Fragments of Solidarity Maria Giannoula, 2023-06-02 How is solidarity understood by the people who practice it actively and daily What is the role of solidarity in reconciling the relationship of individuals with the collective demands of communities that fight for the rights of others Based on a variety of anthropological sociological and philosophical writings as well as ethnographic research Maria Giannoula takes an elaborated look at the emotional and spiritual aspects of political participation within an activist group in Greece in the 2010s This study is a valuable resource for those researching social movements and alternative communities focusing on the ways in which individuals organise their own forms of activism The Criminalization of Migration Idil Atak,James C. Simeon,2018-12-30 With over 240 million migrants in the world including over 65 million forced migrants and refugees states have turned to draconian measures to stem the flow of irregular migration including the criminalization of migration itself Canada perceived as a nation of immigrants and touted as one of the most generous countries in the world today for its reception of refugees has not been immune from these practices This book examines crimmigration the criminalization of migration from national and comparative perspectives drawing attention to the increasing use of criminal law measures public policies and practices that stigmatize or diminish the rights of forced migrants and refugees within a dominant public discourse that not only stereotypes and criminalizes but marginalizes forced migrants Leading researchers legal scholars and practitioners provide in depth analyses of theoretical concerns legal and public policy dimensions historic migration crises and the current dynamics and future prospects of crimmigration The editors situate each chapter within the existing migration literature and outline a way forward for the decriminalization of migration through the vigorous promotion and advancement of human rights Building on recent legal policy academic and advocacy initiatives The Criminalization of Migration maps how the predominant trend toward the criminalization of migration in Canada and abroad can be reversed for the benefit of all especially those forced to migrate for the protection of their inherent human rights and dignity

Critical Methods for the Study of World Politics Shine Choi,Anna Selmecki,Erzsébet Strausz,2019-12-05 This book develops an approach to both method and the socio political implications of knowledge production that embraces our embeddedness in the world that we study It seeks to enact the transformative potentials inherent in this relationship in how it engages readers It presents a creative survey of some of the newest developments in critical research methods and critical pedagogy that together go beyond the aims of knowledge transfer that often structure our practices Each contribution takes on a different shape tone and orientation and discusses a critical method or approach teasing out the ways in which it can also work as a transformative practice While the presentation of different methods is both rigorously practice based and specific contributors also offer reflections on the stakes of critical engagement and how it may play an important role in expanding and subverting existing regimes of intelligibility Contributions variously address the following key questions What makes your research method important How can others work with it How has research through this method and or the way you ended up deploying it transformed you and or your practice How did it matter for thinking about community academic collaboration and sharing knowledge This volume makes the case for re politicizing the importance of research and the transformative potentials of research methods not only in accessing the world as an object of study but as ways of acting and being in the world It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations critical theory research methods and politics in general Sea Narratives: Cultural Responses to the Sea, 1600-Present Charlotte Mathieson,2016-06-07 Sea Narratives Cultural Responses to the Sea 1600 Present explores the relationship between the sea and culture from the early modern period to the present The collection uses the concept of the sea narrative as a lens through which to consider the multiple ways in which the sea has shaped challenged and expanded modes of cultural representation to produce varied contested and provocative chronicles of the sea across a variety of cultural forms within diverse socio cultural moments Sea Narratives provides a unique perspective on the relationship between the sea and cultural production it reveals the sea to be more than simply a source of creative inspiration instead showing how the sea has had a demonstrable effect on new modes and forms of narration across the cultural sphere and in turn how these forms have been essential in shaping socio cultural understandings of the sea The result is an incisive exploration of the sea s force as a cultural presence

The Ethics of Space Steph Grohmann,2020-03-01 Across the Western world full membership of society is established through entitlements to space and formalized in the institutions of property and citizenship Those without such entitlements are deemed less than fully human as they struggle to find a place where they can symbolically and physically exist Written by an anthropologist who accidentally found herself homeless The Ethics of Space is an unprecedented account of what happens when homeless people organize to occupy abandoned properties Set against the backdrop of economic crisis austerity and a disintegrating British state Steph Grohmann tells the story of a flourishing squatter community in the city of Bristol and how it was eventually outlawed by the state The first ethnography of homelessness done by a researcher who was formally homeless throughout fieldwork this volume explores the intersection between spatial existence subjectivity and ethics The result is a book that rethinks how ethical views are shaped and constructed through our own spatial existences

