship He has seen Pentecostal worship He has led congregations in difficult times For more than 30 years he has studied practiced prayed and lived the work of the Holy Spirit in the church The result is Unfettered Spirit Spiritual Gifts for the New Great Awakening Here he avoids both the errors of replacing the freedom of the Spirit with human whim and of trying to tame or confine the Spirit that will not be fettered He asks Do you truly believe that God is present in the world And do you believe that God is working through us to break down the walls that divide us from God from each other and from the world And if you do do you believe that you have been gifted and empowered to participate in this ministry that takes down the walls of egoism suspicion greed self interest and hatred If you can say yes to these questions jump right in This is the book for you If you are hesitant or if the idea of the Holy Spirit working unfettered in your congregation and community frightens you read the first four chapters carefully as Bob lays the theological foundation You may find your maybe or even your no turned into a yes Building on this foundation Bob continues with five chapters on the gifts of the Spirit as described in Scripture These are practical discussions that will let you keep your bearings in discussions of the Spirit and more importantly in a community where the Spirit is active Finally he concludes with a discussion of how to lead and pastor a church where the gifts of the Spirit are active Whether you are a Pentecostal an evangelical a mainliner a progressive or any other label you might find for yourself or your church you will profit from reading this book Leadership and Oversight Malcolm Grundy, 2011-01-20 An examination of the role and work of bishops for today and tomorrow exploring how ministries of great responsibility might shape the future

Encyclopedia of Religion and Film Eric Michael Mazur, 2011-03-08 Comprising 91 A Z entries this encyclopedia provides a broad and comprehensive introduction to the topic of religion within film Technology has enabled films to reach much wider audiences enabling today's viewers to access a dizzying number of films that employ diverse symbolism and communicate a vast array of viewpoints Encyclopedia of Religion and Film will provide such an audience with the tools to begin their own exploration of the deeper meanings of these films and grasp the religious significance within Organized alphabetically this encyclopedia provides more than 90 entries on the larger religious traditions the major film producing regions of the globe the films that have stirred controversy the most significant religious symbols and the more important filmmakers The included topics provide substantially more information on the intersection of religion and film than any of the similar volumes currently available While the emphasis is on the English speaking world and the films produced therein there is also substantial representation of non English non Western film and filmmakers providing significant intercultural coverage to the topic Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 11 Joanne Marie Greer, David O. Moberg, 2021-11-22 The purpose of this book is to provide an outlet for original research articles examining the role and value of religious and spiritual constructs across the social sciences The aim of the series is to include an international and interfaith voice to this research dialogue An effort is made to be interdisciplinary and academically eclectic The articles in each volume represent a wide array of perspectives and research projects Most of the articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion and some are applied demonstrating the relevance of the social sciences to religious organizations and their clergy The value of the volume is that it gives to researchers in this area a broad perspective on the issues and methods of religious research across a spectrum of academic disciplines The aim of the book is to stimulate a creative integrative dialogue that will enhance interdisciplinary research

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion Joanne

Marie Greer, David O. Moberg, 2001-04 Various articles are presented covering psychological sociological and cross cultural topics or relevance to religious spiritual researchers and academics

Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not Ceos.

James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock

Ending Hunger Now George Stanley McGovern, Bob Dole, Donald E. Messer, Veteran statesmen George McGovern and Robert Dole here find common cause with theologian and activist Donald Messer in this powerful testimony and appeal to people of faith They are each convinced we can overcome global hunger now and their informed strategic impassioned thoughts encourage and equip This book brings together their disparate yet powerful voices behind a shared conviction that helping the millions who lack basic provision for food has become a religious imperative and human priority Writing for congregations and individuals of faith McGovern Dole and Messer appeal to the biblical theological and ethical foundations of action against hunger

Public Health Education in the African American Community Lena

Butler-Flowers, 2013-11-12 The African American community is facing a health crisis We are in a predicament in which excessive eating is the order of the day This overindulgence of food has caused obesity infant mortality hypertension heart failure diabetes kidney disease failure cardiovascular disease and eventual death The purpose of this book is to build public awareness of the health crisis facing the black community develop a health education model suitable for use in large and small groups that would serve to improve diet and exercise in at risk individuals and promote the establishment of Faith and Health initiatives in the local church

Spirit-Led Ministry in the 21st Century Thomson K. Mathew, 2004-04 This book is a comprehensive guide to competent Spirit led ministry in the 21st century Written from a Pentecostal Charismatic perspective it focuses on four important aspects of effective ministry preaching teaching healing and leading Beginning with biblical definitions of ministry the book describes the challenges presented by the 21st century in light of the long history of Christian ministry and it offers biblically sound advice to address these challenges The role of the Holy Spirit in ministry is examined in detail The bulk of the book is devoted to the theory theology and practice of competent Spirit led ministry This book is a call to excellence in ministry as well as a guide to empowered preaching teaching healing and leading

