Direct Action An Ethnography:

Direct Action David Graeber, 2009 A radical anthropologist studies the global justice movement Lost People David Graeber, 2007 An epic account of the power of memory in Madagascar Ecoliberation Jennifer D. Grubbs, 2021-06-15 Disenchanted by indirect forms of protest designed to work within existing systems of corporate and state power animal and earth liberation activists have turned instead to direct action In this detailed ethnographic account Jennifer Grubbs takes the reader inside the complicated intricate world of these powerful and controversial interventions nuancing the harrowing realities of political repression with the inspiring clever ways that activists resist Grubbs draws on her personal experiences within the movement to offer a thoughtful and intersectional analysis Tracing the strategies of liberationist activists as they grapple with doing activism under extreme repression Ecoliberation challenges ubiquitous frameworks that position protestors as either good or bad by showing how activists playfully and confrontationally enact radical social change Nearly a decade in the making the book looks back at the notorious period of repression called the Green Scare and draws contemporary connections to the creep of fascism under President Donald Trump In stories that are simultaneously heartbreaking riddled with tension and contradiction and inspiring Grubbs proves that whether or not the revolution is televised it will be spectacular Routledge Handbook of Radical Politics Ruth Kinna, Uri Gordon, 2019-05-16 Successive waves of global protest since 1999 have encouraged leading contemporary political theorists to argue that politics has fundamentally changed in the last twenty years with a new type of politics gaining momentum over elite representative institutions The new politics is frequently described as radical but what does radicalism mean for the conduct of politics Capturing the innovative practices of contemporary radicals Routledge Handbook of Radical Politics brings together leading academics and campaigners to answer these questions and explore radicalism s meaning to their practice In the thirty five chapters written for this collection they collectively develop a picture of radicalism by investigating the intersections of activism and contemporary political theory Across their experiences the authors articulate radicalism s critical politics and discuss how diverse movements support and sustain each other Together they provide a wide ranging account of the tensions overlaps and promise of radical politics while utilising scholarly literatures on grassroots populism to present a novel analysis of the relationship between radicalism and populism Routledge Handbook of Radical Politics serves as a key reference for students and scholars interested in the politics and ideas of contemporary activist movements What Comes After Occupy? Todd A. Comer, 2015-10-05 Occupy Wall Street as centered in New York City received much publicity Little attention however has been granted to the hundreds of Occupy groups in marginal locations whose creative politics were certainly not limited by the influential example of Occupy in Zuccotti Park This volume rectifies this oversight with thirteen essays critically addressing the politics of occupation in places such as Indiana Oregon Texas Ohio Pennsylvania Montana and California It initiates an interdisciplinary and critical discussion concerned with the importance of the local to contemporary politics the evolution of Occupy Wall Street tactics as they changed to fit differing non spectacular contexts and what worked or did not work politically in various contexts All of the above is designed to inform and improve that as of yet unnamed movement which will come after Occupy Boasting scholars from sociology English anthropology peace studies and history the volume is divided into three major sections Occupying the Local Promise and Predicament Occupying Space and Borders South East and West and Occupying the Media Local Regional and National Dilemmas

Organizing Occupy Wall Street Marisa Holmes, 2023-07-08 This book is the first study of the processes and structures of the Occupy Wall Street movement written from the perspective of a core organizer who was involved from the inception to the end While much has been written on OWS few books have focused on how the movement was organized Marisa Holmes an organizer of OWS in New York City aims to fill this gap by deriving the theory from the practice and analyzing a broad range of original primary sources from collective statements structure documents meeting minutes and live tweets to hundreds of hours of footage from the OWS Media Working Group archive In doing so she reveals how the movement was organized in practice which experiments were most successful and what future generations can learn

Surrealist sabotage and the war on work Abigail Susik, 2021-10-12 In Surrealist sabotage and the war on work art historian Abigail Susik uncovers the expansive parameters of the international surrealist movement s ongoing engagement with an aesthetics of sabotage between the 1920s and the 1970s demonstrating how surrealists unceasingly sought to transform the work of art into a form of unmanageable anti work In four case studies devoted to surrealism s transatlantic war on work Susik analyses how artworks and texts by Man Ray Andr Breton Simone Breton Andr Thirion scar Dom nguez Konrad Klapheck and the Chicago surrealists among others were pivotally impacted by the intransigent surrealist concepts of principled work refusal permanent strike and autonomous pleasure Underscoring surrealism s profound relevance for readers engaged in ongoing debates about gendered labour and the wage gap endemic over work and exploitation and the vicissitudes of knowledge work and the gig economy Surrealist sabotage and the war on work reveals that surrealism s creative work refusal retains immense relevance in our wired world

