A Contribution to the Study of the Moral Practices of Certain Social Groups in Ancient Mesopotamia Mrs. Beatrice Allard Brooks, 1921 The American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures, 1923 Journal of the Society of Oriental Research Society of Oriental Research, Chicago, 1921 The International Critical Commentary on the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, 1927 Journal of the Society of Oriental Research Society of Oriental Research, 1921 The International Critical Commentary on the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments Samuel Rolles Driver, Charles Augustus Briggs, 1927 An Inconvenient Truth Ashley E. Davis, 2025-01-23 Crime made Christ's death a necessity A simple choice in lies and deceit a lapse in moral character a choice to commit a simple criminal act against the Creator paved the way for the cross Jesus knew from before the beginning of creation that his death would atone for the lies deceitfulness and sinful choices of mankind He knew and he still made a way for us to him This book discusses the personal element of crime in relation to Christian religious principles that made the cross necessary while emphasizing the need for personal responsibility in light of criminological behavior The International Critical Commentary on the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments: Daniel, by J. A. Montgomery, 1927 A Contribution to the Study of the Moral Practices of Certain Social Groups in Ancient Mesopotamia Beatrice Allard Brooks, 2015 Scientific Sources and Teaching Contexts Throughout History: Problems and Perspectives Alain Bernard, Christine Proust, 2013-11-26 This book examines the textual social cultural practical and institutional environments to which the expression teaching and learning contexts refers It reflects on the extent to which studying such environments helps us to better understand ancient or modern sources and how notions of teaching and learning are to be understood Tackling two problems the first is that of certain sources of scientific knowledge being studied without taking into account the various contexts of transmission that gave this knowledge a long lasting meaning The second is that other sources are related to teaching and learning activities but without being too precise and demonstrative about the existence and nature of this teaching context In other words this book makes clear what is meant by context and highlights the complexity of the practice hidden by the words teaching and learning Divided into three parts the book makes accessible teaching and learning situations presents comparatist approaches and emphasizes the notion of teaching as projects embedded in coherent treatises or productions Ancient Mesopotamian Materials and Industries Peter Roger Stuart Moorey, 1999 This is the first systematic attempt to survey in detail the archaeological evidence for the crafts and craftsmanship of the Sumerians Babylonians and Assyrians in ancient Mesopotamia covering the period ca 8000 300 B C E As creators of some of the earliest farming and urban communities known to us these people were among the first pioneers of many crafts and skills that remain fundamental to modern ways of life Many of the raw materials for crafts had to be imported from outside the river valley of the Tigris and Euphrates providing an unusually sensitive indicator of the commercial and cultural contacts of Mesopotamia In this book Dr Moorey

reviews briefly the textual evidence and then goes on to examine in detail the material evidence for a wide range of crafts using stones both common and ornamental animal products from hippopotamus ivory to ostrich egg shells ceramics glazed materials and glass metals and building materials With a comprehensive bibliography this will be a key work of reference for archaeologists and those interested in the early history of crafts and technology as well as for specialist historians of the ancient Near East     Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired 1881/1900-. individual social status As well as geographical environmental and dietary factors which undoubtedly affected general health some groups were prone to specific hazards These are discussed in detail including soldiers experience of trauma wounds and exposure to epidemics and conditions blindness sand pneumoconiosis trauma and limb amputations resulting from working conditions at building and other sites Methods of diagnosis and treatment were derived from special concepts about disease and medical ethics These are explored as well as the individual contributions and professional interactions of various groups of healers and carers Medical training and practice occurred in various locations including temples and battlefields these are described as well as the treatments and equipment that were available Ancient writers generally praised the Egyptian healers knowledge expertise and professional relationship with their patients A brief comparison is drawn between this approach and those prevailing elsewhere in Mesopotamia Greece and Rome Finally Egypt s legacy transmitted through Greek Roman and Arabic sources is confirmed as the source of some principles and practices still found in modern Western medicine Combining information from the latest studies on human remains and the authors biomedical research this book brings the subject up to date enabling a wide readership to access often scattered information in a fascinating synthesis
