Feminist New Materialisms Beatriz Revelles Benavente, Monika Rogowska-Stangret, Waltraud Ernst, 2020-03-05 For the editors of this collection new materialisms have always been the entanglement of epistemology ontology ethics and politics Looking back to the notion of situated knowledges Haraway 1988 that among others planted the seed for feminist new materialism van der Tuin 2015 26 one sees how those at least four planes are entangled Rogowska Stangret 2018 in order to bring forth response able Haraway 2008 research New materialism is thus an ethico onto epistemological framework Barad 2007 Revelles Benavente 2018 that by activating its ethico politics helps to diagnose infer and transform gendered environmental anthropocentric social injustices from a multidimensional angle Social injustices are a driving motivation to pursue research and are the reason why the editors and authors of this Special Issue cannot understand new materialism without feminism in the lines of eds Hinton Teusch 2015 Contemporary feminist researchers are providing new materialisms with a transversal approach Yuval Davis 1997 that comes from many different disciplines without canonizing back again knowledge creation and production and in hope that they will not enter back into classifixations van der Tuin 2015 It is situated Haraway 1988 research response able Haraway 2008 to material discursive practices that iterate in a dynamic conceptualization of matter Sewing, Fighting and Writing Maria Tamboukou, 2015-11-09 Paris along with New York was one of the main centres of the fashion industry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries But although New York based garment workers were mobilized early in the twentieth century Paris was the stage of vibrant revolutions and uprisings throughout the nineteenth century As a consequence French women workers were radicalized much earlier creating a unique and unprecedented moment in both labour and feminist history Seamstresses were central figures in the socio political and cultural events of nineteenth and early twentieth century France but their stories and political writings have remained marginalized and obscured Drawing on a wide range of published and unpublished documents from the industrial revolution Sewing Fighting and Writing is a Foucauldian genealogy of the Parisian seamstress Looking at the assemblage of radical practices in work politics and culture it explores the constitution of the self of the seamstress in the era of early industrialization and revolutionary events and considers her contribution to the socio political and cultural formations in modernity

Academic Women in Neoliberal Times Briony Lipton, 2020-06-24 This book investigates the gendered dimensions of academic life in the contemporary Australian university It examines key discourses most notably academic performativity and identity through a feminist lens and scrutinises how discourses of neoliberalism and feminism are entangled in the structure systems operations and cultures of the university Drawing on in depth qualitative interviews with academic women in Australia the author uses a mix of experimental methods to emphasise the performative and discursive decisions women make with regard to their academic careers In doing so this book reveals how women themselves generate neoliberal and feminist shifts how they manage the contradictions they produce and how they carve spaces of influence and authority Moving towards a re evaluation of existing discourses this book offers new insights into gender inequality in the Australian university in neoliberal times