The Long Year Thomas J. Sugrue, Caitlin Zaloom, 2022-01-25 Some years 1789 1929 1989 change the world suddenly Or do they In 2020 a pandemic converged with an economic collapse inequalities exploded and institutions weakened Yet these crises sprang not from new risks but from known dangers The world like many patients met 2020 with a host of preexisting conditions which together tilted the odds toward disaster Perhaps 2020 wasn t the year the world changed perhaps it was simply the moment the world finally understood its deadly diagnosis In The Long Year some of the world s most incisive thinkers excavate 2020 s buried crises revealing how they must be confronted in order to achieve a more equal future Keeanga Yamahtta Taylor calls for the defunding of police and the refunding of communities Keisha Blain demonstrates why the battle against racism must be global and Adam Tooze reveals that COVID 19 hit hardest where inequality was already greatest and welfare states weakest Yarimar Bonilla Xiaowei Wang Simon Balto Marcia Chatelain

Gautam Bhan Ananya Roy and others offer insights from the factory farms of China to the elite resorts of France the meatpacking plants of the Midwest to the overcrowded hospitals of India The definitive guide to these ongoing catastrophes The Long Year shows that only by exposing the roots and ramifications of 2020 can another such breakdown be prevented It is made possible through institutional partnerships with Public Books and the Social Science Research Council Deeply Felt, Reflections on Religion & Violence within the Anarchist Turn Karen Kennedy,2015-10-26 This book is a reflection upon the anarchist turn It takes three newish anarchists and interprets their work following the method of exegesis Two questions guide the work What can the anarchist turn tell us about revolution and nonviolence and what can it tell us about contemporary religion The protagonists are David Graeber Timothy Morton and Simon Critchley This book is of interest to anarchists activists and philosophers Indeed anyone doing and interested in interdisciplinary approaches to important cultural questions and the building of nonviolent cultures should find at least parts of this book interesting The Bloomsbury Companion to Anarchism Ruth Kinna,2012-06-28 The Bloomsbury Companion to Anarchism is a comprehensive reference work to support research in anarchism The book considers the different approaches to anarchism as an ideology and explains the development of anarchist studies from the early twentieth century to the present day It is unique in that it highlights the relationship between theory and practice pays special attention to methodology presents non English works key terms and concepts and discusses new directions for the field Focusing on the contemporary movement the work outlines significant shifts in the study of anarchist ideas and explores recent debates The Companion will appeal to scholars in this growing field whether they are interested in the general study of anarchism or in more specific areas Featuring the work of key scholars The Bloomsbury Companion to Anarchism will be an essential tool for both the scholar and the activist Concise Encyclopedia of Human Geography Loretta Lees,David Demeritt,2023-02-14 With 78 specially commissioned entries written by a diverse range of contributors this essential reference book covers the breadth and depth of human geography to provide a lively and accessible state of the art of the discipline for students instructors and researchers At the Crossroads of Music and Social Justice Brenda M. Romero,Susan M. Asai,David A. McDonald,Andrew G. Snyder,Katelyn E. Best,2023-02-07 Music is powerful and transformational but can it spur actual social change A strong collection of essays At the Crossroads of Music and Social Justice studies the meaning of music within a community to investigate the intersections of sound and race ethnicity religion gender sexual orientation and differing abilities Ethnographic work from a range of theoretical frameworks uncovers and analyzes the successes and limitations of music s efficacies in resolving conflicts easing tensions reconciling groups promoting unity and healing communities This volume is rooted in the Crossroads Section for Difference and Representation of the Society for Ethnomusicology whose mandate is to address issues of diversity difference and underrepresentation in the society and its members professional spheres Activist scholars who contribute to this volume illuminate possible pathways and directions to support musical diversity and representation At the Crossroads of Music and Social Justice is an excellent resource for readers interested in real world examples of how folklore ethnomusicology and activism can together create a more just and inclusive world

