Discourses Of Denial Mediations Of Race Gender And Violence:

Discourses of Denial Yasmin Jiwani, 2011-11-01 Enriched by its official policies of multiculturalism gender equality and human rights the Canadian public is occasionally shocked by glaring acts of racist and sexist violence brought to their attention by the sensationalist media But nobody pauses to consider the historical antecedents and root causes of these tragedies Discourses of Denial uncovers how racism sexism and violence interweave deep within the foundations of our society Using examples from the lives of immigrant girls and women of colour Yasmin Jiwani considers the way accepted definitions of race and gender shape and influence public consciousness In linking race gender and violence this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of the complex and interconnected influences that shape the violence of contemporary social reality and that contour the lives of racialized women

Discourse Studies Teun A Van Dijk, 2011-03-28 Covers contemporary debates and research literature covers everything from grammar narrative argumentation cognition and pragmatics to social political and critical approaches adds two wholly new chapters on ideology and identity and puts the student at the centre

Bean, 2013 This book explores the dynamic range of literacy practices in and out of school that are reconstructing youth gender identities in both empowering and disempowering ways and the implications for local literacy classrooms

Racisms in a Multicultural Canada Augie Fleras, 2014-04-29 In acknowledging the possibility that as the world changes so too does racism this book argues that racism is not disappearing despite claims of living in a post racial and multicultural world To the contrary racisms persist by transforming into different forms whose intent or effects remain the same to deny and disallow as well as to exclude and exploit Racisms in a Multicultural Canada is organized around the assumption that race is not simply a set of categories and that racism is not just a collection of individuals with bad attitudes Rather racism is as much a matter of interests as of attitudes of property as of prejudice of structural advantage as of personal failing of whiteness as of the other of discourse as of discrimination and of unequal power relations as of bigotry This multi dimensionality of racism complicates the challenge of formulating anti racism and anti colonialist strategies capable of addressing it Employing a critical framework that puts politics and power at the centre of analysis this book focuses on why racisms proliferate how they work in contemporary societies and how the way we think and talk about racism changes over time Specifically it examines the working of contemporary racisms in a multicultural Canada that claims to abide by principles of multiculturalism and a commitment to a post racial society

Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies Smaro Kamboureli, Robert Zacharias, 2013-02-26 Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies is a collection of interdisciplinary essays that examine the various contexts political social and cultural that have shaped the study of Canadian literature and the role it plays in our understanding of the Canadian nation state The essays are tied together as instances of critical practices that reveal the relations and exchanges that take place between the categories of the literary and the nation as well as between the disciplinary sites of critical discourses and the porous boundaries of their methods They are concerned with the material effects of the imperial and colonial logics that have fashioned Canada as well as with the paradoxes ironies and contortions that abound in the general perception that Canada has progressed beyond its colonial construction Smaro Kamboureli's introduction demonstrates that these essays engage with the larger realm of human and social practices throne speeches book clubs policies of accommodation of cultural and religious differences Indigenous thought about justice and ethics to show that literary and critical work is inextricably related to the Canadian polity in light of transnational and global forces

Islam in the Hinterlands Jasmin Zine, 2012-04-20 Muslim communities have become increasingly salient in the social cultural and political landscape in Canada largely due to the aftermath of 9/11 and the racial politics of the ongoing war on terror that have cast Muslims as the new enemy within Islam in the Hinterlands features empirical studies and critical essays by some of Canada's top Muslim Studies scholars who examine how gender public policy media and education shape the Muslim experience in Canada Touching on much debated issues such as the sharia controversy veiling in public schools media portrayals of Muslims and anti terrorism legislation this book takes a distinctly anti racist feminist standpoint in exploring the reality of the Muslim diaspora A timely collection addressing some of the most hotly contested issues in recent cultural history Islam in the Hinterlands will be essential reading for academics as well as general readers interested in Islamic studies multiculturalism and social justice

Red Skin, White Masks Glen Sean Coulthard, 2014-08-15 WINNER OF Frantz Fanon Outstanding Book from the Caribbean Philosophical Association Canadian Political Science Association's C.B. MacPherson Prize Studies in Political Economy Book Prize Over the past forty years recognition has become the dominant mode of negotiation and decolonization between the nation state and Indigenous nations in North America The term recognition shapes debates over Indigenous cultural distinctiveness Indigenous rights to land and self government and Indigenous peoples right to benefit from the development of their lands and resources In a work of critically engaged political theory Glen Sean Coulthard challenges recognition as a method of organizing difference and identity in liberal politics questioning the assumption that contemporary difference and past histories of destructive colonialism between the state and Indigenous peoples can be reconciled through a process of acknowledgment Beyond this Coulthard examines an alternative politics one that seeks to revalue reconstruct and redeploy Indigenous cultural practices based on self recognition rather than on seeking appreciation from the very agents of colonialism Coulthard demonstrates how a place based modification of Karl Marx's theory of primitive accumulation throws light on Indigenous state relations in settler colonial contexts and how Frantz Fanon's critique of colonial recognition shows that this relationship reproduces itself over time This framework strengthens his exploration of the ways that the politics of recognition has come to serve the interests of settler colonial power In addressing the core tenets of Indigenous resistance

movements like Red Power and Idle No More Coulthard offers fresh insights into the politics of active decolonization

