Course Description and Syllabus

Mr. Dixon • shane.dixon@mrhschools.net • Voice Mail (314) 446-3890

Course Overview: This semester long elective course is designed to provide students an opportunity to learn about and examine modern-day local, national, and global issues, problems, and current events. The desired outcome is that students will 1) become better informed and, therefore, more engaged, active citizens, and 2) recognize that many of these issues have historical and cultural origins rooted in the recent and ancient past. In this course, students will analyze a variety of primary and secondary texts to explore not just media bias but also the various other factors that influence how news is reported and consumed in the 21st century. In addition, students will examine timely contemporary, often controversial, issues and current events, often exploring themes such as:

- Foreign Policy, International Relations, and Nationalism
- War, Conflict, and Terrorism
- Global Economy and Trade
- Diversity, Culture and Human Rights
- Sustainability and Environment

Students will construct arguments and debate topics as well as develop research, evaluative, and analytical skills which they will use to illustrate analysis and synthesis of the curricula.

Grading:

1. Homework- 15% . This practice is used to prepare for class discussions or reflect and apply information we have discovered and discussed in class. This includes readings, marking text as well as Its Learning Homework Activities. No homework will be accepted that is not 100% Completed. Partial work is not accepted and will be considered late.
2. Weekly Current Event Assignments- 10%.
3. Quizzes-25%. Quizzes will be vocabulary quizzes, weekly quizzes and unscheduled pop Quizzes.
4. Tests/Performance Assessments-50%. All tests will be announced and scheduled with at least 2 days notice. (The vast majority will be Performance Assessments based on student research and/or presentations)

Homework and Testing Policy:

All homework is due by time the bell rings for your class. After the bell rings any submitted homework is late. (If you have internet issues or your computer dies, it is not excused from being late.) You should never wait until the last minute to submit work. Any work that is submitted after the deadline will only be worth 50% credit max. If you would have scored an 80%, it will be a 40%. If you would have scored a 75% it will be a 38%, a 4 on homework will be a 2, a 3 on homework will be a 1.5, and a 2 on homework will be a 1 and so on. After two calendar days, your work will not be accepted and will be a permanent zero.

- Work due Monday must be completed by the same time Wednesday or it will be a permanent zero.
- Work due Tuesday must be completed by the same time Thursday or it will be permanent zero.

Resources in Education, 1997 Contemporary Readings in Curriculum Barbara Slater Stern, Marcella L.

Kysilka, 2008-03-20 This book of readings provides readers with an historical context of the curriculum field Contemporary Readings in Curriculum focuses on how curriculum may be organized and what is happening in the academic and co curriculum of schools The readings also address the political nature and current debates of curriculum and how we must be attentive to the increasingly diverse populations found in our schools The Mathematical Education of Teachers II

Conference Board of the Mathematical Sciences, 2012 This report is a resource for those who teach mathematics and statistics to PreK 12 mathematics teachers both future teachers and those who already teach in our nation's schools The report makes recommendations for the mathematics that teachers should know and how they should come to know that mathematics It urges greater involvement of mathematicians and statisticians in teacher education so that the nation's mathematics teachers have the knowledge skills and dispositions needed to provide students with a mathematics education that ensures high school graduates are college and career ready as envisioned by the Common Core State Standards This report draws on the experience and knowledge of the past decade to Update the 2001 Mathematical Education of Teachers report's recommendations for the mathematical preparation of teachers at all grade levels elementary middle and high school Address the professional development of teachers of mathematics Discuss the mathematical knowledge needed by teachers at different grade levels and by others who teach mathematics such as elementary mathematics specialists special education teachers and early childhood educators Each of the MET II writers is a mathematician statistician or mathematics educator with substantial expertise and experience in mathematics education Among them are principal investigators for Math Science Partnerships as well as past presidents and chairs of the American Statistical Association Association of Mathematics Teacher Educators Association of State Supervisors of Mathematics Conference Board of the Mathematical Sciences and National Council of Teachers of Mathematics The audience for this report includes all who teach mathematics to teachers mathematicians statisticians and mathematics educators and all who are responsible for the mathematical education of teachers department chairs educational administrators and policy makers at the national state school district and collegiate levels School Moms Laura Pappano, 2024-01-30 An investigative study of the far right's attack on education and an on the ground look at the parent activist battle on either side of the debate to control the future of public schools For well over a century public schools have been a non partisan gathering place and vital center of civic life in America but something has changed In School Moms journalist Laura Pappano explores the on the ground story of how public schools across the country have become ground zero in a cultural and political war as the far right have made efforts to seek power over school boards Pappano argues that the rise of parent activism is actually the culmination of efforts that began in the 1990s after campaigns to stop sex education largely fizzled Recent efforts to make public schools more responsive and inclusive as well as the pandemic have offered openings the far right have been waiting for to organize and sway parents who are frustrated and exhausted by remote learning objections by teachers unions and shifting directives from school leaders Groups like Moms for Liberty and Parents Defending Education are organizing against revised history curricula they have dubbed as CRT banning books pressing for Don t Say Gay laws and asserting parental rights to gain control over the review of classroom materials On the other side progressive groups like Support Our Schools and Red Wine Blue are mobilizing parents to counter such moves Combining on the ground reporting with research and expert interviews School Moms will take a hard look at where these battles are happening what is at stake and why it matters for the future of our schools