Reclaiming the University for the Public Good Malcolm Noble,Cilla Ross,2019-12-11 This book asks how we can reclaim the university for the public good The editors and contributors argue that the sector is in crisis accelerated by the passing of the UK Higher Education Research Act in 2017 and made visible during the University and College Union strikes in April 2018 In response to this there are widespread demands to reclaim the university and protect education as a public good using co operative structures Taking an interdisciplinary and social justice perspective the editors and contributors offer concrete examples of alternative higher education in doing so analysing how the future of the university can be recovered This intersectional volume discusses a broad range of approaches to higher education while disseminating new ideas It will be of interest and value to those disenchanted with the current state of higher education in the UK and beyond as well as activists and policy makers

Direct Action ,1999 Span the World with Friendship Douglas Bourn,Richard Palser,2025-06-02 Within the histories of progressive educational movements and youth work one organisation that rarely gets a mention is the Woodcraft

Folk Founded in 1925 it has been consistently at the forefront of promoting radical social change through education It played a role in breaking down the barriers between East and West during the Cold War in promoting a co educational and cooperative based approach to learning and in encouraging environmental activism at a time when it was unfashionable The Woodcraft Folk s evolving approach to education for social change is explored in Span the World with Friendship from a range of disciplinary perspectives including political and social theory cultural history anthropology educational theory and youth work theory Through investigation of published and primary sources including letters meeting records and oral testimonies contributors bring scholarship to a narrative that has often been uncritical Beginning with a biography of founder Leslie Paul chapters study the Folk s relationship to debates in the labour movement the extent to which the eugenics movement influenced its ideas and practices and how the folk songs and dances used within the organisation reflected wider social and cultural trends Internationalism is a key theme running through this book which concludes with a focus on how the Woodcraft Folk s progressive nature is moving it increasingly towards being a youth led movement Communities of Practice and Ethnographic Fieldwork Lee Cabatingan, Susan Bibler Coutin, Deyanira Nevárez Martínez, 2024-11-20

Communities of Practice and Ethnographic Fieldwork offers a new perspective on how ethnography might be learned in real time through participation in a supportive community of practice It draws on the experiences knowledge and training of an interdisciplinary group of scholars who have studied legal topics ethnographically alongside and with the support of fellow ethnographers at varying stages of their careers Contributors address topics that are of interest to those who teach ethnography as well as to those who are learning this approach Such topics include ethics positionality in the field the combination of personal and professional circumstances and the process and pain of changing research topics Each chapter emphasizes the role of mentoring and collective problem solving through a lab model of fieldwork practice particularly when carrying out research with subjects and interlocutors who may have undergone trauma Written by a diverse group of scholars this volume will appeal especially to Black Indigenous and People of Color and female identifying ethnographers in a range of fields It provides a framework for how fieldwork can continue moving forward even in the most challenging of times and will be of particular interest to scholars in anthropology sociology law urban planning studies geography political science ethnic studies public policy sociolegal studies and education Emergent Spaces Petra Kuppinger, 2022-01-01

This book explores different emergent spaces where diverse urbanites spontaneously negotiate make and remake urban spaces create opportunities produce social change challenge urban life culture and politics or simply ask for their right to the city The focus of this book is on spaces and contexts where change is seeded regardless of whether it was planned and whether it was or will be successful in the end Contributors analyze the seeds of change at their very inception in diverse cultural contexts across four continents How do small groups of ordinary and often also disenfranchised people design suggest and implement ideas of change How do they use and remake small urban spaces to better suit their purposes voice claims to the city create opportunities and design better urban lives and futures The emphasis of this volume is not on the nature of activities and change but on the minute processes of initiating change      The Handbook of Law and Society Austin Sarat, Patricia Ewick, 2015-03-30 Bringing a timely synthesis to the field The Handbook of Law and Society presents a comprehensive overview of key research findings theoretical developments and methodological controversies in the field of law and society Provides illuminating insights into societal issues that pose ongoing real world legal problems Offers accessible succinct overviews with in depth coverage of each topic including its evolution current state and directions for future research Addresses a wide range of emergent topics in law and society and revisits perennial questions about law in a global world including the widening gap between codified laws and law in action problems in the implementation of legal decisions law s constitutive role in shaping society the importance of law in everyday life ways legal institutions both embrace and resist change the impact of new media and technologies on law intersections of law and identity law s relationship to social consensus and conflict and many more Features contributions from 38 international expert scholars working in diverse fields at the intersections of legal studies and social sciences Unique in its contributions to this rapidly expanding and important new multi disciplinary field of study
