Contemporary Moral Problems

In an age that has seen international conflict, climate crisis, and political turmoil, we are confronted with a number of ethical dilemmas that demand our attention as modern subjects. In this class, we will explore several contemporary moral problems such as issues of academic freedom, state surveillance, and mass incarceration.

Through the work of figures like Angela Davis, W.E.B. DuBois, and Michel Foucault, we will explore the philosophical implications of these issues and establish various approaches for navigating the pressing demands of our contemporary lives.

Banner, 1999-09-28 This book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources Michael Banner argues that the task of Christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the Christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics He illustrates both the distinctiveness of Christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent The book's importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which Christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them