The Battle for Britain John Clarke,2023-05-24 This book addresses the social political and economic turbulence in which the UK is embroiled Drawing on Cultural Studies it explores proliferating crises and conflicts from the multiplying varieties of social dissent through the stagnation of rentier capitalism to the looming climate catastrophe Examining arguments about Brexit class and race and the changing character of the state the book is underpinned by a transnational and relational conception of the UK It traces the entangled dynamics of time and space that have shaped the current conjuncture Questioning whether increasingly anti democratic and authoritarian strategies can provide a resolution to these troubles it explores how the accumulating crises and conflicts have produced a deepening crisis of authority that forms the terrain of the Battle for Britain

Municipal Dreams John Boughton,2018-05-15 A narrative history of council housing from slums to the Grenfell Tower Urgent timely and compelling Municipal Dreams brilliantly brings the national story of housing to life In this landmark reappraisal of council housing historian John Boughton presents an alternative history of Britain Rooted in the ambition to end slum living and the ideals of those who would build a new society Municipal Dreams looks at how the state s duty to house its people decently became central to our politics The book makes it clear why that legacy and its promise should be defended Traversing the nation in this comprehensive social political and architectural history of council housing Boughton offers a tour of some of the best and most remarkable of our housing estates some happily ordinary some judged notorious

He asks us to understand their complex story and to rethink our prejudices His accounts include extraordinary planners and architects who wished to elevate working men and women through design the competing ideologies that have promoted state housing and condemned it the economic factors that have always constrained our housing ideals the crisis wrought by Right to Buy and the evolving controversies around regeneration Boughton shows how losing the dream of good housing has weakened our community and hurt its most vulnerable as was seen most catastrophically in the fire at Grenfell Tower

Beyond History Elijah Nyaga Munyi, David Mwambari,, Aleksi Ylönen, 2020-08-27 Moving beyond a self indulgent attitude about Africa s historical victimhood the book seeks to capture how African states individually and Africa s collective institutions the AU are providing agency in Africa s international relations While African states have been trailblazers in such ideas as The Responsibility to Protect as conceived in the African Union Constitutive Act 2001 which preceded the United Nations UN Secretary General s report In Larger Freedom 2005 in which the UN adopted the concept African agency in international relations has not always been captured proactively This volume seeks to document Africa and African states in a state of proactivity as opposed to a reactionary mode of international relations which has long been the case due to the discipline s heavy concentration on the West The main themes explored are African agency in international relations and commerce agency in Africa s balancing of big and regional powers reshaping Africa EU relations beyond the Cotonou Agreements Africa and international human rights institutions African efforts in elections and conflicts in Africa and relationship building among African leaders

Political Identification in Europe Amanda Machin, Nadine Meidert, 2021-04-13 In recent years Europe has been buffeted by a series of contested crises that seemingly undermine and overwhelm its institutions and ideals the economic shocks of 2008 the open disputes over migration the political uncertainty generated by Brexit and the inroads made by various populist and nationalist parties into government

Two Roads Diverge Christopher Hartwell, 2016-09-26 This book compares the economic outcomes of Poland and Ukraine by focusing on political and economic institutions

Local Activism for Global Climate Justice Patricia E. Perkins, 2019-09-06 This book will inspire and spark grassroots action to address the inequitable impacts of climate change by showing how this can be tackled and the many benefits of doing so With contributions from climate activists and engaged young authors this volume explores the many ways in which people are proactively working to advance climate justice The book pays special attention to Canada and the Great Lakes watershed showing how the effects of climate change span local regional and global scales through the impact of extreme weather events such as floods and droughts with related economic and social effects that cross political jurisdictions Examining examples of local level activism that include organizing for climate resilient and equitable communities the dynamic leadership of Indigenous peoples especially women for water and land protection and diaspora networking Local Activism for Global Climate Justice also provides theoretical perspectives on how individual action relates to broader social and political processes Showcasing a diverse range of inspirational and thought provoking case studies this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate justice climate change policy climate ethics and global environmental governance as well as teachers and climate activists Contention Contention Journal,2013-10-14

Anthropologies of Revolution proposes that revolutions should be seen as concerted attempts to radically reconstitute the worlds people inhabit Viewing revolutions as all embracing world creating projects the authors ask readers to move beyond the idea of revolutions as acts of violent political rupture and instead view them as processes of societal transformation that penetrate deeply into the fabric of people s lives unfolding and refolding the coordinates of human existence Resistance and the Politics of Truth Iain MacKenzie,2018-03-27 The truth will set you free is a maxim central to both theories and practices of resistance Nonetheless it is a claim that has come under fire from an array of critical perspectives in the second half of the 20th century Iain MacKenzie analyses two of the most compelling of these perspectives the poststructuralist politics of truth formulated by Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze and the alternative post foundational account of truth and militancy developed by Alain Badiou He argues that a critically oriented version of poststructuralism provides both an understanding of the deeply entwined nature of truth and power and a compelling account of the creative practices that may sustain resistance
