Tourism in a Changing World Melanie K. Smith, Mike Robinson, 2006-01-01 Cultural Tourism in a Changing World provides an in depth analysis of the key political and social debates in the field of cultural tourism drawing on a range of international examples to exemplify the issues raised The authors highlight the complex dynamism of cultural tourism and its potential to transform destinations and peoples in a rapidly changing world Tourism, Culture and Development Stroma Cole, 2008

This book provides a holistic multi stakeholder picture of the first twenty years of tourism development in a remote region of Eastern Indonesia It is a rich description of how tourism is intertwined with life in an non western marginal community Based on anthropological methods this ethnography is about tourism and socio cultural change tourists conflict globalisation poverty and powerlessness Translating in the Local Community Peter Flynn, 2023-04-25 This volume showcases different forms of natural and non professional translation and interpreting at work at multilingual sites in a single city shedding new light on our understanding of the intersection of city migration and translation Flynn builds on work in translation studies sociolinguistics linguistic ethnography and anthropology to offer a translational perspective on scholarship on multilingualism and translation focusing on examples from the superdiverse city of Ghent in Belgium Each chapter comprises a different multilingual site ranging from schools to eateries to public transport and unpacks specific dimensions of translation practices within and against constantly shifting multilingual settings The book also reflects on socio political factors and methodological considerations of concern when undertaking such an approach Taken together the chapters seek to provide a composite picture of translation in a multilingual city demonstrating how tracing physical linguistic and social trajectories of movement in these contexts can deepen our understanding of the contemporary dynamics of multilingualism and natural translation and of translanguaging more broadly This book will be of interest to students and scholars in translation and interpreting studies sociolinguistics multilingualism linguistic anthropology and migration studies

David Botterill, Vincent Platenkamp, 2012-04-12 This book walks students through the selection and application of research methods within Tourism Experienced authors introduce the relevant language and theory of key methodologies and then develop them using strategic literature review and the inclusion of international examples which relate directly to tourism Each concept sets the historical and philosophical context of a method alongside the practical application of the technique and provides authoritative and reliable data informative cross referencing detailed discussion of theories and their critics suggestions for further reading The book is a vital resource for all students of tourism leisure and management

Multilingual Routes in Translation Maria Sidiropoulou, Tatiana Borisova, 2022-04-07 This book tackles the interface between translation and pragmatics It comprises case studies in English Greek Russian and Chinese translation practice which highlight the potential of translation to interact with pragmatics and reshape meaning making in a target language in various pragmatically relevant ways Fiction and non fiction genres merge to suggest a rich inventory of interlingual transfer instances which can broaden our perception of what may be shifting in translation transfer Authors use an emic approach in addition to an etic one to confirm results which they often present graphically The book has a didactic perspective in that it shows how pragmatic awareness can regulate translator behaviour and is also useful in foreign language teaching because it shows how important implicit knowledge can be in shaping the message in a foreign language Royal Tourism Phil Long, Nicola J. Palmer, 2008 The relationships between tourism and royalty have received little coverage in the tourism literature This volume provides a critical exploration of the relationships between royalty and tourism past present and future from a range of disciplinary perspectives Tea and Tourism Lee Jolliffe, 2007-01-01 Tea and Tourism outlines the social political and developmental contexts of using tea culture for tourism Case studies of tea tourism destinations and products from around the world are included from example from the United Kingdom Sri Lanka India China Taiwan Kenya and Canada

The Affective Negotiation of Slum Tourism Tore Holst, 2018-01-29 Each year approximately a million tourists visit slum areas on guided tours as a part of their holiday to Asia Africa or Latin America This book analyses the cultural encounters that take place between slum tourists and former street children who work as tour guides for a local NGO in Delhi India Slum tours are typically framed as both tourist performances bought as commodities for a price on the market and as appeals for aid that tourists encounter within an altruistic discourse of charity This book enriches the tourism debate by interpreting tourist performances as affective economies identifying tour guides as emotional labourers and raising questions on the long term impacts of economically unbalanced encounters with representatives of the Global North including the researcher This book studies the feeling rules governing a slum tour and how they shape interactions When do guides permit tourists to exoticise the slum and feel a thrilling sense of disgust towards the effects of abject poverty and when do they instead guide them towards a sense of solidarity with the slum s inhabitants What happens if the tourists rebel and transgress the boundaries delimiting the space of comfortable affective negotiation constituted by the guides This book will be essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working within the fields of Human Geography Slum Tourism Research Subaltern Studies and Development Studies Histories of Tourism John K. Walton,2005-10-12 This collection of essays develops the historical dimension to tourism studies through thematic case studies The editor s introduction argues for the importance of a closer relationship between history and tourism studies and an international team of contributors explores the relationships between tourism representations environments and identities in settings ranging from the global to the local from the Roman Empire to the twentieth century and from Frinton to the Far East

Teaching English for Tourism Michael Ennis,Gina Petrie,2019-07-04 Teaching English for Tourism initiates a sustained academic discussion on the teaching and learning of English to tourism professionals or to students who aspire to build a career in the tourism industry Responding to a gap in the field this is the first book of its kind to explore the implications of research in English for tourism EfT within the field of English for specific purposes This edited volume brings together teachers and researchers of EfT from diverse national and institutional contexts focusing on connecting current research in EfT contexts to classroom implications It considers a wide range of themes related to the teaching of EfT including theoretical concepts methodological frameworks and specific teaching methods The book explores topics relating to the impact of changing technologies the need for cultural understanding and support for writing development among others Teaching English for Tourism explores this growing area of English for specific purposes and allows for researchers and practitioners to share their findings in an academic context This unique book is ideal reading for researchers post graduate students and professionals working in the fields of English language teaching and learning Peace Through Tourism Freya Higgins-Desbiolles,Lynda-Ann Blanchard,Yoko Urbain,2022-12-26 Peace through Tourism considers the possibilities for tourism to contribute to efforts to unmask conflict and promote peace This edited volume considers the intersections between tourism peace justice and sustainability through conceptual and empirical works surveying practices problems and challenges all around the globe It presents a complex and critical approach arguing that peace through tourism is dialogic and not as simple as describing a few good niche segments of tourism The pedagogies of peace represented here work to analyse structural violence associated with tourism such as in the dominance of neoliberal market imperatives over local or social economies colonising patriarchal and anthropocentric practices in tourism and tourism s complex role in post conflict settings Analyses found here place scholars industry and communities in conversation about building shared tourism futures where peace is understood as peace with justice and differences are bridged through dialogues towards understanding In light of the many challenges in attaining sustainable development in the 21st century this volume is an important and timely endeavour Radical practices are explored that support more just tourism futures With a new introduction this book is an insightful resource for scholars and researchers of Tourism and Peace and Conflict Studies The chapters in this book were originally published in Journal of Sustainable Tourism Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker,2014-10-14 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism Unprecedented levels of mobility and international exchange over the last 100 years have raised questions about the stability of national and personal identities and new and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create in various geographical contexts Germany Spain Romania Italy Africa and concludes with a number of case studies from the Portuguese context where the revenues from tourism are integral to its economy and a lifeline in the current economic crisis Backpacker Tourism Kevin Hannam,Irena Ateljevic,2007 Backpacker tourism has shifted from the margins of the travel industry into the mainstream Backpacker Tourism Concepts and profiles explores the current state of the international backpacker phenomenon drawing together different disciplinary perspectives on its meaning impact and significance Links are drawn between conceptual issues and case studies setting backpacking in its wider social cultural and economic context