Blank Slate Lia McIntosh, Jasmine Smothers, Rodney Thomas Smothers, 2019-03-19 The church must get unstuck from its current context in order to address the context of younger generations otherwise it will not be relevant to younger people and will die with the older generations As an example a letter from the Younger Generations to Baby Boomers Dear Baby Boomers Thank you for all you've done but I don't want your church I want you our relationship our engagement but not your church structure and outdated assumptions Signed The Younger Generations Blank Slate guides leaders to envision and actually design the future church The authors start by describing each generational group currently living in the US helping readers understand the varied context of people in every age group Next they explore five innovative secular organizations drawing sharp lessons for the church The last section includes a seven step process for ministry leaders to engage current and upcoming generations This book with questions for individual and group reflection in each chapter is a powerful planning tool for ministry teams In a time when so many of us want a blueprint for how to do ministry in a rapidly changing world McIntosh Smothers and Smothers hand us a pencil and tell us to draw it ourselves God has entrusted us to be the designers and visionaries for a new way Blank Slate is the guide that you and your team need to design a new future together Jacob Armstrong pastor Providence Church Mt Juliet TN

Caring for the Sick and Elderly Marie Roccapriore, 2003 This book highlights the various ways pastoral care ministers and parish volunteers can reach out to the sick and elderly There are a wealth of ideas here for extending spiritual sacramental and charitable support to parishioners who are homebound in nursing homes or in hospitals For many years Sr Marie Roccapriore has been involved with a parish program called Project H E A L Homebound are Encouraged through Assistance in Love The details of this program are provided in this book along with forms and other reproducible information that will be useful in developing this type of program in your own parish Also included is an extensive listing of resources that are invaluable for ministry with the sick and elderly The creative ideas offered will motivate more involvement among children as well as adults and bring positive results among the sick and elderly recipients who eagerly look forward to the compassionate and loving care of others Personal examples and anecdotes help illustrate the ways that even the simplest gestures of care and concern can make a world of difference in the lives of the infirm

Mission and Evangelism in a Secularizing World Narry F. Santos, Mark Naylor, 2019-02-14 Secularization as a movement away from a religious orientation to life is strong in Canada and has influence worldwide In this volume missiologists and practitioners across Canada consider how an agenda of Christian mission and evangelism can be advanced in a secularizing environment How can believers be curious and engaged rather than defensive and fearful What changes are required from the evangelical community so that there is productive dialogue and action in ways that maintain faithfulness to the cause of Christ What should the approach of mission be to a new generation steeped in secular narratives How do we answer negative caricatures of Christian mission in light of the history of Residential Schools What examples from the past teach us about developing an irenic approach What positive trends are currently evident in Canada and around the world that counter the secularizing narrative These questions and more are considered in this volume by Canadian scholars who recognize the importance of being relevant to society while maintaining integrity with the Gospel message The essays address secularism in Canadian and worldwide contexts with seriousness insight and an underlying theme of hope recognizing that God's mission has been accomplished is being accomplished and will be accomplished Church Conflict Norma Cook Everist, 2004 You love your work You love the people most of the time They respect you most of the time You work together with colleagues staff and laity with energy and enthusiasm most of the time But then something goes wrong a word spoken in anger a misunderstanding and things turn sour What do you do How do you deal with conflict whether it be long or short term low or high intensity Conflict is a part of the human predicament yet it need not define or control your ministry This book is designed to help the reader ask certain key questions about the nature and scope of the conflict they are experiencing and based on the answers to those questions move beyond conflict The author lays out the variety of responses to conflict running the gamut from avoidance to accommodation to compromise to collaboration Written with the real needs of congregations in mind this book will serve as a reliable guide to all who wish to move through conflict into a more effective and authentic fulfillment of their calling Who Shall Lead Them? Larry A. Witham, 2005-07-01 The clergy today faces mounting challenges in an increasingly secular world where declining prestige makes it more difficult to attract the best and the brightest young Americans to the ministry As Christian churches dramatically adapt to modern changes some are asking whether there is a clergy crisis as well Whatever the future of the clergy the fate of millions of churchgoers also will be at stake In Who Shall Lead Them prizewinning journalist Larry Witham takes the pulse of both the Protestant and Catholic ministry in America and provides a mixed diagnosis of the calling's health Drawing on dozens of interviews with clergy seminarians and laity and using newly available survey data including the 2000 Census Witham reveals the trends in a variety of traditions While evangelicals are finding innovative paths to ministry the Catholic priesthood faces a severe shortage In mainline Protestantism ministry as a second career has become a prominent feature Ordination ages in the Episcopal and United Methodist churches average in the 40s today The quest by female clergy to lead from the pulpit meanwhile has hit a stained glass ceiling as churches still prefer a man as the principal minister While deeply motivated by the mystery of their call to ministry America's priests pastors and ministers are reassessing their roles in a world of new debates on leadership morality and the powers of the mass media Who Shall Lead Them offers a valuable snapshot of this contemporary clergy drama It will be required reading for everyone concerned about the rapidly shifting ground of our churches and the health of religion in America Towards a Malawian Theology of Laity Volker Glissmann, 2021-01-29 A key theological emphasis of the church is the priesthood of all believers This emphasis implies that lay empowerment and lay participation are central to what the church does Yet lay participation is a bit of an unfulfilled promise in many cases This book brings together church leaders theological educators as well as practitioners who are actively involved in lay ministry here in Malawi so that a stronger theology of laity for the Malawian church can emerge