Girlhood, 2006 Media and Politics in the Southern Mediterranean Roxane Farmanfarmaian, 2020-10-20 This edited volume presents ground breaking empirical research on the media in political transition in Tunisia Turkey and Morocco Focusing on developments in the wake of the region s upheavals in 2011 it offers a new theoretical framework for understanding mediascapes in the confessional and hybrid authoritarian systems of the Middle East In this book media scholars focus on three themes the media s structure as an expression of governance the media s function as a reflection of the market and the media s agency in communicating between power and the public The result is a unique addition to the literature on two counts Firstly analysis of similar players issues and processes in each country produces a thematically consistent comparative assessment of the media s role across the southern Mediterranean region The first cross country comparison of specific media practices in the Middle East it covers issues such as women in talk shows media s relationship with surveillance and comparative practices of media regulation Secondly actualising the idea that media reflects the society that produces it the studies here draw on field data to lay the foundations for a new theory of media Values and Status Negotiation VSN which evolved from the region s unique characteristics and practices and offers an alternative to prevailing Western centric approaches to media analysis Media and Politics in the Southern Mediterranean will appeal to students and scholars of politics sociology Media Studies Cultural Studies and Middle Eastern Studies Women and the Egyptian Revolution Nermin Allam, 2018 An examination of women s political participation and engagement during and after the 2011 uprising in Egypt The Political Economy of Media and Power Jeffery Klaehn, 2010 The Political Economy of Media and Power is a highly interdisciplinary and innovative edited collection bringing together a diverse range of chapters that address some of the most important issues of our times Contributors cut through media spectacle and make visible the intersections between mass media and the politics of power in the contemporary social world The book is intended to foster critical pedagogy chapters explore ways in which media connect with a broad range of topics and issues including globalization war and terrorism foreign affairs democracy governmental relations the cultural politics of militarization gender inequality and the sexist saturation of the public sphere media representations of women media spin and public relations within the broader context of corporate and ideological power The volume features notable contributors including a preface by Cees Hamelink an introduction by David Miller and William Dinan and chapters from Justin Lewis Robin Andersen Henry Giroux James Winter Robert Jensen Stuart Allan Richard Keeble Yasmin Jiwani David Berry Gerald Sussman and Andrew Mullen Youth Work, Early Education, and Psychology Veronica Pacini-Ketchabaw, Kathleen Skott-Myhre, 2016-01-26 Youth Work Early Education and Psychology re examines the set of relations generally referred to as working with children and youth It presents a series of propositions that highlight politicized strategies to working with young people under current conditions of late liberal capitalism Racialized Bodies, Disabling Worlds Parin Dossa, 2009-02-14 In Racialized Bodies Disabling

Worlds Parin Dossa explores the lives of Canadian Muslim women who share their stories of social marginalization and disenfranchisement in a disabling world She shows how these women who are subjected to social erasure in policy and research define their identities and claim their humanity using the language of everyday life Based on narrative ethnography Racialized Bodies Disabling Worlds makes a case for positive acknowledgement of perceived differences of nationality religion multiple abilities and gendered and race based identities It offers a powerful argument for bridging two disparate bodies of work disability studies and anti racist feminism Most significantly it shows how racialized Muslim women with disabilities are redefining the parameters of their social worlds and developing a distinctively pluralistic understanding of abilities This ground breaking work gives presence to the lives of people who are otherwise rendered socially invisible

Feminist Interventions in International Communication Katharine Sarikakis, Leslie Regan Shade, 2008 This cutting edge work critiques today's global mediascape through feminist perspectives highlighting concerns of policy power labor and technology Starting with the general state of international communications the book uses feminist political economic and policy analyses to explore the globalization of media industries including questions about women's employment and media content that is globally produced and consumed A top notch group of authors covers cases on online news pornography and explicit material political participation and democracy policies for women's development violence against women labor practices and information workers print media and publishing public telecentres media coverage of HIV AIDS and more Providing fresh feminist insights into international communication this essential book shows the important strides taken toward women's justice in these areas and how far there is yet to go

Resilience and Triumph The Book Project Collective, 2015-10-06 A collection of true stories from 54 racialized immigrant and refugee women create an eclectic mix of three generations of voices Women in their 20s to those in their 70s provide snapshots that begin in the 1960s and go to the present Together these vividly recounted entries capture historical and everyday moments that reveal striking similarities and differences Resilience and Triumph provides readers with an eye opening glimpse into 50 years of immigrant women's lives in Canada

Containing Madness Jennifer M. Kilty, Erin DeJ, 2018-07-28 This collection explores the discursive production and treatment of mental distress as it is mediated by gender and race in different institutional contexts Featuring analyses of the prison the psychiatric hospital immigration detention and other locales this book explores the multiple interlocking oppressions that result in the diagnosis and medical psychological and psychiatric treatment of individuals constituted as mentally ill at various historical moments and across institutional spaces Contributors unpack how feminine masculine and transgender bodies are made up as mentally ill sick deviant by way of biomedical and institutional knowledges and discourses and are intervened upon by different institutional and expert authorities

Crime, Justice and Social Democracy K. Carrington, M. Ball, E. O'Brien, J. Tauri, 2012-10-17 This is a provocative collection of timely reflections on the state of social democracy and its inextricable links to crime and justice Authored by some of the world's leading thinkers from the UK US Canada and Australia the volume provides an understanding of socially sustainable societies
