Intersectionality in Action Peter Felten,Brooke Barnett,2023-07-03 Colleges and universities silo diversity and inclusion by creating specific courses to address them or programs to welcome and support people with a range of identities whereas in reality students faculty and staff do not encounter diversity in the fractured ways that match the organizational structures of our institutions We all simultaneously embody a variety of identities with different saliency in different circumstances and times This book offers models for institutions to move intentionally toward intersections of study abroad and multiculturalism of race and gender and religion and of other essential aspects of our educational programs and our students identities to open doors to new possibilities that better prepare our students for life in a diverse world and that allow our institutions to become more efficient and effective as we strive to not simply do things better in our own separate spheres but to do better things by working together across difference Each chapter offers action oriented analysis focusing on particular campus intersections rather than attending to specific demographic groups Chapter authors also build on their own local expertise of doing this work on campuses that often do not have deep pockets or rich histories of such efforts The book is organized into three sections People focuses on diversity broadly defined considering questions about how we recruit and engage the students faculty and staff in the campus community and how we work with governing boards and others to promote inclusive excellence Environment focuses on inclusion including residence life the local community the working and learning environment and external factors and events such as national and international news or town gown relationships Learning focuses on perspective taking and learning about difference in the core curriculum the disciplines and the co curriculum as well as professional development for faculty and staff This ground reaking book helps readers no matter what position they occupy on campus to develop the knowledge and capacities necessary to create inclusive classrooms and is premised on the understanding that identity oppression power and marginalization cannot be addressed by looking solely at single identities

Contested Issues in Troubled Times Peter M. Magolda, Marcia B. Baxter Magolda, Rozana Carducci, 2023-07-03

Contested Issues in Troubled Times provides student affairs educators with frameworks to constructively think about and navigate the contentious climate they are increasingly encountering on campus The 54 contributors address the book's overarching question How do we create an equitable climate conducive to learning in a dynamic environment fraught with complexity and a socio political context characterized by escalating intolerance incivility and overt discrimination Rather than attempting to offer readers definitive solutions this book illustrates the possibilities and promise of acknowledging multiple approaches to addressing contentious issues articulating a persuasive argument anchored in professional judgment listening attentively to others for points of connection as well as divergence and drawing upon new ways of thinking to foster safe and inclusive campuses Among the issues this volume addresses are such topics as sexual violence historically underrepresented racial and ethnic groups transgender and undocumented students the professional skills knowledge and or dispositions needed to thrive and facilitate systemic change in contemporary higher education organizations the implications of maintaining personal and professional identities via social media and self care In this companion volume to Contested Issues in Student Affairs whose issues remain as relevant today as they were upon publication in 2011 a new set of contributors explore new questions which foreground issues of equity safety and civility themes which dominate today's higher education headlines and campus conversations The book concludes with calls to action encouraging student affairs educators to exhibit the moral courage needed to critically examine routine practices that unknowingly perpetuate inequity and enact the foundational values and principles upon which the student affairs profession was founded
