Disability, Care and Family Law Beverley Clough, Jonathan Herring, 2021-04-12 This book explores the series of issues that emerge at the intersection of disability care and family law Disability studies is an area of increasing academic interest In addition to a subject in its own right there has been growing concern to ensure that mainstream subjects diversify and include marginalised voices including those of disabled people Family law in modern times is often based on an able bodied autonomous norm but can fit less well with the complexities of living with disability In response this book addresses a range of important and highly topical issues whether care proceedings are used too often in cases where parents have disabilities how the law should respond to children who care for disabled parents and the care of older family members with disabilities It also considers the challenges posed by the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities particularly around the different institutional and state responsibilities captured in the Convention and around decision making for both disabled adults and children This interdisciplinary collection with contributors from law criminology sociology and social policy as well as from policy and activist backgrounds will appeal to academic family lawyers and disability scholars as well as students interested in issues around family law disability and care

The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Ilias Bantekas, Michael Ashley Stein, Dimitris Anastasiou, 2018-10-25 This treatise is a detailed article by article examination of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD Each article of the CRPD contains a methodical analysis of the preparatory works followed by an exhaustive examination of the contents of each article based on case law and concluding observations from the CRPD Committee judgments from national and international courts and tribunals pertinent UN and other reports the key literature on the article under review The volume features commentary from a broad range of scholars across a variety of disciplines in order to provide a comprehensive study of the legal psychological education sociological and other aspects of the CPRD This encyclopaedic commentary on the CRPD effectively covers all the issues arising from international disability law and practice and will be an ideal resource for all working in the field

Child Law for Social Work Jane Williams, 2008-05-18 An invaluable resource for all social workers in practice with children and families this book examines key issues such as child protection family support care planning adoption and case preparation for court With illustrative case studies throughout the text is divided into two sections Part 1 explores the legal context of social work practice with children examining how international human rights standards are absorbed within domestic law Part 2 explores the application of the law policies and systems to individual case work illustrating rights based thinking in practice Accessible to those without a background in law the book highlights links between social work standards and legal values and rules With promotion of the rights of children and families a measure of professional competence and legal obligation the book helps readers satisfy social work standards and use their knowledge of the law to improve their practice The book is vital reading for all levels of social work student including those undertaking the post qualifying award in child care as well as being an indispensable resource for practitioners working with children and families Jane Williams is a lecturer in law at the University of Swansea She specialises in social work law and children s rights Other publications include Children and Citizenship SAGE 2007 co edited with Antonella Invernizzi Making Sense of the Children Act 1989 Nick Allen, 2005-09-01 The Children Act is a major piece of legislation that affects all professionals working with children Since the third edition of this book was published in 1996 there have been some important developments This Fourth Edition takes these developments into consideration Topics discussed include case law in the superior courts the establishment of CAFCASS and the Fostering Services Regulations of 2002 and much more
